LOCAL BREVITIES.

Write it 1891. Huntsmen's Ball. Snowing this morning. King Winter has come. Petitions and remonstrances. Happy New Year to all of you. We'll take those ham and eggs on subscription now. Observe the sailing dates of U. P. steamers for January. There was no death of amusement of all kinds during the holidays. Mrs. Asbury returned home from Oakland on Sunday night's stage, and the old N. L. W. man is happy. Married, in this city last Tuesday, Chas. W. Hann and Miss Elyester George, both of Grant county. Wm. George has been released from custody, having given bonds for his appearance at the next term of court. The ball at Lower town Christmas night was well attended, and all who attended pronounce it an enjoyable occasion. Rule Gilchrist of Long Creek has been held in $1,200 bonds for burning hay on Middle Fork, we have been informed. The Huntsmen instead of having their ball last evening, postponed it until tomorrow (Friday) evening after the Japanese Wedding. Diphtheria is not. In the case of Johnny Herburger the disease proved to be something else just in the nick of time, thus his life was saved. Parties desiring an advance on next year's clip of wool can have the same by applying to Allen & Radio, Long Creek, Oregon.

Charley Parrish finds a cane handy to lean upon at times. Recognizing this fact his family made him a holiday present of a handsome silver mounted cane. FOUND—On the road near this city, 7 3/4 40-90 cartridges. Same were left at this office with the request that the owner prove property and pay for advertising. There will be services at the M. E. church next Sunday evening, January 4th at 7 o'clock. Preaching by the pastor. Subject, "A New Year's Friendly Interrogation." The remonstrance against the passage of an enabling act is being signed quite rapidly, we learn. Evidently a majority of the tax payers on this side oppose a removal of the county seat. As we have already said, let the voice of the tax payers govern—they are the persons most deeply interested. Judge Sels butchered his pigs the other day. The largest one weighed when dressed 470 lbs and was not very fleshy either. Chicago hams and lard are crowded out of Judge Sels' warehouse. Grant county would be more prosperous if a few of her other citizens would follow his example and devote a little time to swine culture. The Christmas tree at this place represented many hundreds of dollars in the way of presents. The committee in charge, too, had the tree handsomely decorated, and the presents it bore attractively arranged. Masonic hall was full of people to witness the distribution of presents and to hear the songs and recitations of the children. Christmas is a glad time, and long may it wave. On Christmas evening two Swedish sailors who came up from Portland some time ago and had undertaken the job of steering a band of Andrew Anderson's sheep away from the wolves, went up to John Day to celebrate, and having imbibed too much of the "enabling act," got into an altercation. Gusto Waingren thumped Louis Lund. Lund had Watngren arrested. After the Court, jury and two lawyers had wrestled with the case two days the jury disagreed and the attorney for the state then dismissed the case. Two weeks ago we published an item calling attention to the amount of county indebtedness, the present tax levy and the value of county property at this place, and finished up by saying in substance that in the face of all this if the tax payers of Grant county desired an enabling act the GRANT COUNTY NEWS was "with them." To most every one this declaration of faith in the tax payers of Grant county scratched just where they itched. A few, however, brooded over the subject unable to see through the cobwebs until they grew nearly frantic, and accused us of "standing in with Long Creek." This, of course we have not done any more than to evidence a disposition to allow Grant county's tax payers to think and act for themselves instead of attempting to curtail their thinking privileges. Speaking personally, we have never favored an enabling act, believing that would result in the removal of the county seat from the John Day valley where our possessions lie. But personal interests do not seal the voice of a free press. Russia has a despotic form of government, the press is muzzled and the people are slaves. In this glorious land free speech is allowed. If you don't want the enabling act you have a perfect right to lift up your voice against it.

MONUMENT ITEMS.

Mrs. J. H. McHaley who has been very ill is convalescent. W. M. Seward our school teacher, has been confined to his room for the past week. It is time that some of the inhabitants of Grant county should turn their attention to some other industry other than stock raising. Our ranges are badly overstocked. I am under the same impression of THE NEWS, i. e., that as good hops can be grown in Grant county as ever grew out of doors. The climate as well as the soil in some localities in Grant county seem to be perfectly adapted to the production of hops. There was a little war among the school officials last week, but it was brought to an abrupt close by the surrender of one of the directors. The school was discontinued for the week on account of the trouble. The tomahawk has been buried and the school will go on in the new school house, a magnificent building constructed by your humble correspondent amid the grandest of the Blue Mountain scenery. The gigantic rye grass that once towered above a man's head on horseback along the river bottom and moist places has about disappeared except inside of enclosures, and it is only a question of time till the luxuriant bunchgrass that was once waved by the gentle zephyrs on the thousand hills of Eastern Oregon will be numbered among the things of the past, and the hideous howl of the coyote from his lonely perch on the lofty peak will be heard no more. EX-SHEEPHERDER.

