

THE GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

Thursday, Nov. 26.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Many a goldier has gobbled his last gold. See the flag and low priced clocks at the Watchmaker's. Showers and sunshine. Result, bunchgrass beginning to grow. Fine lines of clocks never before seen in Grant county now at the Watchmaker's. Politicians can begin rolling their logs together now, and mending their political fences for the spring campaign. Do you dissent? If so, remember the grand ball in this village, to night. Good music, and supper at Chambers. At this season of the year the liberty of the press must be preserved, even though the newspaper press sinks into insignificance. Coal is found at the bottom of wells around the town of Paul. Coal is also found in several places in Grant county, and it will help to boom our country in due time. That class who fail not, neither do they spin, were in this city lately, causing the circulating medium to change hands manfully. People who hit at their games did not usually win. Hon. O. B. Blinhardt presented the "Secret" with a box of fine apples. The News shop was made headquarters for the apples, and the members of the club are invited to call and obtain the surplus. Canyon City's church choir deserves credit—both here and up above—for their successful efforts in behalf of the financial condition of the church. The concert Sabbath evening was an enjoyable one. Hon. W. R. Ellis, Mayor Matlock and Mr. Simons, the gentleman from Hannon who had been attending our court on behalf of the unfortunate young man Malcolin Church, started for their home last Monday. A subscription paper praying his excellency this. Penneyer to commute the sentence of Ming Ho to life imprisonment, is being circulated. Ming thinks as how he would rather work for the state farmer than to be hanged. Ming Ho certainly is an object of pity, inasmuch as his countrymen all deserted him in a strange land, and have left him to his fate. Should not Penneyer commute his sentence. Ming might put in several years performing labor for the state. Ours is an exceptionally orderly town, for during all this term of court when the city was full of people the marshal has had no occasion to arrest anyone. Two great familiarities with shoulder strikers, black eyes, and later on costs and disbursements. Attorney Johns and Stenographer Wheeler left the road to McEwan at a early hour Sunday morning, going by private conveyance. Mr. Wheeler's services were needed at Union, while Mr. Johns had important business interests calling him home to Baker. Gus Caspary informs us that he has been prospecting for coal north of the river, and finds good evidences of a fine deposit of coal. It is in that vicinity that Mr. W. H. Clark of this city has obtained the find, a good quality of coal, that he has used for the past three winters. Richard Kelly said to the NEWS man last Sabbath: "The jury will render a verdict within an hour." Mr. Kelly's prophecy came true. He said that the jury had asked the judge for instructions touching a point of law, and he could tell by their actions that an agreement was near. Deputy Prosecuting Johns, by his aggressive manner, became a favorite in this precinct, and no doubt could be elected mayor of this city today were he a resident. Mr. Johns made an able and eloquent plea for the prosecution in the case of State vs. Church, in which he dissected the evidence and portrayed its every intricacy in a most vivid light. A Wolfson exchange says: "Few farmers have so far dug their potatoes. From present indications it is little use to dig more than is needed for family use, as they being in the market a mere nothing." These farmers are following a poor precedent. Even if potatoes are not worth much now a thirty yunker farmer would house them and hold them for a raise. The jury in the Church case, after being out from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon, and part standing for all sorts of verdicts, finally agreed upon a compromise verdict—manslaughter—and recommended the full extent of the law, in the sentence. Judge Clifford was contemplating giving the juryman beds and holding them until they could agree, for a new trial would have cost Grant county not less than $7,000. Col. Sam Carpenter was down from Greenham a few days ago and paid his respects to the NEWS, also his subscription to January 1, 1893, he being the first one on our list of several 1,000,000 subscribers to put up the cash and have 1893 credited in front of his name. Mr. Carpenter speaks well of the mines in his section, and says the miners are making an effort to open new veins and keep them open during the winter, for the purpose of hauling ore to the Memorial mill. The Morris mine and Bennett's mine will furnish the largest tonnage of ore.

