LOCAL BREVITIES.

John Day valley ranchers have water turned on their meadows for irrigating.

"Special venires" have been the fashion lately, in order to obtain jurors for the many cases tried.

Andrew Castaino and Joe Pigeon each started below last Saturday, in charge of Clay Tolhunter and Frank Metschan.

The West Shore, which has done a great deal toward the development of the great Northwest, has suspended publication.

George Rondebush left at this office lately a specimen of good-looking ore, which he finds in the quartz country south of here.

River ranchers experienced a slight frost during the week, but it is thought the fruit crop was not materially damaged.

Herbert Cummings, who has been attending Dorigo College, at Augusta, Maine, writes that he will start for home about the first of June.

Farmers up the valley are praying for summer showers to insure the grain crop on hill ranches, where water is scarce for irrigating.

We understand the people up the creek are making every preparation necessary for the success of the Fourth of July celebration at Soda Springs.

Circuit court for Harney county will convene at Burns next Monday. Judge Clifford will adjourn court here early enough this week to reach there in time.

Go to the Red Front Billiard Hall for a cool, refreshing drink of the finest lager beer in Eastern Oregon. Buck beer on tap on and after May 1st. *

H. B. Hendricks, of Fossil, a life insurance agent, thinking there might be considerable business in his line up around here, was soliciting during the week.

Some good ground is being worked by the Humboldt Co., in their claim near town, this season. Last week a nugget was picked up from bedrock, which tipped the scales at $8.00.

The town council has passed an ordinance imposing a tax of $2 on ordinary dogs, which, owing to the number of such animals owned in this town, ought to furnish a large amount of revenue.

Tom Quaid, of Heppner, expects to drive about 20,000 head of mutton sheep from Grant county this season. This number, at prices ranging from $2.25 to $2.75, will leave a little hard cash scattered around.

Our watchmaker here in Canyon City has just bought a line of spectacles and eye-glasses which is undoubtedly one of the best and most complete ones in Oregon. Genuine pebbles a specialty. Moderate prices. *

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Bonham, of Izee, were in town a few days during the week. Izee is flourishing, a Sabbath school having been organized with Geo. Gilbert as superintendent and Mrs. Bonham secretary.

Now is the time to brighten up your premises by using paint freely, for nothing adds more to the general appearance of a town, or makes a more favorable impression on strangers than neatly painted houses and fences.

Mr. Granville Clark intends engaging in the drug business in the Dr. Horsley drug store as soon as necessary arrangements can be made. Mr. Clark is a professional pharmacist, and will undoubtedly do well here in that business.

Fifty laborers have been advertised for to work on the Sumpter Valley railroad. Idle men can earn an honest dollar, besides hastening the time when the iron horse shall snort down the gulch leading to the John Day river.

While moving the engine which runs the steam derrick in Horace Sloan's placer mine, at Susanville, the crowbar on which he was lifting slipped and struck Mr. Sloan in the side, fracturing a rib, in consequence of which he was incapacitated for work for some time.

N. Randall, of Boise City, a mining expert, came in Sunday night and took considerable interest in our quartz prospects. We understand Mr. Randall contemplates another trip here next month, when some of the numerous ledges in this vicinity may be bonded and more extensively developed.

The occasion of Henry Blackwell's recent illness and paralytic stroke was said to have been copperas poison. He arrived home, and his wife being away, he prepared supper. Instead of baking powder he mixed his bread with pulverized copperas by mistake, and being rather hungry, he partook of a chunk of the stuff called bread, hence the agony.

The Long Creek Eagle has turned over a new leaf, and promises to be a better paper in future. Last week's issue makes numerous good resolves. The NEWS is pleased to see this evidence of reform in the Eagle, which bird has evidently come to the conclusion that misrepresentations and uncalled for attacks upon the character of any individual are no good.

MINING NEWS.

Horace Sloan returned home during the week from his mines at Susanville, and reports the outlook favorable for his placer mine, which has been started and everything working satisfactorily. Several four or five-dollar nuggets have been picked up already. They expect to work considerable more ground this season than last, as the steam derrick is in better trim.

Smith, Stevenson & Scott have sold their quartz claim, at the head of Quartz gulch, to the Centennial Mining and Milling Co., of Portland.

John Hughes is now taking out some fine-looking ore from his ledge on the right bank of Elk creek.

Ives Bros. are running their arastra on Bear creek. James Short is running the John Hughes arastra at Sloan's mill.

Horace Sloan intends starting up his quartz mill in about a month, if possible.

Tom Smyer is running his Deep creek placers. He picked up a $70 specimen the first day he worked.

Smith Bros. contemplate a trip over to Wallowa county, on a prospecting expedition, soon.

Miners in the Elk creek country are all in good spirits, and all prospects so far have been most favorable. Mr. Sloan has three feet of solid ore in his Mocking Bird ledge, and the vein appears to be widening. Good times are certainly in store for the quartz miners of Grant county.

Attorney Sweek, of Burns, was in our midst a few days last week.

Carpets, wall paper and carpet paper just received at Overholt's. *

Born, Monday night, to the wife of O. P. Cresap, a young deputy sheriff.

