THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

August 6, 1891.

Cattle shipments from Reno still continue, and it begins to look as if the Sound country and Portland butchers are going to rely on Nevada beef for their patrons during the whole season.

In view of the failure of the European crops, and the prospective high prices for American cereals, it would seem that our greatest present need is more harvesting and less politics.

The receipts of gold at the government assay office at Boise City for a single day recently amounted to $10,000, of which $7,500 was the output of Boise county and $2,500 that of Eastern Oregon.

A body of anarchists are said to exist in the neighborhood of Glenwood, Wash. Lately a settler refused to join their secret order and a few days ago he discovered that his newly stacked hay had been profusely sprinkled with Paris green.

An intimate friend of Baron Fava says that the New Orleans affair is to be settled by congress passing a bill providing for the payment of $1,000 to each of the families of the Italians who were citizens of this country when they were lynched.

Under a new law in Georgia, when a doctor is convicted of drunkenness he can no longer practice medicine in that state. The idea is either to diminish the number of drunkards, or the number of doctors, or the death rate, or something of that sort.

When we read that there is a surplus of 400,000,000 gallons of whisky in Kentucky we begin to understand why the prohibitionists there have picked up their ears and plucked up their courage. Kentucky is lax in its habits when a surplus like that is allowed to accumulate.

Reports from the wheat districts of the world other than the United States, indicate a general deficiency. This means a demand for American wheat and good prices. Already there are signs of increased prices. Oregon is to be congratulated on its immense yield and prospective good prices, resulting in prosperous times for the agriculturist.

Chief Peo of the Umatillas usually endeavors to renounce the follies of his youth, and means to be a good Indian; but occasionally he falls from grace. He did the other day, imbibed too much firewater, and was trounced by three other Indians with whom he became involved in a quarrel. He was brought before Judge Pad-e-Wah, who fined him $10, presumably for being whipped. E. O.

At this season of the year all government property, no matter how insignificant in value, that happens to be located in the mountains or upon the seashore is discovered by the powers that be, to be in immediate need of official inspection, and it usually takes one or more cabinet officers and a party of friends to do the inspecting, and Uncle Sam, he pays the bills.

The Oregon immigration board at Portland requests all having fine specimens of the minerals of this section in their possession to forward the same at as early a date as they can do so to the board, for use in getting together a suitable exhibit of that character for the coming world's fair; and it goes without saying that this portion of Oregon will furnish some of the very choicest specimens to be seen at the exposition.

According to statements emanating from the office of the adjutant general of the army good results are being arrived at in consequence of the effort made of late to secure recruits from the country districts instead of from the towns. The frequency of desertions in the army led in large part to the adoption of the new policy, and so far it has worked extremely well. The officers are better satisfied with the results of the change and think that they are now getting better material than ever before. They are now looking forward to the time when they no longer need be compelled to look to the great cities of the east for recruits and when they can fill their ranks from the youth of the agricultural districts.

DR. DARRIN'S CURES.

Another Long List of Cases Added to the Thousands Accomplished by Electricity.

So much has been said in praise of Dr. Darrin and his new cure by electricity, and so many cards and letters from grateful patients that it seems useless to publish them, we will, however, give their names and addresses, that people may refer to them:

Volna Webster, Weston, Or., catarrh. B. H. Rice, 32 B st., Portland, heart trouble. A. Jackson, Seattle, Wash., pain in his back four years. R. Griffith's son, Boisford, Wash., rheumatism and skin disease. Rev. M. M. Bashor, Brooks, Or., nasal and throat catarrh. John Wolfin, Stuck Junction, Wash., deafness and discharging ears. Samuel Jackson, Highland, Or., deafness twenty years. George M. Frank, Middleton, Or., discharging ear twenty-five years. W. L. Cone, Bay City, Tillamook county, Or., kidney and liver trouble. Peter Murphy, New York hotel, Portland, Or., deafness and ringing noises in the ear. B. F. Stout, Independence, Wash., deafness, catarrh and lung trouble.

Dr. Darrin continues to treat all classes the rich and poor alike, free of charge, at his office, 70½ Washington st., Portland, from 10 to 11 a. m. daily. Those willing to pay from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m., at half his former prices. He gives free and confidential examinations to all at the office or by letter. He treats all curable chronic, acute and private diseases. All tumors, goitres, warts, moles and superfluous hairs removed by electricity.

THE HEPPNER WAREHOUSE

Has been enlarged to accommodate the increasing business. The wools of this section which accumulate at Heppner, attract all the leading Western buyers to that point, and make it the best market in which the grower can dispose of his clip.

Last season over 1,000,000 pounds of wool was sold in Heppner at prices which averaged the grower more clear money than was realized by sales of similar wools in other western markets more distant from the manufacturing centers of the East.

Teamsters charges advanced on written orders. Cash advanced on wool in storage.
