Ex-Speaker Reed, J. S. Clarkson and "Mark Twain" are among the distinguished Americans now travelling in Europe, but these three cannot be classed as "Innocents Abroad."

A most desperate fight occurred last week near Stackhouse in Madison county, N. C., between six young men. The fight was about a girl with whom two of the men were in love. Two of the men were fatally shot and one cut with a razor.

A member of the British parliament has been sent to jail for immoral practices. If his case is to be taken as a precedent and the English papers have told the truth about the characters of the rest of them, parliament is in danger of soon being without a quorum.

There has been no special internal revenue tax on dealers in manufactured tobacco, nor on manufacturers of tobacco and cigars, nor on peddlers, since May 24, the date when the new law went into effect. The tax was not heavy, but dealers do not regret that it will be imposed no longer.

Who was it that said Spain was a century behind the rest of the world? They are plowing by electricity over there which would seem to indicate that they are up to, if not a little in advance of the head of the procession. America is highly progressive, but we haven't a monopoly in that line.

The supreme court of Nebraska has just ousted Jas. E. Boyd from the position as governor of the state on the grounds that Boyd is not a naturalized citizen of the United States. Boyd's father, it seems, immigrated here from Ireland at an early date in his life and failed to take out his naturalization papers until Jas. E. became of age.

The young man seems to be coming to the front in this country at a lively pace. When the United States senate is next called to order it will contain three members under forty. Mr. Chilton, the newly appointed senator from Texas is only thirty-six, and Senator Kyle and Irby are only thirty-seven. It remains to be seen how these youngsters will compare in legislative abilities with their older colleagues.

In these days when partisan politics may be found in almost everything, it is a positive pleasure to note the unanimity with which the press of the United States has endorsed and stood by Secretary Blaine in the controversy with the Italian government. It shows that although we may carry on bitter quarrels among ourselves about our home affairs we are all Americans and as such ready to stand shoulder to shoulder in opposition to any foreign power that may attempt to tread on the tails of Uncle Sam's coat.

The Northern Pacific Co. has imported a band of Pinkerton's men to preserve order or create disorder in its coal mines, and the following comment from the Dallas Mountaineer, we think explains the situation exactly: "Pinkerton's men will not be received kindly in Washington, and their presence in the coal fields will be productive of great discontent. The state has several regiments of the National Guard armed and disciplined, who are able to protect life and property when called upon by the governor, and there was no occasion for the Terminal Co. to introduce in the coal mines these private soldiers, who shoot and kill men at so much per day.

Some very peculiar revelations have come to light as the result of the controversy about the killing of the Italians at New Orleans. Perhaps the most remarkable contribution to the history of this episode is that furnished by the Italian consul at New Orleans, Signor Corte, in an interview made public a few days ago. Signor Corte is quoted as saying that immediately after the killing of the prisoners there was a determination manifested by a large number of his countrymen to assassinate the mayor of the city and all the individuals who were concerned in the work of the mob, and to blow up a club-house with dynamite. The consul relates that he restrained these men by threatening to denounce them by name to the authorities.

Used the Crown Six Years.

BURN RIVER, March 1, 1890. MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

I have been using the Crown machine with the greatest satisfaction for six years. It is a very light running and durable machine. As long as I have used the machine it never has raised a sweat on my team. It is also very light on the horses necks. Yours Truly, GEO. W. ELLIOTT.

Simply the Boss

DUNSWAY, Or. March 17, 1890. MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

The machine I bought runs like a top and I think it lays all others in the shade in all kinds of grass and all kinds of ground. It is simply the boss for light draft and speed. M. F. HOWARD.

His Favorite

PRAIRIE CITY, Feb. 27, 1890. MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

I will state without hesitation that the Crown mower that I purchased of you last year has given good satisfaction, and is my preference of any mower I have ever used. Very Respectfully, G. W. McHALEY.

The Acme of Perfection.

JOHN DAY, March 14, 1890. MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

I think the acme of perfection has been reached in the invention of the Crown mower. We have been disgusted every year in trying to mow our meadow, on which grows a peculiar kind of grass. All other machines we tried would leave half the hay standing, but the Crown cut it as smooth as a new-shaven face. We tried it with like results in all kinds of grain, hay and rye grass. All our neighbors who see it work think it is the boss of all mowers. Yours Respectfully, T. H. CURRIE.

The Very Best Mower.

CAMP LOGAN, March 2, 1890. MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

In regard to the Crown mower, I like it very well. It works well in all kinds of grass, and where the grass is lodged or very rank by putting on the increased speed it works to a charm. It is the best mower we have in this country, and I can recommend it to any person wishing to purchase mowers. Yours Respectfully, J. J. COZART.