THE HOLIDAY SPORTS.

The shooting match advertised for Christmas day was extended so as to include the next day also, it being impossible to crowd so much sport into one short day. In shooting for the beef Jas. Geary won first choice, H. Hunter second, Louis Pruitt third, H. Hunter fourth and Louis Pruitt fifth. For turkeys and geese there were a number of contestants, and the birds were pretty well divided among the shooters. The trap shooting was interesting. Single birds at eighteen yards rise, each man ten birds, five at a score. The following is the score for trap shooting: Vic Cozad 00100 00010-2 C. W. Parrish 00110 11111-7 A. J. Stephens 11101 10011-7 M. E. Stansell 01001 01111-6 J. H. Sollinger 10000 00000-1 Walter Berry 10011 10001-5 F. R. Sels 11011 10001-6 H. Hunter 10111 10111-8

Will Find the Outlook Encouraging.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. E. Chamberlain, of Greenfield, Iowa, wherein he makes inquiries regarding a site for a 50-bbl flouring mill. Replying to this the News would inform Mr. Chamberlain that the people of this the John Day valley are anxious for a roller process flouring mill to be erected. There are two burr mills in the valley—one at John Day and one on Strawberry creek—both run by water power. The majority of people relish patent flour, however, and ship it from the railroad 86 miles away—the nearest point to a roller mill. Canyon City has fine water power furnished by mining ditches. John Day two miles below has water power the finest in Oregon. All over this valley you can find streams to turn your wheel, and the farmers can produce an excellent quality of wheat. The New York World says Porter's census is at the bottom of the Indian troubles. The ration apportionment on that basis was starving him, and the red man prefers war to famine.

THE MATCHED HUNT.

Every animal or bird killed was counted as so many points in the score, accordingly as they had been previously graded. Following is the number of points scored by each: Walt Berry, Captain 42 Frank Sels 235 A. J. Stephens 130 M. E. Stansell 68 Wm. Lincoln 39 Elmer Overholt 88 F. Jackson 102 H. Hunter, Captain 72 J. Sollinger 95 V. G. Cozad 86 Chet Guernsey 130 B. Blunt 82 J. L. Parrish 166 Robert Hines 51 Capt. Berry's side's majority 682

Dakota Indians claim to have seen old Sitting Bull's ghost, and they are positive now that old Sit was their Messiah.

SOUTH FORK SAYINGS.

ROSE BUD, Dec. 27, '90. DEAR EDITOR:— Mr. W. D. Officer who has been sick for some time with the measles, is up and now at work weaning calves. Elce Delore of Beaver creek was over hating his horses sharp shod and getting ready for the winter campaign. Elce says the slick ears are plenty but devilish wild. Mr. L. D. Atherton a former resident but who left some years ago, has now returned to God's country and will hereafter be numbered among the inhabitants of Rose Bud. There will be a shooting match at Hugh Clark's ranch New Years day at which several beeves will be shot for and an old-fashioned barbecue is to be had. Everybody expects a good time. Mr. D. Magill who is one of the largest cattle men in this part of Grant county, evidently thinks there is a prospect for better prices in the near future, as he has just bought a small band of cattle and several horses from Mr. Carlos Bonham. The second grand annual ball at Rose Bud was given Christmas night at the school house under the auspices of the Happy Hour Club of which Mr. Henry Snodgrass is chairman. The committee consisting of Messrs. John Buntin, Ray Boggs and Irvin Lewis left nothing undone in their endeavors to make all enjoy themselves. Everything went off very nicely and all seemed pleased that they were there. The supper was an elegant affair and would have been had for even the famous Delmonaco to have surpassed. The only thing that marred the evening's pleasure was the amount of tanglefoot consumed by some of the gentlemen. Bear valley and Beaver creek were both well represented, and the gay girls and jolly boys were still tripping the light fantastic when at 3 o'clock your correspondent left for home. TRAD BUCKHORN.

