THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

July 2, 1891.

So far this season one man at The Dalles has shipped 1200 boxes of cherries, which have netted him $1 a box. Vancouver prune men show by unmistakable statistics that there is a profit of $100 an acre on prunes. This will be a great country for fruit fortunes.

Secretary Rusk continues to take interest in measures intended to do away with the notion that the American hog products are unhealthy. He has been in Chicago instituting the meat inspection bureau, which is to microscopically examine all hog meats intended for export to determine definitely that they are not affected by trichinæ. The secretary believes that as soon as it can be officially shown that American hog products are certainly healthful the European markets will be open to them, and there is some ground for this conclusion.

Ex Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, who was originally appointed chairman of the immigration commission and whose ill advised criticism of foreign born American citizens raised such a row a few weeks ago, wired his resignation to Secretary Foster and it was promptly accepted. It was such a relief to Secretary Foster and Mr. Harrison to receive Gen. Grosvenor's resignation that they rewarded him for sending it in by making him a special world's fair commission, a position that pays precisely the same and which also includes an allowance for a trip to Europe. There are people malicious enough to say that Grosvenor would not have resigned if he had not been promised the other place beforehand.

Mr. Harrison has recognized the Labor organizations by appointing Mr. H. J. Schulteis, of the District of Columbia, who is prominently connected with the Federation of Labor, an additional member of the immigration commission provided for by the last congress, the duties of which will be to proceed to Europe for the purpose of investigating immigration. The appointment of Mr. Schulteis may also be considered as a semi-official recognition of the peoples party recently formed at Cincinnati, as he was by that convention, named as one of the District of Columbia representatives on the national committee of the new party.

It would appear that the late grand jury of Baker county had been "monkeyed" with during their investigation of the "script cases," greatly to the annoyance of that body, from the following section of their final report: "We however, desire to state to this Honorable court that during our investigation of these cases a number of anonymous letters and communications have been sent to us and pinned upon the door of the grand jury room, some of which, in very strong terms, censure our actions and some threatened us did we not adopt a certain course. We desire to denounce the writer or writers, of these communications as a contemptible cur and coward, and said communications as absolutely false and scandalous, and place our condemnation upon any infamous piece of humanity who would resort to such measures to attain any end desired, and believe any person who would commit such an act would commit any crime known to the law."

Speaking of the late order requiring the state militia to go in to camp at The Dalles, the La Grande Gazette truthfully says: "There is ample grounds for belief in the truth of the statement that the expenses of maintaining regimental encampments of the state militia companies is a foolish expenditure of the people's money. With the exception of the First regiment which is made up almost wholly of Portland companies, that can be brought together on a very short notice, there is no opportunity to acquire proficiency in regimental drill, and it's a conundrum what the drill amounts to after it is acquired. In the Third regiment the companies are brought together from long distances, and at great expense to the state and inconvenience to the enlisted men, to meet for six days, and after the whole affair is over with, it amounts to nothing more than a junketing expedition, and in the present case a little Fourth of July boom for The Dalles. The encampment coming up in the manner it has, will not elevate the standing of military regulations as now in force in this state.

FOREIGNERS OF NOTE.

QUEEN VICTORIA is said to write Bismarck frequently.

It is said that Mr. Gladstone reads every novel published in Great Britain.

COUNT HERBERT BISMARCK, according to the Galignani Messenger, recently lost $70,000 in the Nice clubs.

PRINCE BISMARCK said lately at Hamburg: "My ideal is to be able to walk about in this large and beautiful town without receiving a single head turned to look at me."

THE Grand Duke Nicholas, the eccentric uncle, is getting better and will soon be removed to his house near St. Petersburg. He is sixty years old and has been in the army since he was sixteen.

According to German papers of recent date the engagement of the hereditary grand duke of Luxembourg and a daughter of the prince of Wales will be announced soon, despite all reports to the contrary.

HON. CHARLES PELHAM VILLIERS is ninety years old and for fifty-five years has represented the borough of Wolverhampton in the British parliament, and he has no salary for the job and will have no pension when he retires.

ISABELLA II., ex-queen of Spain, is a fat and waddling old lady of circus-like girth, who seems to have forgotten all the vanities of the world and to be devoted to works of charity, the appreciation of Parisian dinners and the needs of a good partner at the whist table.

THE duke of Westminster, England's wealthiest nobleman, is engaged in a squabble with a surgeon over the cost of embalming the body of the duke's son. The surgeon wants two hundred and twenty-two pounds and six shillings and the duke is only willing to pay forty-two pounds.

THE total number of stars, of which some hundreds may be obtained by the optical appliances now available, according to Prof. Pickering, is from 40,000,000 to 50,000,000. Of these only about 6,000 are visible to the naked eye, equally divided between the two hemispheres.

Used the Crown Six Years.

EAGLE RIVER, March 1, 1890.
MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

I have been using the Crown machine with the greatest satisfaction for six years. It is a very light running and durable machine. As long as I have used the machine it never has raised a sweat on my team. It is also very light on the horses necks. Yours Truly,

Simply the Boss

DREWSEY, Or., March 17, 1890.

The machine I bought runs like a top and I think it lays all others in the shade in all kinds of grass and all kinds of ground. It is simply the boss for light draft and speed. M. F. HOGARTH.

I will state without hesitation that the Crown mower that I purchased of you last year has given good satisfaction, and is my preference of any mower I have ever used.

The Acme of Perfection.

JOHN DAY, March 14, 1890.
MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

I think the acme of perfection has been reached in the invention of the Crown mower. We have been disgusted every year in trying to mow our meadow, on which grows a peculiar kind of grass. All other machines we tried would leave half the hay standing, but the Crown cut it as smooth as a new shaven face. We tried it with like results in all kinds of grain, hay and rye grass. All our neighbors who see it work think it is the base of all mowers. Yours Respectfully,
T. H. CARR.

The Very Best Mower.

CAMP LOGAN, March 2, 1890.
MESSRS. BASCHE & CO.

In regard to the Crown mower, I like it very well. It works well in all kinds of grass, and where the grass is lodged or very rank by putting on the increased speed it works to a charm. It is the best mower we have in this country and I can recommend it to any person wishing to purchase mowers. Yours Respectfully. J. J. COZART.

Has been enlarged to accommodate the increasing business. The wools of this section which accumulate at Heppner, attract all the leading Western buyers to that point, and make it the best market in which the grower can dispose of his clip.

Last season over 1,000,000 pounds of wool was sold in Heppner at prices which averaged the grower more clear money than was realized by sales of similar wools in other western markets more distant from the manufacturing centers of the East.

Teamsters charges advanced on written orders. Cash advanced on wool in storage.