Jas. Lofton has just recovered from a long siege of illness. Attend divine worship, confess your sins and remember the poor. Get your eyes fitted with the right kind of spectacles at the Watchmaker's Canyon City. Private lessons in shorthand, typewriting, book keeping or penmanship. Inquire of J. H. Collins. The new John Day flouring mill is about ready to start up, with about 5000 bushels of wheat on hand. Constable Tolhunter's bandaged face is not the result of fistic complications, but is attributable to erysipelas. The will of the late William Luce has been admitted to probate, and Miss Anna Luce appointed administratrix. Frank Seis returned from Baker last Tuesday, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Litch, who is paying a visit to her sister. Our report of the circuit court proceedings is taken Tuesday night, and is therefore not as complete as if taken yesterday. Sewall's team will load at McEwan, thus shortening the distance to the railroad. Most of the freighters, however, still go to Baker. It is very rare nowadays that the office seeks the man; and even when such a thing occurs the chase is usually very sluggish. Rev. Zellers will preach a thanksgiving sermon at the M. E. church in this city this morning at 10:30 o'clock, to which all the people are invited. From Mr. John Sigrist, the Dayville stage man, we learn of the sad death of Mr. A. J. Cummings' young son last Monday, of diphtheria. The NEWS is in receipt of the program of the Hook creek public school, Miss Lillian Bohrer teacher, which report was received too late for this issue. Child is afraid of Uncle Sam's warships, and has looked down from her warlike attitude. It is well, for we would hate to be compelled to gobble up the little nation. George Haggy took a trip to Bear valley a few days ago, and reports fine feed for stock on the hills between here and the valley. This will remain until snow covers it up. Mr. John Laycock informs us that owing to ill health his son, W. C. Laycock, will be compelled to return home from Eugene, at which place he is attending the State University. Next year will be full of elections in Oregon. For the first time in its history there will be two congressmen elected, and a live time is expected. Subscribe for the NEWS. There is a reported discovery of gold at Kansas City, on the banks of the Missouri river; but our citizens can well afford to stay at home and not go wild over this treasure so far distant. Mr. Thos. Carl informs us that Uncle Bob Forrest's house on Indian creek was consumed by fire last Saturday morning. Mr. Carl has a band of sheep on the Indian creek range, and they are doing well. Rev. O. B. Whitmore, grand instructor of the A. O. U. W., writes to brethren here that he will be in this city probably the first of next week, and will give a public lecture in the interests of the order. He has just organized a lodge at Burns. That inebriate asylum of Portland performed unnecessary labor and wasted postage stamps when it sent the newspaper men of Oregon a permanent and positive cure for the drinking habit. Most editors never have enough money to drown their troubles or sorrows in gin, or to cultivate an appetite. Those who refuse to pay the printer commit an unpardonable sin, and we realize that it is a good thing that God removed the tree of life from the garden of Eden when Adam and Eve fell from grace. Nothing would make a man so brave in sin, of all kinds, as to think that he could live on earth forever. The beauty of electricity is that there is no danger from an incandescent light, either from explosion or suffocation. It is the future light, and when one gets used to it life would be miserable with kerosene alone. Then let us form a joint stock company and have electric lights. That section of our county down toward Mt. Vernon has a surplus of deep gulches and coyotes. The former could not be filled up very well, but the latter ought to be cleaned out—they have been eating the sheep that inhabit the gulches, thus reversing the order by filling up the coyotes and cleaning out the gulches. Malcolin Church had a previous good character proven for him, and the fact that he received substantial aid from men who had no interest in him except mere acquaintanceship, was a good recommendation. The boy, in a fit of passion, committed a deed that he afterwards bitterly repented of, and his friends rejoice that the law did not deal more harshly with him. During the winter months the professional sawsmiths open up rich mines and do wonders, as far as talk goes. We notice in some of our exchanges, long lists of what is to be done in the spring. But early in the gentle spring time these vainglorious capitalists generally go into insolvency. It is the companies that dig and blast all winter that develop a country, and not those who tunnel around a red hot stove.

