members of the Transcontinental Freight Bureau are meeting in Portland, holding two sessions daily at the Portland Hotel.

The objects, in view of the present meeting of the bureau members are varied and important. Immense interests and a vast territory are represented. Among the principal matters that have come up for consideration—and not less than 300 subjects were noted on the docket—were the careful checking up of cast and westbound tariff rates, with the object of securing as perfect uniformity as possible, and listening to such suggestions as shippers might present. The full list of traffic officials in attendance, is as follows:

The parents of Rev. G. A. Taggart, of the Mississippi Avenue Congregational Church, arrived from the East yesterday. Rev. Taggart has not seen his parents for over 14 years.

The work of transforming the old Wolf & Zwicker affice and pattern house into a modern hotel is being rushed rapidly forward.

The large force of men at work on the frown building, corner Grand and Hawthorne avenues, has nearly overcome the havec wrought by the fire.

The following officers were elected by the Sellwood Board of Trade: President, D. M. Donaugh: first vice-president, Edward E. Curtis; second vice-president, Ed. N. Nickum; secretary, E. B. Madden; treasurer, J. W. Campbell; as:stant secretary Chas. K. Burnside. All the old officers, with the exception of the assistant secretary were re-elected.

The movement to close the bridge draws during certain hours is being agitated again. Joseph Buchtel, chairman of the committee on transportation and bridges of the Improvement Association, has se-of the Improvement Association and origges of the Improvement Association, has se-dured statistics on the amount of travel over the bridges, and will forward them to the Secretary of War and recommend that the bridge be closed during costain hours.

The work of enlarging the Sunnyside school by five rooms will soon be begun. This will be a great convenience to an already overcrowded district.

The Sellwood Woolen Mills will soon open for business. The machinery has nearly all been installed.

WANTS DAMAGES.

Mary A. Stackpole, through her attorney, J. C. Moreland, has commenced suit in the United States district court against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for $26,000 damages, for injuries received in an accident October 9, 1901, while enroute from Deer Lodge, Mont., to Portland, Or. The train ran into a loaded car and the plaintiff sustained inuries to her back and spine.

Stricter Law Regarding Immigration.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)

WASHINGTON, March 11 .- The House Committee on Immigration has author ized its chairman to report favorably the new immigration bill. The bill raises the poll tax of immigrants from $1 to $1.50, and provides for keeping allen anarchists out of the United States. It compels steamship companies to return immigrants, even after a period of five years from the time of their landing on American soil, if they should prove undestrable acquisitions to our population.

It is the most stringent immigration measure ever attempted by the Congress of the United States, and in view of the many criminal acts of foreign subjects the last few years will undoubtedly be-
