RUN DOWN Electric Car Injured Israel Shank.

While attempting to cross Sheridan street between First and Second, at 7:30 this morning, Israel Shank, residing at 634 First street, had a narrow escape from a frightful death. He claims he neither saw nor heard Car No. 28, of the Portland Railway Company, in charge of Motorman Madison, which bore down upon him. It appears that Shank attempted to cross the street from the south side, directly in front of the car. Claim is made on the one side that the motorman did not ring his bell, and on the other that he did. When the car collided with shank it rolled him over. As soon as possible the car, which was running clowly, being within 60 feet of the track terminus, was stopped. Shank was taken to his home and Dr. Binswanger called.

He ordered him taken to St. Vincents hos

It was found that Shank was so badl ruised that he could not talk. He suffered from deep lacerations in both legs and sustained three or four irregular gashes about the face and forehead. One little finger was broken and his whole body from head to foot was badly con-

Dr. Binswanger says that he was com pelled to take some 25 stitches in Shank's face. It is the opinion of Dr. Binswanger and also of Dr. Littlefield, the Portland Railway Company's surgeon, that Shank's injuries, while painful, are not dangerous, and that he will be a well man inside of a month.

Corbett for Senator ---Harmony Wanted.

The victory won by the independent Republicans at the primaries Saturday, while not overwhelming, was at least de-In the 70 precincts in the county, in cluding those outside the city, the inde-pendents elected 97 delegates and the regulars 65. This gives the independents a majority of 32 votes in the convention. It is claimed that a number of the dele-gates elected on the independent ticket belong to the regular organization and will vote that way in the convention. The Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh wards are given credit for the result, the delegations elected from these wards being almost solidly independent. The county convention will be called to order Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in A. O. U. W. hall, by Dr. O. S. P. Plummer, chairman of the City and County Committee.

While both factions are talking peace and harmony and are decorated with "olive branches and doved galore," the hardest fight of the campaign is expected to come up in the convention over the permanent organization. If the regular Republicans can muster seventeen delegates elected on the inde-pendent ticket who are friendly to the administration of the present committee, the regular Republicans will be perpetuated in power. Otherwise, the Multnomah County Republicans will be reorganized and the new organization will be the Republican party. Members of the com-mittee state that their chief aim is harmony and they ask for the next commit-tee and for the ticket to be named Wednesday the cordial support of both factions of the party. In other words, the present committee hopes that in the future there will be no Republican factions in Multnomah county.

So far, there has been absolutely understanding as to the candidates for chairman of the county convention; neither has either faction prepared a slate of county officers. The convention will nominate one State Senator and twelve Representatives; a full city and county ticket, and will elect a county and city central committee, besides a joint Senator and a joint Representative with Clackamas county.

COUNTY CANDIDATES. The offices of county clerk, clerk of the circuit court and recorder of deeds and conveyances will be consolidated under the new law. For this office, County Clerk L. Q. Swetland has been mentioned, as also has been N. H. Alexander, Frank Fields and A. N. Gambell Among the men mentioned as candidates for sheriff are County Commissiones J. G. Mack ex-Mayor W. A. Storey, Thomas Me-Namee, Peter Hobkirk, Philo Holbrook and Dan J. Moore. For county treasurer, W. Scott Brooke, John M. Lewis and George Streeter have been talked of. Among the aspirants for county assessor are Capt. Charles McDonnell, L. H. Maxwell, George Harold, G. E. Watkins and James Huddleson.

A number of lawyers are willing to be county judge. Among these are Major J. P. Kennedy, Otto J. Kraemer, W. M. Gregory, H. W. Northup, Peter H. Ward, J. H Middleton and Municipal Judge

George J. Cameron. W. H. Pope, the present auditor, will stand for renomination, and L. D. Cole has also been mentioned for the place.

CITY OFFICES. Mayor Rowe will probably be a candidate for renomination. W. Tyler Wood-ward and A. L. Mills are also spoken of in connection with this office. Apparently there will be no opposition to the renomination of City Auditor Thomas C. Deviln. J. E. Werlein and Brank Hacheny are candidates for city treasurer, and for city attorney besides the present incumbent, J. M. Long, Ralph R. Duniway, R. Citron and Robt. Wright are aspirants.

CORRETT FOR SENATOR. It is openly talked on the street today that in case the independent Republicans control the next legislature H. W Scott may be dropped as a senatorial can-didate and that Ex-Senator H. W. Corbett may be brought forward at the right

CAREY FOR CHARMAN. It developed during the day that the independent Republicans have a plan on foot to organize the county convention by the election of C. H. Carey as permanent chairman. Should the regular Republicans succeed in gaining control of the body, and should he be present on a proxy, O. F. Paxton will probably be the chairman.

The friends of Mayor Bowe, without regard to faction or party, strongly favor his re-election. Should he be defeated in the county convention, there is a move-ment on foot to run him independently. J. P. Finley, the well-known funeral director, has announced himself as a candidate for coroner.

WARD ORGANIZATIONS. WARD ORGANIZATIONS.

The delegates in the Tenth Ward will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at their polling place and organize by electing a Ward Chairman to promote harmony in the convention. It is expected that a number of the other ward delegations number of the other ward delegations will hold meestings this evening. Most of the wards will organize tomorrow.

A sensational matter came to light this morning when it became atrest talk that John Vince, who was the well-known proprieter of Vince's Market, cor or Fourth and Alder, was missing. He has not been seen in Portland for nearly two weeks, and his present whereabouts is unknown. Coupled with Mr. Vince's sudden disappearance is the fact that there is a reported indebtedness due from him to some of the commission men of the city, and possibly others. This amounts to several thousand dollars. It was reported in some quarters that the figures would reach $7,000, but this is thought to be excessive. It was stated at the Vince Market that Mr. Vince's affairs are in charge of his
