Heathen nations have different legends as to the origin of woman, tond them caused them to face about. A The Japanese believe that she grew on a tree, the Laplanders that she was once a rabbit, the Persians that she fell from the heavens, and the Australians that she was once a toad. Christian nations are taught to believe that she was created from a man's rib, which is about as absurd as any of the be-

Parnell, the great Irish agitator who lately was involved in a scandal with Mrs. O'Shea somewhere in the bogs of ould Oirland, had a row with the Micks at Kilkenny the other day, when one of them eye was coming up with a policoman-"shwat him on der gole mit a brickstein" and threw two bushels of lime in his eyes. Parnell was blinded, and will have to stop agritating the Irish home rule. If they had killed him a year or so ago his fame would have worn a great deal better.

Secretaries Windom and Noble have become so alarmed over the pension payments, which bid fair ficit in the near future, that they have laid the matter before Mr. Harrison, in the hope that some medito not me payments by revising the pension rolls, or otherwise, may be concerted.