PRAIRIE CITY CLIPPINGS. November 25, 1891. Special Correspondence to NEWS: Thirty-five days of 1891 and still time goes on. Several new cases of typhoid have been reported in our midst. Thomas McEwan, one of the stage proprietors, stopped off Saturday night. Mrs. Thompson has been quite sick, but at this writing she is improving. T. N. Gurnee will soon leave us so we are informed to take charge of a school. Quite a number of freighters arrived last week and more are expected this week. A general invitation is extended for the Thanksgiving dance and a large crowd is expected. The Church murder trial took several of our citizens, as jurors, to Canyon City last week. Mrs. Taylor, who has been in or near Long Creek for several months, has returned and will with her children go to housekeeping. Have you a tooth to fill or a tooth to extract? If so call on the Long Creek dentist at Mrs. Rinearson's hotel. The dentist will leave this week. Some say that the basket festival was not a success. The boys seemed to have plenty of fun and $13.50 was cleared. Let's try it again brethren. Our genial townsman and lady, Lew Day, gave an entertainment last Friday evening, clearing $16.50 and gave it to the school funds. A generous act. Porter Bros., so we are informed, will move their families to the mill. Their work keeps them there day and night. We are sorry to have them leave us. E. L. Geddes took a fine line of double seats, that were purchased in the east, to the Winagar district one day this week. He left Mrs. Geddes in charge of the school. Supt. Bonham and wife made our burg a visit last week. Visited the school and reports the school in a fine working condition. Supt. Bonham has been faithful in the execution of his office, and done much towards advancing the schools of his county. Let the good people respect him next spring. Gentlemen now is the time to commence agitating the question and outlining the work for the District fair for next year. You must bear in mind that the soliciting committee will have to travel over the entire county, besides a great deal of other business needs to be attended to. What showing is Prairie City going to make in this? We can assure you she will rally to the front. Now let's push this matter and plans right along. HEN REPORTER. It seems that the reward of $500 formerly offered by Miller & Lux for the conviction of parties caught stealing their cattle is no longer in force. However, J. H. Keables, of this city, who swore out complaints against Austin and Guthridge with the idea of obtaining this reward, secured recognition for his services in the shape of a $100 check—E. O. A good milk cow and calf for sale at Mrs. Phillips. Go to the Red Front. Billiard Hall for a cool, refreshing drink of the finest lager beer in Eastern Oregon. State Senator T. D. Harp, of California, has been indicted by the grand jury for accepting a bribe for his vote on the bill which Glenn county was founded. The immense crops raised in Kansas this year are enabling the farmers to raise a large crop of mortgages which for years past have covered their fields and all that grew therein. The assistant commissioner of immigration at New York states that the number of Mormons coming to the United States is greater than any one suspects. The first week in October, 1892, is the time set for the national encampment of the G. A. R. in Washington D. C. Nearly forty posts have already engaged quarters for the encampment. Intelligence is gaining ground slowly but surely. A Michigan judge has decided that common intelligence and such information as comes from reading newspapers does not unfit a man for jury duty. Mr. John Ray has been brought home from Baker, where he was kicked by a horse and had one of his legs broken. Although the accident happened two weeks ago, and no surgical attendance, Dr. Ashford is doing all he can for the sufferer.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS. LAW DOCKET. The First National Bank of Baker City vs. J. W. Lemons, Jos. C. Oliver, W. D. Ingle and S. A. Heilner—recovery of money. Settled and dismissed at defendants costs. John McCullough vs. John J. Hinton, J. H. Hamilton and J. G. Nealen—recovery of money. Judgment as prayed for. Emmett Barr vs. Geo. Rader—damages. Cause continued for the term. J. Durkheimer & Co. vs. W. P. Gray—recovery of money. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost; judgment for the costs. Geo. Rader vs. Chas. Conger—damages. Dismissed on stipulation judgment against defendant for the costs. Chas. F. Hyde, district attorney, vs. J. T. Hunsacker and Josephus Thompkins—forfeiture of undertaking. Continued for the term. D. I. Ashbury vs. M. S. Hellman—damages. Judgment for $20,000 as prayed for, and for costs and disbursements. John R. Roy vs. F. P. Horsley, administrator—motion for leave to issue execution. Continued for the term. John G. Nealen vs. John J. Murphy and A. A. Walton—recovery of money. Continued for the term. Ed. C. Allen vs. S. S. Denning—appeal from justice court. Jury find verdict for plaintiff for $48.00. Henry Welch vs. L. W. and Chas. Thompson—recovery of money. Continued for the term. Maria F. Mueller, administrator of the estate of H. J. G. Mueller, and A. Gordon vs. Trefry Bros.—recovery of money. Judgment for plaintiff as prayed for. B. C. Trobridge vs. Margaret Powell—recovery of money. Jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $122.13. EQUITY DOCKET. Napoleon Davis vs. Orloff Fleming—foreclosure of mortgage. Default and decree. Milton M. Adamson vs. Mary A. Adamson—suit for divorce. Decree of divorce; plaintiff to have custody of minor children and judgment for costs. A. Finlayson vs. I. Collette and Adeline Collette—foreclosure of mortgage. Default, and decree as prayed for, and $200 attorney fees allowed. S. Ottenheimer vs. Wm. Graham et al.—foreclosure of mortgage. Continued for the term. August Buehner vs. G. H. Kimberland et al.—foreclosure of mortgage. Decree as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, also a decree in accordance with the answer of Hobah Lodge No. 22, I. O. O. F. D. I. Ashbury vs. M. E. Ashbury—action for divorce. Default and decree. Joseph Fizzell vs. O. P. Cresap—suit of replevin. Default and judgment. CRIMINAL DOCKET. State vs. Malcolin Church—murder in the first degree. Jury find verdict of manslaughter. Judgment that defendant be imprisoned in penitentiary 15 years, and judgment for costs. State vs. Prior S. Wilson—contempt. Defendant fined $25 and all sheriff's costs. State of Oregon, on relation of M. D. Clifford, vs. S. S. Denning. Default taken against defendant, and case continued for the present. When the case of State versus Denning was called Mr. Denning offered an apology in open court, and expressed sorrow that he had ever spoken in a defamatory manner of Judge Clifford, and retracted the same. Mr. Denning's apology was made in a way that showed his true repentance. A good milk cow and calf for sale at Mrs. Phillips. Go to the Red Front. Billiard Hall for a cool, refreshing drink of the finest lager beer in Eastern Oregon. State Senator T. D. Harp, of California, has been indicted by the grand jury for accepting a bribe for his vote on the bill which Glenn county was founded. The immense crops raised in Kansas this year are enabling the farmers to raise a large crop of mortgages which for years past have covered their fields and all that grew therein. IZEE IDEAS. IZEE, Or., Nov. 22, 1891. The shadow is growing and the event will be here in the near future. We feel sorry for Campbell, but hurrah for Bones, Flower, Russel and the rest of 'em. Quite a number of South Forkers are attending court and—well—imbibing refreshments this week. We understand our accomplished friend and worthy postmistress is expecting friends from Canyon soon. Mr. John Bunton is in Portland under the care of Drs. Darrin. We hope he will return improved in health. The racehorse men seem to have gone into winter quarters. At least we hear no more wordly discussions on the relative qualities of the various horses. One of the South Fork belles has gone to Wehston on a visit and some of the boys look blue—but she is expected back soon and then they will be all smiles. Mr. Sylvester Whitworth gave a very enjoyable little hop to a number of his friends recently. We understand there was quite a crowd present all of whom seemed to enjoy themselves hugely. Mr. D. R. Atherton has bought the ranch belonging to Mr. D. Rainville and has leased his horses for five years. D. R. is a hustler and we expect to see him make some money out of this venture. Once again we feel like calling the attention of the road supervisor and also the county court to the road from Guernsey's to the summit. It must be fixed or something will break loose some of these fine spring days. The new residence of D. Magill is now completed. The inside work was done by C. H. Uley. It is by far the neatest and handsomest house