A Tribute to Miss Mollie Faiman. Mollie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Faiman of Prairie City, crossed the narrow stream dividing time from immortality on Friday, Dec. 26, 1890. Although her illness lasted nearly six weeks and occasioned severe suffering much of the time, she was brave and patient to the end, sweetly bidding her kindred an affectionate "good bye." It seems but yesterday since she was in school, bright happy and cheerful, her kind heart throbbing with noble and lofty ambition. How improbable it seemed to our finite reason, that her life work was so nearly finished! Just blossoming into womanhood's fair dawn—having counted but sixteen bright years—blessed with unusual vigor and the glow of perfect health—of warm generous nature, she was loved by all who knew her, and we had counted for her multiplied years. But alas! The light of the home has suddenly gone out and left it dreary and desolate, and 'mid tears we attempt to show the bereaved ones that we remember that "sympathy is human nature's richest dower." No human hand can give the key to unlock the mystery of this sudden snatching of earthly hopes, or tell why this blow should fall, but this we do know—she is safe from anxious fears, broken ties and all human loss. No hers to bear the burden of life. No more sorrow, no more temptation, no more pain, no more tears for her, and "she sees the Beacon Light!"

Think out of the mill, cold form. With folded hands and quiet breast. Think only that one loved was more. Has found at last sweet, blissful rest. —A FRIEND.

NOTICE. All those knowing themselves indebted to the Estate of H. R. Sels by note or account will please settle the same at once, or costs will be added. MRS. LOUISA SELS, Executrix.

The Pacific Brewery's Celebrated Beer, the best in Eastern Oregon, is now kept constantly on tap at the Red Front Billiard Hall. It now looks as if the election bill would become a law, as a republican caucus has decided that the rules shall be changed as soon as the new silver bill, which was to have been taken up this week, is disposed of. Our new "ad." from the enterprising firm of Coffin & McFarland, Hepper, speaks for itself, and it is worth your while to read the same. In order to gain new trade they intend presenting a fine large book, which retails at $4.00 each, to every retail purchaser of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats etc., to the amount of $25.00, allowing until Jan. 1st to make out the amount. Give them a trial order, when you send away for goods.

A VOTER'S VOICE.

DAYVILLE, Dec. 29, 1890. ED. NEWS:—I would like to say a few words to the Long Creek people about keeping the county seat at Canyon City. I know it is against their religion to preach such to them, but there never was a doctrine but what found adherents in every community. Let me set forth some of the reasons why it should not be moved. First, it would impose more tax on the people; second, it would move it away over to one side of the county; third, it is as near the center of the voting populace as it could well be gotten. Full well do we know that it would put the county deeper in debt, for court houses and jails cannot be built or moved by magic like the wonderful temples constructed by the Genii in the Arabian Nights. And in moving it to Long Creek see what an inconvenience it would impose on the people of Bear valley, Prairie City, South Fork and down on the Mountain. Much as I admire the prerogative that incites you to action, gentlemen of Long Creek, which is "home first, the world next," I think that same motive should combine the people of the John Day valley to keep the county seat. Let your views be more liberal. Let your aspirations reach out to your countrymen and let your words be "the greatest good to the greatest number." Don't let that Almighty Dollar swing before each eye until you can see nothing else. Brush it away and look to the good of your county. Let the world see that your motives are pure and undefiled. But Ah! you cry, "fraud," "fraud!" about the way the present court house was constructed. Oh, that's old; it's stale. Give us a rest. That is only a blind which you are throwing before the eyes of the people to stir up strife and arouse adverse sentiments until you can mass enough votes to carry the day. Messrs. Allen and Patterson have been in this valley arousing these sentiments until some are crying, "Let's move it to Mt. Vernon." Others, "Let's move it to Prairie City," while some cling to Canyon. So, having the people in this valley so divided they have some hope, by the united effort of their Long Creek brethren, to carry the day. Don't divide at home, for "a house divided against itself cannot stand." I would like to hear from some of the John Day valley or Bear valley folks on this important question. Respectfully, A VOTER.

Go to the Red Front Billiard Hall, Canyon City, for fine wines, liquors and cigars. Some persons are petitioning for an enabling act under the belief that the county seat of Grant county has never been permanently located by a vote of the people. They are mistaken. A large number in the county today will make affidavit that they helped by their votes to locate it here. NOTICE. All persons knowing themselves indebted to W. J. Galbraith either by note or account, will please come forward and settle the same by the 1st day of January, 1891. All notes and accounts not settled by that date will be placed in the hands of an attorney for immediate collection. I need money to meet my obligations, and am obliged to adopt this method to meet the requirements. W. J. GALBRAITH, Prairie City, Or., Dec. 19, 1890.