Rev. Bailey Dustin held religious services at Lower Town Sabbath evening.

Crickets are devastating meadows and grain fields in Wasco and Sherman counties.

Last week's cordwood figures were in error. The amount of wood floated down was near five hundred cords.

J. O. Hamaker, representing the State Insurance Co., of Salem, has been in this vicinity during the week.

Cal Grigsby is said to be quite sick at his home in Bear valley, and Dr. Orr was called to see him last Tuesday.

Jas. Lofton reports that on Bear valley ranges the ground is becoming just dry enough for grass to grow with a rush.

New goods Just received at Overholt's. The finest and most complete line of dry goods ever brought to Canyon City. *

Thornton Williams and wife, of Harney, have been in the city during the week, Mr. Williams having some business to transact.

President Harrison, while in Portland, refused to shake an old colored woman's hand, and the poor old lady was nearly broken hearted.

In the case of Richard Hickson vs. Tillary Pruitt, appeal from the justice court, the jury failed to agree after deliberating about twenty-seven hours.

Trefry Bros. have finished shearing and dipping their band of sheep in Bear valley. They were the first ones in all the valley to put their sheep in summer trim.

Miners are expected to soon begin flocking into the Greenhorn country. Snow on the higher ranges has interfered with travel to some extent, but the snow will soon be gone, we understand.

Joseph McAllister was arrested last Monday and tried before Judge Robinson the following day on a charge of threatening the life of his neighbor George Ripley. The prisoner was acquitted.

The editor of the NEWS was indicted by the late grand jury for libel, alleged to have been committed on the 15th day of last January, in the publication of a communication headed "A Scrap of History."

The action of the commissioners court in making a small appropriation for the Robinsonville wagon road is a commendable one. The miners over there are deserving of good roads, and nothing impresses a stranger in our county as favorably as good thoroughfares.

Snowshoe races on four feet of snow is what the miners of Grant county are enjoying just now, while down here a few thousand feet below, cherries are turning ripe and the people are trying to keep cool. Wonderful country, this, and rich in mineral resources.

The recent school entertainments at this place were given that our excellent public school might be maintained the full nine months. The teachers deserve credit for their efforts in making them a success. The special tax levied for this year failed to reach the expected standard.

The Bird over on the Crick announces that its management has been merged into the "Patterson Publishing Co.," but that its present editor will continue as such, and as business manager. The NEWS man might now organize the "Asbury Publishing Co." consisting solely of Col. D. I. Asbury, or of plain, everyday "Dan," but what's the use? We can dun debtors and dodge creditors without organizing a "Publishing Co."

CIRCUIT COURT.

LAW DOCKET.

John Ebbard vs. W. P. Gray et al—damages; judgment of dismissal and for costs.

Margaret Powell vs. Murray Bros. and Kenneth McLennan—recovery of money; motion to open up judgment denied.

The treasury department has ordered a duty of 2½ per cent on Mexican lottery tickets sent through El Paso by express.

Chicago seems to want the earth. It secured the world's fair, and is already demanding both national conventions next year.

Fruit prospects continue first-class, and it seems as if it would be necessary to do much thinning after the fruit is firmly set on the trees.

Under the law lately enacted the California state treasurer recently sent to Siskiyou county $1,750 for the support of indigent aged people.

In unlucky New York City the other day the people died at the rate of one in every six minutes, the heaviest mortality of any day during this year.

Dr. Barber was called on a professional visit to Longwater the other day. The practice of Canyon City's two physicians is not circumscribed within an area of sixty miles.

People in this mountain country are not afflicted with Georg. Francis Train and other crazy lectures, as people are who live on the railroad. For this we should feel thankful.

Oregon's game law positively forbids the killing of elk, deer, moose or mountain sheep at this season of the year and persons guilty of the violation of this law are subject to a heavy fine.

District Attorney Hyde, Lawyer Cozad and some others, failed to materialize at Sunday school last Sabbath but turned up in the evening with a long pole and a basket half full of something, so we have been told.

Oregon is a great state, not only in area, but in all those natural elements that go to make a commonwealth; populous, prosperous, contented aspiring to and enjoying the highest degree of civilization.

The jury empanneled to try the case of State vs. Chas. Ladrew, for manslaughter, found the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment and recommended him to the mercy of the Court. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

The Pinkerton agency in Chicago has sent fifty men to the Pennsylvania coke mines. The Philadelphia agency sent the same number, who were reinforced by a similar number from the agency in New York City. The men were all fully armed with revolvers.

Land Office Commissioner Carter says that final proof must be made on all desert land entries under the act of March 3, 1877, within three years, and when sought to be perfected under the act of March, 1891, within four years from the date of entry and publication of notice.

The suspension of the publication of the West Shore seems to illustrate the perils of journalism. The West Shore was one of the best publications of the kind in the country. It was a credit to Oregon, and yet it was wrecked on shoals which line the coast of journalistic ventures. Talk is cheap, but it takes money to run a newspaper.—Evening telegram.

GRANITE GRAINS.