on the South Fork, and its accomplished mistress is now in a position to extend its hospitalities to her many friends. JOE HOSEBROT. W. H. Brotherton, the fool of a man who attempted to trundle a wheelbarrow from San Francisco to Chicago on a wager, died at La Junta, Colo., of mountain fever. O. E. Lovett, of Red Bluff, Cal., was given as a premium to the San Francisco Examiner last year a paid up policy in a life insurance company. Mr. Lovett has just died and his wife has been paid $10,000 in gold coin. Undoubtedly the Examiner will remain the favorite paper in the family. Charles Houghton, a Baker City Englishman has fallen heir by the death of a cousin to $5000. The Democrat reports him a very happy man over the receipt of the "welcome intelligence." The death of a relative seems to carry with it a fountain of joy for almost any human heart when the deceased is accompanied by such "welcome intelligence" as the above, says the E. O. The Youth's Companion makes an Autumn gift of the beautiful painting, entitled "A Yard of Roses" to each of its five hundred thousand subscribers. Any others who may subscribe now for the first time, and request it, will receive "The Yard of Roses" without extra charge while the edition lasts. Every family should take this brightest and best of illustrated literary papers in addition to its local paper. Society item in Fossil Journal: Tom Barton of Lost Valley is in town. He looks pale, but says he isn't sick, that he has merely sworn off drinking for good, and that the sudden change is telling on him. Tom made his good resolution at Condon last Sunday morning, when he had sobered up after an unusually big bonder, which culminated in his stamping on his $65 watch Saturday night. Judge Bradshaw at The Dalles, sentenced a man who had pleaded guilty to an outrageous assault upon a woman nearly 80 years old, to twenty years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, notwithstanding the fact that the man pleaded guilty and threw himself upon the mercy of the court. Judge Bradshaw is a man who honors the judicial office he holds. He must regret that the law limited him to the punishment he imposed. It is really a waste of good virtues to feed him for twenty years, to say nothing of turning him loose at the end of that time.—Oregonian. A shepherd while in the vicinity of the north fork of the John Day a short time since says the Mountaineer made a discovery of an old tunnel, abandoned long ago by its workers, perhaps through fear of Indians, which has been hunted for years by parties who knew of its existence, until lately without success, as the entrance was overgrown and hidden. The tunnel is about 100 feet in length, and discloses black sand in large quantities containing flour gold. Some of this sand has been taken to Pendleton and will be assayed to determine its richness. It has been rumored that one of the original miners was killed and left in the tunnel but his remains were not discovered. The find is believed to be a valuable one.

PRAIRIE CITY ITEMS. November 23, 1891. J. B. Johnson has sold his cattle. Wm. Waldon has gone into the sheep business. We are having muddy weather up our way at present. Mrs. J. W. Mack has returned from a trip to Granite. Reuben Chittenden is building a new house on his ranch. Ed Driver is talking of spending the winter in The Dalles. Ben Hardman was over from Burnt river a few days ago. There are lots of geese now a-days but most of them are without wings. Henry Laurance will give a dance Friday, November 27th, at his home. Most of the people of our country are gathering their stock for the winter. I understand John Robinson and Kingsberry are buying two-year-old steers. L. L. Day gave a show Friday night for the benefit of the public school. Scott Hyde has returned from his trip to Salmon river to the joy of all his friends. One of the flourishing young men of Prairie City goes out of town to do his best dancing. Arthur King is teaching spelling school every Wednesday night at the Winegar school house. Ten Dogs is talking of selling out and going to California where he can get all the fruit he can eat. The baseball club will give a grand ball at the Grange hall the 26th of November with a general invitation to all. Cow Boy. Commendable. All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate. Bucks, Bucks, Bucks. I have 500 Bucks for sale. Address, TOM MORRIS, Heppner, Oregon. Go to the Red Front Billiard Hall, Canyon City, for