REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION

Harmony Prevails---Courtney Is Made Chairman.

The Republican County Convention today was a tame affair. It was entirely harmonious. It was decidedly too peaceful to be interesting. Lively caucusing was in progress all the forenoon but if there were any large cheese knives in the gathering they were concealed in their owners' boots.

It was apparent early in the day that no nominations for county or city offices would be made so soon, and that at the afternoon session the convention would elect a new City and County Committee, send delegates to the state convention, and then adjourn to some future date.

Wallace McCamant was spokesman for the Regular Republicans and Whitney L. Boise voiced the sentiments of the Independents, but there was little for them to do. There were no contests and some of the motions were put and carried by acclamation.

The division of the delegates on the vote for temporary chairman was somewhat of a surprise to all, many of the delegates who were elected on the Regular ticket voting for Mr. Courtney. If the regulars make any stubborn fight, it will come later on the nominations for office.

Delegates and political workers assembled at A. O. U. W. hall this morning an hour before the Republican convention was called to order. Delegates were buttonholing each other and a hundred heart-to-heart talks were in progress.

It was evident at 9 o'clock that the Independents were determined to control the convention and, if possible, give nothing to the Regulars. Dodgers, printed in red ink, were industriously circulated beseeching the Independents to concede nothing to the minority delegates.

These circulars contained a vigorous appeal to the Independents to oppose the Regulars on everything and to give them no quarter. They ridiculed the idea of harmony and asked that the Republicans now in should be thrown out of office, and concluded: "Don't be caught like suckers." Needless to say, little attention was paid to them.

CALL TO ORDER.

It was after 10 when the county chairman, O. F. S. Plummer, called the convention to order. In his brief opening remarks, he counseled harmony and said he hoped all would be charitable and work together for the good of the party. The chairman asked for the credentials of the delegates from the country precincts, and also those of the city delegates, from the County Clerk. Nominations for temporary chairman were then called for.

Whitney L. Boise named A. A. Courtney, Wallace McCamant nominated H. H. Mashup, Mr. Boise suggested that the roll be called to determine the vote.

J. P. Kavanaugh and Clarence Gilbert were named as tellers from their respective factions.

Messrs. Gilbert and Kavanaugh then came to the platform. Secretary W. S. Dunway was asked to call the roll. Mr. Boise moved that those who held proxies would be allowed to vote, if there was no objection, the secretary to see if the proxy was on the table.

The County Clerk stated in the credentials that a tie existed in precinct No. 27. This was passed for the present. Secretary Dunway then called the country precincts by number.

It was apparent long before the conclusion of the roll call that Mr. Courtney was overwhelmingly elected. The vote stood: Courtney, 100; Northrup, 87. Mr. Courtney then came to the stage.

MORE DEFEATS.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)

HONG KONG, March 19.—Two more defeats of the imperial troops by the rebels are reported. The battles took place at Po Hak and Sekhing. The viceroy of Chili has been asked by the viceroy of Canton to send reinforcements as it is impossible to subdue the rebels with his present forces.

KIDNAPED OWN CHILD.

John Murphy, under bonds for abusing his 4-year-old child, created considerable excitement this morning on the corner of First and Pine streets, by forcibly taking the youngster from its foster mother and making his way with it down the street against the loud protestations of the lady, who refused to divulge her name. Mr. Murphy resides at Fulton Park and the foster mother says she will take steps to recover possession of the child.

CAPE TOWN, March 19.—Cecil Rhodes is believed to be dying. He is much weaker today. The end is expected at any moment. The moment he has passed away other interests will take up the thread of his business affairs, so that no panic will follow his demise.

General Smith, commander of the United States forces on the island of Samar, has agreed to an armistice to facilitate surrender. Guevarra has approximately 400 prisoners. He considers this will end the active rebellion on the island of Samar.

SOCIALISTS

Hold State Convention Here Today.

The mass convention of the Socialist party of the State of Oregon went into session at 11 A. M. today at Forester's hall, southwest corner of Sixth and Washington streets. As chairman of the temporary organization, C. E. Barnish of Albany was selected, and W. S. Richards, also of Albany, was chosen secretary.

A piece of legal cap paper was circulated for signatures of all those who pledged themselves to the principles for which the party stands. The following placed their names upon the scroll: N. T. Solon, Portland; Thomas Bush, Astoria; J. Frank Porter, Portland; C. W. Brazee, The Dalles; William Beard, Maple Lane; James S. Gray, Tualatin; George R. Cook, Portland; John Applegate, The Dalles; Joseph Meindl, Oregon City; W. M. Simpson, Portland; C. F. Keller, Tillamook; E. V. Smith, Munken; John Hinek, Portland.

The committee on platform and resolutions appointed consisted of E. F. Bamph, Roseburg; B. T. Northcott, Salem; C. W. Brazee, The Dalles; N. W. Meyers, Clackamas; H. M. Mansville, Eugene.

The committee chosen for permanent organization comprised D. G. Gerde, Astoria; J. B. Paddock, Grant's Pass; J. D. Stevens, Portland; A. D. Hall, Albany.

Mr. McKendrie's remarks on the subject of permanent organization were applauded. He said: "I object to this cut and dried method of doing business. It favors too much of the state. We are supposed to represent, and should voice, the sentiments of the people in these selections."

C. F. Keller, R. E. Ryan and J. Frank Porter were named a committee on revision of the constitution.

F. J. Beatty of Clackamas was unanimously chosen as assistant secretary.

At 13 minutes to 12 an adjournment was taken to 2 P. M.

As the Journal goes to press the delegates are in session. It is impossible to make any definite forecast as to nominations, for the delegates themselves into morning had no very settled opinions on the matter.

GRANGERS MEET.

Patrons Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, had an interesting meeting today at Independence hall, on the section line road, southeast of Mt. Tabor, about 150 members being present.

Mrs. M. E. Shafford, of the Lewis and Clark Civic Improvement League, and a number of others, made addresses.

The purpose of the meeting was to appoint a committee to wait on the Mayor and Common Council regarding the establishment of a market place in the old market block, which was given to the city a number of years ago for market purposes.

A BIG SCHEME.

The Banks to Compete With The Government.

(Journal Special Service.)

NEW YORK, March 19.—The bankers of New York will include all the principal banks in the country in a stupendous scheme put on foot last Saturday, by which the Bankers' Money Order Association purposes to compete with the government and express companies in the issuance of money orders for any amount payable anywhere at any time. The organization may be considered to have been completed today, when the banking interests of twenty-six states, covering territory from the Atlantic to the Pacific, were represented.

"The money order business of the country amounts to many millions of dollars annually," a director said this morning, "and it properly belongs to the banking interests. We shall be in position to meet any cut rates imposed on us by the express companies, and expect no greater opposition from the government that we have at present. We shall have competitors in all foreign countries, so that our business will reach all civilized sections of the world."

The directors of the association include Valentine P. Snyder and W. L. Moyer, of the Western National Bank; Cassius M. Wicker, of the Washington Savings Bank; Hamilton Colby, of the American Deposit and Loan Company; James R. Brantley, secretary of the American Bankers' Association; Frank P. Hays, of the Mississippi Valley Trust Company; St. Louis; E. H. V. Lewis, of the Union National Bank, Kansas City, and officers of banking institutions in a dozen other cities.
