

THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

November 19, 1891.

The receipt at The Dalles of sixty sacks of wool from the Silver Lake region, 230 miles away, has aroused the newspapers of Western Oregon to the possibilities awaiting them as markets upon the completion of the Oregon Pacific railway.

Portland has a free bridge. The Madison street bridge was turned over to the city on last Wednesday evening. The price paid was $143,500. The bridge and railroad track cost $145,400. The collection of toll ceased a few hours after the completion of the purchase.

A German girl in Salem has a letter from a brother who wanted to leave Germany for America and was coming to Salem. He says the government will not permit him to leave, as all Germany is being got in readiness for a war with Russia and France. No young man of age to do military duty is allowed to leave the country.—Journal.

"The fools are not all dead," but the chances are that a balloon made a hole in the number still existing at Birmingham, Ala. A young couple got married at the state fair one morning, and in the afternoon took a wedding tour in a balloon. The balloon shot up in the air like a rocket. When last seen it was high up in the air and about thirteen miles north of the place of starting up. Fears were entertained for their safety.

Hiram Maxim, the scientist and electrician, says it is a mistake to suppose that the discharge of a rifle loaded with smokeless powder is noiseless. There is, says he, no such thing as noiseless gunpowder. The report from a discharge of smokeless powder is much sharper and higher pitched than from black or ordinary gunpowder; it cannot, however, be heard anything like so far away. The recoil of the piece is much less, also, with smokeless powder.

Secretary Tracy has said in an interview that there was no warrant for sensational dispatches regarding the probability of war with Chili at this time. The United States government, he said, has requested an investigation of the assault upon the American sailors in Chili; such an investigation is being made, and nothing further can be done until the result is made known. In Chili interest has centered for the last few days upon the question of filling the office of president of the republic.

Having waited more than the allotted time for President Harrison to issue his Thanksgiving proclamation, Governor Penney issued the following: "Inasmuch as the gratitude for favors received should find due expression, I do hereby appoint Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a day of public thanksgiving to Almighty God, to be observed by the whole people of Oregon in the usual appropriate manner, in return for the blessings of peace and plenty which have been bestowed upon them during the past year."

Senator Mitchell is again pushing the matter of electing United States senators by a direct vote of the people. He says: "I am as earnest in the fight as ever, and on the first day of the session, or as soon thereafter as possible, I shall reintroduce my amendment and have it referred to the committee on privileges and election." The senator made an exhaustive speech during last congress upon popular election of senators, but he is quite willing to prepare another if it will help along the cause to which he is so devoted.

An anarchist meeting in Chicago was effectually quelled by the police last Thursday evening, and 254 are under arrest. Fortunately no one was killed, or seriously injured. There can be no question that the United States is a free country, but freedom does not signify a right in every one to act or even talk as he thinks in harmony with his conscience. In monarchial countries restriction is placed upon individual speech, and to insure protection to life and property and the supremacy of law the same restraint must be placed on citizens in a republic. Taking the world with its different forms of government, and any man who is law-abiding, and has a proper respect for the rights of his neighbor, can enjoy all the freedom he desires in almost any country.—Mountaineer.
