Fremont & Margolis, who have been all over Grant county, on peddling expeditions, expect to depart for their home in "York State" soon. We are informed that it is their intention to return next summer with a regularly equipped dry goods store.

A woodman, not very well supplied with this world's goods anyhow, was in town a few days ago seeking after one self-styled "Rev. C. E. Lane," who failed to pay for the last lot of wood he got. Many people besides this woodman mourn the departure of Lane.

Along about this time a great many people suddenly resolve to abandon all bad habits, such as intemperance, using tobacco, lying, cheating their neighbors, and swindling the preacher by giving him buttons. Alas for human expectations and resolves, when the tempter comes.

Mountains of snow have been interfering with travel on the stage lines. On our trip the Baker stage, due here at 8 p. m. did not arrive until nearly 3 a. m. and brought no paper mail. At other times it has been nearly as late. But after the snow becomes compact and solid the stage will coast in on time.

We have the information from a direct source that Mr. Brackett Johnson, who is a farmer by profession, has concluded to start a tannery near Prater City. Mr. Johnson must of necessity operate on a limited capital, but he should receive the encouragement and cooperation of every resident of our valley. One by one the needed enterprises will spring up, and in the years to come we will be a prosperous community.

The Baker City Revolve complains because the county officials do not patronize home printing offices for their job printing, and says that Geo. D. Barnard & Co. seems to hold a mortgage on all the county work. This is the case in many counties besides Baker's—in our own beloved county. Do these fellows pay taxes here, or is there any legal reason why they should get all the work, to the exclusion of printers who are identified with the county's interests, and laboring to build up the industries?

Advices received at this intelligence office last Monday indicate much deeper snow twelve miles down the river than here. Our snow was solid, owing to the rain Saturday night.

A heavy fall of snow in the mountains this winter is an assured fact, and is worth several $,000 to the people of this mountain country in the increased supply of water that is to be.

There are many men who are soaring life away in feverish anxiety for fame, and the last we shall ever hear of them will be the tones of the funeral bell, that announces their passing to an early grave.

The state board of equalization discussed the assessment of mortgages, and about reached a final decision which places the assessment of mortgages at their face, uniformly throughout the state. This will effect but a new count. Multnomah, however, assessed them at only 50 per cent. of their face.

Douglas county is establishing a reputation for raising superior table fowls, notably turkeys, that will bring many a dollar into the pockets of her citizens for time immemorial. There is no reason why this valley should not join the procession, and supply the home market at least until such time as the iron horse shall smelt delinquency at the wale teams of our slow going county.

One thing essentially necessary, the consummation of which the News hopes soon to see, is a county road and mail route up Canyon creek and across the divide onto Bear creek, thence through Lapan valley and across the country to Drewsey. This would afford mail accommodations to many ranchers and stockmen who are now deprived of the glorious privileges of obtaining U. S. mail nearer than 20 or 30 miles.

A short time ago, says the Union Republican, a local company was organized in Elgin to cure and pack masts of that section. They are now finishing the curing process of their first killing. In a few days they will have 10,000 or 12,000 lbs. of fresh bacon to put upon the market. The effects of the new company ought to succeed and thus would be kept in a large amount of money heretofore sent out of the country. This could be made applicable to our own county. Let some one with land and swine organize such a company here.

Senator Dolph has introduced a bill in congress to provide for the construction of a public building—an assay office and postoffice—in Baker City. Hon. R. S. Anderson, who is favorably mentioned as a probable candidate for congress from this district, has again brought himself into closer relationship with the people. He has staid out boldly and alone, the originator of the bill, and to his efforts alone is due the success already attained. Mr. Anderson has proven himself a host already.

Monday evening shortly after 8 o'clock Mr. Wm. Mason ran down town and lost no time in informing the people that the blacksmith shop was on fire. Then the hose boys allowed no snow to accumulate under their feet before the big bell was tolled rapidly, and the hose cart was up the hill. Fortunately it was only a fire burning out, and no water was required. This alarm, however, demonstrated the promptness in which our boys could start a fire, and forcibly suggests that the kitchen hydrants be kept closed, so that the tank may always be full, and also, that the fire warden exercise due care that the fire hydrants are not frozen up in case of a genuine conflagration.

BASORE & CO.

A radical clergyman has recently declared that if Chicago opens the gates of the world's fair on Sunday, the city should be pitched into the middle of Lake Michigan. An exchange remarks of this that such a man "should be arrested for anarchy."

Holidays are drawing rapidly to a close, and soon the county office seeker will make his appearance. Let them appear and give voters an opportunity of discussing their weak and strong points. Keep talking; it will do no harm, even if it does no good.

If work on the Oregon Pacific should be resumed next summer, as is confidently expected now, there will be a cash market for all the surplus products of this valley. Railroad building on the south and mining on the north will make farmers happy.

Some rare old curios in the way of saddles and ancient harness will probably be seen at the world's fair. The National Association of Saddlers has decided to raise $25,000 for an exhibit of their trade at the fair. This will be expended largely for ancient saddlery and harness which will be procured through special collectors.