This is being signed for presentation to the Legislative Assembly. TO THE HON. LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OREGON: We the undersigned residents of Grant County, State of Oregon, and legal voters therein, respectfully represent that a petition has been circulated in said county which will be presented to your Honorable body at the session thereof to be held in 1891 praying that an act be passed enabling the voters of said county to vote at the next general election, to be held in said county, upon the question of re-locating the County Seat of said County. That the County Seat of said county has been permanently located at Canyon City for more than Twenty years. That the said County owns property in said Canyon City, the said County Seat, consisting of a Court house and Jail and the lot upon which they are situated, of the value of Thirty-four Thousand Dollars ($34,000) which have not been completed more than four years and said property would be entirely worthless if the County Seat was relocated. That said County is burdened with an indebtedness amounting to about the sum of Seventy Thousand Dollars ($70,000.) That a great portion of the tax-payers are heavily indebted and many cannot raise money to pay their taxes and have been on the delinquent list for several years last past. That the removal of the County Seat from where it is now located and making the necessary new county buildings and improvements would cause an extra expense of Twenty-five or Thirty Thousand Dollars ($25,000 or $30,000.) That about one-half of the voters of said county are non-tax-payers, and if an act be passed as prayed for in said petition, a change of the location of the County Seat of said County may be carried principally by the vote of said non-tax-payers at the expense of a few of the Citizens of said county. That a large majority of the tax-payers of said county do not desire a relocation of the County Seat and it is now near the central portion of the County and no public benefit could result from such relocation. Wherefore we the legal voters of Grant County, State of Oregon, as aforesaid, remonstrate against said petition and ask that no act be passed by your Honorable Body submitting the question of re-locating the said County Seat to a vote of the voters of said county, and we as in duty bound will ever pray.

ELECTRICITY'S GREAT WORK.

Mike Markey Cured of Deafness of 20 Years' Standing—Also Mr. E. D. Pierce was Served the Same Way. Editor Oregonian: For twenty years I have been gradually growing deaf, accompanied with all sorts of ringing noises in my ears. I had despaired of ever being relieved until some of my neighbors had tried Dr. Darrin and been cured. That gave me courage, and led me to try him. He has restored my hearing and stopped the noises with electricity, medical and surgical treatment. I live three miles west of Portland on the Barnes road. Post office, Portland, Or. MIKE MARKEY. Mr. Editor: For fifteen years I have been deaf, and gradually growing worse, until the past three years I could not hear my watch tick or any conversation. I came to Dr. Darrin and received his electric treatment, and am now able to hear a watch tick and feel overjoyed with the cure I have received. I live in Albina, and my place of business is in the market on Russell street, near the Continental Hotel. E. D. PIERCE. J. S. Jennings Cured of Skin Disease. Editor Oregonian: For fifteen years I have been troubled with a skin disease. Dr. Darrin has cured me. Refer to me at Sellwood, Or. J. S. JENNINGS.

The Doctors are crowded with patients from 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. Drs. Darrin are no doubt the hardest worked men in Portland. The doctors have a large country practice and send their electric remedies to any one desiring home treatment for any curable chronic, acute or private diseases, which are kept strictly confidential. One of the doctors is visiting different towns in the state to better accommodate those who find it impossible to come to Portland. The head office at 704 Washington street, Portland, will run as usual. Consultation and examination free. All classes treated free from 10 to 11 A. M. daily. Charges moderate, being only $20 a month for each disease, or in that proportion, as cases may require.

NOTICE—All those indebted to W. P. Duncan will please come forward and let us settle before January 1st, 1891, and commence anew. W. P. DUNCAN, John Day, Or., Dec. 7, 1890.

MANUFACTURED ONLY BY THE CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y. ONE ENJOYS Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, its many excellent qualities commend it to all. It is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Among the curiosities to be found in the Minnesota State Law Library are two volumes of the colonial laws of Massachusetts, 1769 to 1772. They are, of course, reprints, but "yo olden style" has been faithfully reproduced. The code of laws in vogue in those provincial days was truly very crude. It was then that the whipping-post was resorted to as a mode of punishment, but it is stipulated that "no man shall be beaten with above forty stripes, nor shall any true gentleman, nor any man equal to a gentleman, be punished by whipping unless his crime be very shameful and his course of life vicious and profligate. Again the code says: "If any man shall blaspheme the name of god, the father, Son, or Holy gho., with direct, expresse, presumptuous or high handed blasphemie, or shall curse God in the like manner, he shall be put to death."

Peculiar Hood's Sarsaparilla. Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of its kind which can truly be said to "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiarly a "good name" at home,—there is now no more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold to Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its purity. No other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadily.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. $1.00 for 100 Doses. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar. NEW TO-DAY.
