Dissatisfaction Over Grant's Decision.

Donovan-Thurston Fight Ends in Row.

Jack Grant is unquestionably a honest man, strong in his convictions and a true sport. He has a splendid reputation on the Coast as a referee of prize fights and he has officiated in many a mill. But the best of them will make a mistake sooner or later, and it is the opinion of the majority of those who attended last night's "go" between Thurston and Donovan, before the Justice Club, that Jack's judgment for once was at fault. They argue that there should have been a decision one way or another. Thurston should have either had the decision or been disqualified.

FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

The ringside partisans of the fighters became greatly excited when the decision was announced and a disgraceful scene followed. Martin Demmy, chief referee for Thurston, and Billy Layngin, manager and second for Donovan, made a simultaneous rush for the referee to protest. Demmy seemed to have lost his head and presumably made a swing for Donovan and was knocked down. Then pandemonium broke loose.

DEFF'S YELLOW STREAK.

A general fight of the second was starting when three detectives and half a dozen officers broke into the ring and quelled the disturbance. It was not until then that it could properly be said that the fight had come to an end and the public filed out wondering how it all happened. No one claimed that they received less than their money's worth as a result of the night's entertainment. The main event of the evening was a good one from start to finish and the aftermath well it was exciting.

DUFF'S YELLOW STREAK.

It was 9:35 o'clock when Reilly and Duff shook hands and went at it for the preliminary. Reilly assumed Jeffries' crouching attitude and went right at his man, using his powerful left almost exclusively, drawing blood in less than a minute's time. There was nothing much doing in the round, however. The second and last was of short duration. Reilly put a right and left to the jaw and in a few seconds crossed Duff with the right to the jaw. The latter was groggy and in a mix-up which followed claimed a foul and went to his corner. He simply quit, as he would have never lasted the round out. Referee Day awarded the fight to Reilly who, by the way, has a bright future before him.

FIGHT WAS FIERCE.

When Donovan and Thurston stepped into the ring they presented quite a contrast, the former long and rangy, while the Dutchman was somewhat shorter. Both appeared to be in good trim to go the limit. A hot pace was cut out from the start and at the rate they were still going in the tenth round made it look as though it could not last. Up to this time Thurston was the aggressor and seemed to have the fight well in hand. He was also fighting cleaner than his opponent, who had to be cautioned by Grant several times.

BASIN DELEGATES.

The Astoria Chamber of Commerce has appointed Messrs. James W. Welch, F. R. Stokes, J. E. Craike, H. C. Thompson and P. A. Trullinger delegates to the Basin convention, to be held in Portland April 16, and asks Secretary Moore, of the Portland Board of Trade, if any arrangements will be made for reduction in fare on that occasion.

BAR IMPROVEMENT.

Captain A. E. Cann of Astoria, representing the Bar Pilots' Association, held a conference yesterday with E. M. Mears, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce. Plans for deepening the channel over the bar were discussed at some length. It was agreed by both that immediate action in the matter is necessary, and the subject will come before the next meeting of the trustees of the chamber. Later a conference will be arranged between representatives of the pilots and of the Chamber of Commerce, when definite plans will be considered.

LOOK FOR THE CHECKS.

The Journal of March 25 was worth more than 20 cents in trading checks. This issue pays more than it costs to pay for the paper for an entire month. Do you realize that fact? Do you read

ABOUT RAILWAYS.

Harriman May Visit Portland—Offices Unfilled.

Telegraphic advices show that President Harriman of the Southern Pacific passed through Phoenix, Ariz., Tuesday, on his way to the Pacific Coast. He did not deny the purchase of the Rock Island road. Neither did he admit it. Whether the Harriman party will come to Portland after leaving San Francisco, is not known, but it is more than probable, since the present trip is one of inspection, and will likely include all the Harriman lines.

Traffic Director Stubbs is in the Harriman party. Local railroaders are wondering why a successor to Ben Campbell, who was transferred to Chicago from the traffic management of the O. R. & N., has not yet been named. No doubt some local aspirant could worthily fill the place Mr. Campbell so creditably occupied. In some quarters this is not thought likely to come about. It is figured out that the reason no successor has been named is due to the fact that the arrival of Mr. Stubbs is being awaited and that this is why no local man has been appointed. It is probable that Mr. Harriman and Mr. Stubbs will be in Portland within a week, and that the aftermath of their visit will be the appointment of a traffic manager for the O. R. & N.

F. M. Schumacher is still being talked of for the place. At present he is acting traffic manager of the Oregon Short Line at Salt Lake. It is argued that his office there will be consolidated with the Union Pacific traffic management at Omaha, in the interests of economical operation. His friends profess to see with the O. R. & N. a place Mr. Schumacher is perfectly qualified to fill. There is some belief that the original plan of consolidation of the Oregon & California—the Southern Pacific's Oregon line—with the O. R. & N. will be deferred for a while. Mr. Harriman, it is reasoned, will await the action of the United States court in the case of the Northern Securities Company—the Morgan-Hill merger of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific—instigated by Governor Van Sant of Minnesota. He is not at all desirous to incur hostile adjudication or to do anything that may affect the safety of the magnificent combination his brain has evolved. It is indeed a battle worthy of the gods.

STRICKEN SWEARING.

Baltimore—John Kelly, according to a statement made by his wife this morning and supplemented by a statement written by himself, and presented to Justice White of the Northern district, was stricken dumb last night while cursing and blaspheming.

Kelly was arrested on the complaint of his wife. Mrs. Kelly informed the policeman that her husband, who was intoxicated, had chased her from the house, and had threatened her life with a razor. She said the blow had been awarded off by her eldest son, a cripple, who struck the arm of his father with his crutch.

While Mrs. Kelly told her story to the policeman he listened, expecting to hear some noise from Kelly, who was inside the house.

HUNDRED VOTES

Sent in at Once for the Peninsula Site.

One hundred votes at one clatter from one individual is not a bad record for the Peninsula. That slightly odd number seems to be in the minds of many others, also, for this "bunch" is not the only ballot cast for that locality.

NEW TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Another new venture has been launched in Portland. The organization of the Midland Telephone & Telegraph Company was effected with H. V. Gates as president, C. A. Cogswell as vice president and E. R. Reames as secretary and treasurer. The new line will immediately be constructed and will run from Ashland to Lakeview, connecting Pogege, Keno, Klamath Falls, Bonanza and Bly and will probably be in operation by October 1. Berliner transmitters will be used. Wire for the new line is already stored at Ashland and pole contracts will be let at once.

PUBLIC MARKET WANTED.

The committee appointed by Pomona Grange to look after the location of a public market have investigated the transfer of the old Market block to the city and found that it was deeded to the city by W. W. Chapman in 1888, the consideration being $1,200. There was nothing in the deed to show that the city intended to use the block as a market place.