This valley is the recipient of a lengthy communication from Harney county, the only merit of which is its extreme length. The county is respectfully declined, for the reason that this paper does not desire to deal in personalities, and for the further reason that Harney county's county seat contest is none of Grant county's business.

John Schroeder was arrested some days since at Pendleton for the robbery of a saloon. John Schroeder swindled Louis Evertelbusch last summer and skipped from the county for his health and for the county's good. People are interested to know whether or not this is the same John Schroeder, and the general supposition in this precinct is that the Johns are one and the same.

Senator Dolph's bill to aid the several states and territories to reclaim the arid lands within their boundaries provides that the United States shall loan funds not exceeding $2,000,000 in any year or a total of $10,000,000 to any state or territory for the purpose of assisting in the construction of reservoirs, foundations, canals, artesian and other wells, and any and all other works to be used for the development, conservation and furnishing of water supply for irrigation in aid of agriculture, or for any one or more of such purposes.

Mr. Louis Evertelbusch is in the city from his Silvers river ranch. He informs the News that the settlers and everybody else in his section, are interested in having a county road established from Soda Springs down the river to Silvers valley, there to intersect the Harney road. Beyond Soda Springs there is a big mountain for teamsters to pull up, and this same mountain contains the worst part of the road from here to Burns. There are no settlements on the part of the road that would be abandoned, and several on the proposed new route, which would also be much shorter than the mountain road. In view of the vast amount of hauling between this valley and Harney this proposed change should be duly considered by the county court, inasmuch as the settlers promise to donate to its construction.

IZEE IDEAS.

IZEE, Or., Dec. 26, 1891.

Most of our stockmen are scattering out a little hay for their old cows and verily they need it.

We understand that Mr. Bert Lewis, who left here some time ago, will be back in the spring.

Mr. Frank Dinton claims the honor of being the crack footracer and pugilist of the South Fork.

Mr. Glaze, of Dayville, is here riding after cattle with the vaqueros in the interest of Mr. Snyder of that place.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Bear valley, has moved to the ranch of Mr. Soumerville and will act as foreman for that gentleman during the coming year.

Mr. D. R. Atherton is making considerable improvements at his Corral creek ranch. D. R. is a rustler and one of the boys from away back.

Geo. Wright, one of John Hyde's good looking bronco riders, seems to be taking the cake with the girls now. Some of the boys don't like to stand back but they have to.

Will May, the champion beau of Izee, is looking rather down in the mouth of late, supposed cause, the departure of his best girl who will spend the winter in Crook county. Brace up Will!

There is some talk among our horsemen of forming an association and building a good track in time for the races next summer. Messrs. Magill, Brisbane, Snodgrass, Shelby and Lewis seem to be at the head of the affair.

There was a dance at the residence of Mr. A. L. Donovan Christmas eve. Mr. Geo. Brisbane's crack violinist of this neck of the woods furnished the music, and all present reported having had a most glorious time.

Fifteen men stopped a wagon carrying the United States mail in the streets of Chicago recently. They covered the driver with pistols, and ordered him to throw out the registered packages. They got about $6000 in currency, and a lot of bonds. They made good their escape with the plunder.

American millers have been asked to contribute a shipload of flour for the relief of the famine-stricken Russian peasantry. The plan originated in Minneapolis and is a worthy one. Surely out of the great abundance of American prosperity enough can be spared to show our humanity and at the same time promote a cordial feeling toward Americans by the Russian government.

While the American Sabbath Union has been attempting to close barber shops on Sunday, the Wesleyans, in Conference at Grand Rapids, Mich., have solved the whole problem by deciding that the sanctification of Nature's handiwork by trimming the whiskers is against the law of God, and in strictening the restriction committee to "prepare a resolution against shaving."

Some people assert that a railroad would be a detriment to Grant county. In a section devoted chiefly to stock raising the people would get along as well without a railroad, perhaps, but the stockman's best days are over in this county, and the farmer and grazier must require an easy and rapid means of transportation for their products. A line of railroad through our county means the advent of many thousands to prepare our magnificent timber for the markets of the world—a cash market for our fruits and vegetables, and the development of our mines of gold, silver, coal and iron—the roar of quartz mills and reduction works in many gulches where now is heard only the "yap yap" of the fierce coyotes.

Extra sessions of the legislature are getting to be popular in some states. Governor Francis, of Missouri, will call one in January for the purpose of discussing this state Governor Ferry, of Washington, keeps the politicians of that state on the ragged edge, by continually saying if such and such things are so, it will be necessary to have a special session, etc. Governor Penneyer can be safely relied upon not to call one in this state, but the governor has acknowledged to an intimate friend that he made one of the greatest mistakes in his life when the last legislature adjourned without passing an assessment and taxation law, that he did not immediately reconvene it in special session, before the members had time to get away from the capital. What an unparliamentary and wasteful, and stationary would have been their countrymen—Oregonian.

ELK CREEK'S OUTLOOK.

Elk Creek, Grant Co., Or., Dec. 23. EDITOR GRANT COUNTY NEWS:—

Quite activity prevails in our little mining camp at the present time.