GRANITE, May 9, 1891.

Prospectors are coming in and new discoveries are reported every day.

Dan Perkins is down from Windy Crevace and reports about four feet of snow at that place.

The East Oregon Herald of Burns issues a creditable semi-weekly.

McKay, arrested for lewd cohabitation, plead guilty yesterday.

Emma Chambers, of Long Creek was examined as to her sanity, too late to report in this issue.

The prisoners confined in the county jail at Baker City attempted to secure their liberty Wednesday night of last week. Their plans were frustrated by the vigilance of the sheriff and his deputy.

It is said that Sandy Olds, who murdered Emil Weber and after four trials was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, is working side by side with a man who stole twenty dollars and was sent up for five years.

Twenty five years ago Joe Pulitzer, owner of the New York World, was an obscure reporter working for $25 a week. Now he goes a pleasuring on a $63,000 steam yacht. Great is the power of the press, if your paper has a successful boom attachment.

A woman of Valley City, Dak., wagered that she could put the slips on five pillows while any man present at a church fair could in one case, and seven different men took her up and suffered defeat. No man can ever acquire the knack of holding a pillow in his teeth to work with both hands.

The Chicago Inter Ocean says: "It is estimated that Oregon has merchantable timber amounting to 1,000,000,000,000 feet. At a moderate price, says an authority, it would pay the national debt twice over. The time is coming when it will be of more value than any mines of gold or silver. The world is just waking up to the importance of growing forests."

Two years ago C. H. Prescott, of Tekoaset, Union county, received a small quantity of "White Chaff" wheat which he planted on his farm; harvesting enough seed to sow two and one-half acres last year. From this small piece of ground he harvested 175 bushels of grain or at the rate of 70 bushels per acre. This season he has planted 25 acres. Mr. Prescott says it is the best wheat he has ever seen for dry ground. On the ground last year he used no irrigation. An expert miller examined it and pronounced it a most excellent flour maker.—Union Republican.

But few men, says the Tacoma Globe, have ever fallen into a pot of molten metal and escaped with a few trifling burns, yet John Adams, of Tacoma, did it, the other night. He is an employe of the Ryan smelter, working on the night shift, and it is only through great presence of mind that he was not burned to death. By some misstep he lost his balance and started to fall headlong into an immense pot of molten metal. As he fell he caught the rim of the pot, and although he was immersed almost to his armpits he drew himself out and with almost superhuman effort threw himself into an adjoining pot filled with cold water. Some of his fellow workmen saw him cast himself into the second pot, and, rushing to his assistance, rescued him. His hands were badly burned, but otherwise he had hardly a scar on him. The secret of his escape was that he had on heavy woolen underwear and outer clothing, and before it had been burned through Adams was in the pot of cold water.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

To the Honorable Circuit Judge of Circuit Court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Grant:

We, your grand jury, regularly impaneled and sworn, on the first day of the present term of this Honorable court, beg leave to report that we have been in session twelve full days, that we have examined into a voluminous amount of business presented for our consideration, and have found and returned into this court nineteen true bills of indictment and five not true bills of indictment; that we have examined the office and records of the county clerk of this county, and find everything kept with care and precision, and from such examination as we were able to give, in an entirely satisfactory condition; also have we examined the sheriff's office and the jail of this county. The office is satisfactorily kept, and the jail, so far as the same can be done, under its present arrangement. We, however, find that the jail is inadequate to the demands of the county, and extremely dangerous to the sheriff and deputies, who have the same in charge; that there should be provided and furnished at least one steel cell, for the proper keeping of prisoners, and some different arrangements made inside the jail for the safety of the sheriff and deputies while caring for and keeping prisoners, and we earnestly recommend the county court of this county to speedily take such steps as will remedy these evils.

We did not, personally, visit and examine the county poor farm, but carefully examined into its condition, and find the same adequate to the needs of the county, and properly kept, with regard to the welfare of the county paupers.

We find the books of the county treasurer to be properly and systematically kept; that the state taxes for the year 1890, amounting to $5,246.69 have been paid in full, but that there is now a delinquent tax of the county aggregating about $8,000.00, which we recommend shall be collected and paid into the treasurer of the county as speedily as possible.

We tender our thanks, and beg to compliment the Hon. Morton D. Clifford, judge of this court, for his impartial and courteous conduct at all times, and the very satisfactory manner in which he has disposed of a great amount of business before him.

Also, to our district attorney, Charles F. Hyde, for his assistance and advice in expediting our labors, and for the satisfactory manner in which he has conducted business in court, with a view to expedition and economy.

To our bailiff, we are under especial obligations, for his constant attendance and assistance to us at any and all times, and understanding that he has performed this duty for a number of years past, we cheerfully recommend that he be continued in the same position during future terms of court of this county.

Having completed our labors, we most respectfully ask to be discharged.

Dated at Canyon City, this 9th day of May, A. D. 1891.

CHARLES CULLEY,
Foreman.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that, for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at Canyon City, Oregon, commencing on Wednesday, the 27th day of May, A. D. 1891.

Dated this 9th day of May, 1891.