fine wines, liquors and cigars. Peaches, tomatoes and cabbage for sale by G. W. Houston at reasonable rates, at the cottage on the hill. Dry lumber $19 per M for the next 30 days. Delivered in Canyon City $15 per M. Shingles, rustic and flooring in endless quantities. O. GUERNSEY. The Albany Herald is of the opinion that the Oregon Pacific will be completed next year, and thinks work on the road will begin early in the spring. Say did you know that Porter Bros' sell flour at 85.75 per 50 lbs in 5 lb lots and special rates to merchants, also on exchange give 33 lbs of flour, 12 lbs bran and shorts per bushel wheat flour and shorts $18.00 per ton. Mr. Granville Clark has fitted up rooms for a hospital in the Horsley building in this city, and is now prepared to receive patients, and furnish them quiet and comfortable apartments. His stock of drugs and medicines is also fresh and complete. When you send away for goods remember the firm of Coffin & McFarland at Heppner. They not only guarantee you first class goods at lowest prices, but they pay mail or express charges on same to any stage office in Grant or Harney counties. See their new "ad" for further particulars. The Oregonian, at great expense, has prepared a sectional map of Oregon, and offers it as a premium for subscriptions to the Weekly Oregonian. The map is corrected up to date, is 40x50 inches in size, scale, six miles to the inch. It is neatly finished and on rollers, ready to hang up on the wall. This is the finest map of Oregon ever issued and should be in every household in the state. Anyone sending $3.00 will receive The Weekly Oregonian for fifteen months (if the subscription is received prior to January 1, 1892) and one of these maps as a premium. The price of the map without the paper is $2.00. Address, OREGONIAN PUBLISHING Co., Portland, Oregon. While the ministers are clamoring for closing the world's fair on Sunday, it seems they can't agree on Sunday observance between themselves. The Cumberland Presbyterian synod has been in session in San Antonio, and at a late hour on the night of final adjournment, a resolution was offered, censuring ministers who had gone home on a Sunday train. A bitter debate resulted, the dispatches tell us, one minister suggesting that those who rode on the street cars ought to be included in the censure. These regulators of other people have queer ideas.

ELECTRIC FORCE. The Great Fundamental Principle of the Universe and its Power to Restore Health to Humanity. Experiments by scientists are constantly and surely proving electricity to be the great motor power of creation. Electricity is the most powerful chemical agent, as well as the basis of chemical action. It is the primal element of light and heat; the promoter of life and the sustainer of health. Disease yields readily to its magnetic touch, and even unrelenting death is averted by its presence. Thousands of afflicted and suffering bear witness to its healing power. The electro-magnetic as practiced by Drs. Darrin, has revolutionized the practice of medicine, as is shown by the following EXTRACTS OF TESTIMONIALS: Ed. Hynes, Albina, catarrhal deafness, restored. P. C. McFarlane, Vancouver, scientific rheumatism, cured. Thomas Huff, Mockburg, dizziness, kidney and liver complaint, restored. J. R. Cunningham, Wapinitia, Wasco county, Or., total deafness two years in one ear, and partially so in the other, cured. Mrs. J. E. Smith, Prineville, Or., nervous debility and general weakness, almost bordering on insanity, restored. Henson McCoy, The Dalles, Or., deafness and terrible pain in the ear and head for six months, until he was nearly crazy, restlessness and insomnia. Restored to health by electricity after all treatments had failed. Dr. Darrin continues to treat all classes, the rich and poor alike, free of charge, at 704 Washington street, Portland, from 10 to 11 a. m. daily. Those willing to pay, from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. at one-half his former prices. He gives free and confidential examinations to all at the office or by letter. He treats all curable chronic, acute and private diseases with electricity, and medicines when required. Graham flour $5.00 per barrel, barley 14 cents, rye 24 cents and potatoes 14 cents per pound at Gundlach's. To the Public. Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted after this date by anyone but myself, except upon written order. Canyon City, Or., Nov. 16, 1891. FRED YORNGSON.