There are at present seventeen men working in the quartz mines, although we have a foot of snow. But work still progresses with fine results.

I understand there is a mine here that was worked in former days by Mr. Cable to the depth of fifty-six feet from the surface, and produced between seventy and eighty thousand dollars in bullion.

This section is blessed with plenty of water and fine timber for mining purposes, and with the advent of capital a golden dawn of prosperity will shed its effulgent rays of light upon many a valuable mine encircling the western slope of Greenhorn mountain.

The day is not far distant when the rumbling and the perpetual noise of a large plant will interrupt the peaceful and gentle slumbers of the old timers. When that day dawns they will convince the outside world that their mines are rich in gold and silver by the amount of bullion produced.

Elk creek is situated at the base of the west slope of the famous Greenhorn mountain. After getting thoroughly acquainted with this section of the country I am amazed to see numerous ledges of high grade ore lying idle. It is for the want of capital to develop them and to put up a plant suitable to work their sulphur ores.

A PROSPECTOR.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs, are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleaning the system, effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Masonic Installation.

The following officers elect and appointed of Canyon City Lodge No. 31, A. F. & A. M., were duly installed at public installation, by R. W. Grand Junior Warden Morfitt D. Clifford, Saturday evening, Dec. 20th: J. J. Hagenwald, W. M. J. J. Miller, J. W. John Long, Treas., G. I. Hazlett, Sec., James Robinson, S. D., Robt. A. Hines, J. D., Frances Wallace, S. S., Joe C. Oliver, J. S., Denis McAuliff, Tyler.

The installation of W. H. Johnson, S. W. of lodge, was deferred until some future time on account of illness.

Lost or Strayed.

One black horse, two years old the coming spring, branded G G on thigh, was last seen about the place of J. W. Allen in Bear valley. A suitable reward will be paid for the delivery of said animal to me at Canyon City, or information leading to its recovery. Geo. GENDLACH.

A late writer on social affairs in Ireland says there is not a single prison on the island, that such things as locks, bolts and bars are unknown, and that there are neither watchmen nor policemen there.

When you send away for goods remember the firm of Collin & McFarland at Heppner. They not only guarantee you first class goods at lowest prices, but they pay mail or express charges on same to any stage office in Grant or Harney counties. See their new "ad" for further particulars.

One day last week the marshal of Fossil arrested a man for disorderly conduct and using profane language. In making the arrest the marshal got hot and used some unwise words himself. Each swore out a complaint against the other and both appeared before the recorder, pleaded guilty and were fined $10 and costs apiece.

Some additional facts concerning the future plans of the Oregon Pacific railroad, says the Albany Herald, have been learned from a reliable source, which will be of interest to the public. This is to the effect that the compromise of the New York bondholders upon a plan of action has been fully agreed upon. Col. Hagg is to be retained as president of the road, while Mr. Blair and his friend will remain the managers and have a voice in the policy of the road in the matter of construction outward which they have not heretofore had. The formal sale of the road will be made in January next at the date fixed, after which the new regime will take effect. The war among the bondholders has all been settled and it is stated that they will unite their energies during the next year for the construction of the road toward an eastern connection. Next summer, according to the present outlook, will be one of activity along the line east of Albany, and the resumption of work, when it is commenced, will be on a basis for its permanent prosecution to its final completion, an accomplishment which the people of Albany and the whole state have long hoped to see realized.

A BIG SNOW STORM.

Baker City is enjoying much deeper snow than this section judging from the following, copied from the Democrat of the 27th:

What has turned out to be the greatest snow storm during the month of December for many years commenced on Christmas day about 11 o'clock in the morning and since that time it has continued without interruption, blocking almost all the avenues of travel, not excepting the iron horse on the great transcontinental highway.

All agreed that nothing like it has occurred at Christmas time since the memorable winter of 1879-80. Up to last evening at 6 o'clock the fresh fall of snow measured on a level fully fourteen inches in depth and the storm was on with all the vigor of any time since it commenced.

The train due in Baker City at 12:17 a. m. yesterday was snow-bound near Kamela, on the Blum mountains, as well as the westbound passenger and freight of the evening previous, and did not arrive here until yesterday evening about four o'clock. The 11:15 eastbound train yesterday was not in at a late hour last night. The westbound passenger yesterday morning laid at the depot last evening until the arrival of the big snow plow announcing the way clear.

In the city the scene is a wintery one, indeed, but the majority of our citizens are used to it and look forward to the prosperity it will bring to the mining and stock industries, providing water for the placer miner and irrigation for the range and farm. No serious results will follow should the storm continue for some time longer, since the stockman is provided with an abundance of feed for his herds. As a matter of fact plenty of snow is what the country needs to make it prosperous the coming year and judging from present indications we are fairly in it.

Mr. Granville Clark has fitted up rooms for a hospital in the Hoesley building in this city, and is now prepared to receive patients, and furnish them quiet and comfortable apartments. His stock of drugs and medicines is also fresh and complete.
