

BAD LUCK

Followed the Steamer Andrapura.

The Oriental liner Andrapura, which left Portland December 1 for China, returned last evening to this port after experiencing many delays from gales and accidents. She arrived at Yokohama on March 8, and during the balance of the voyage was in a heavy gale until within a few days of her arrival here. As she crossed the meridian an unusually strong wind played havoc with some of the lifeboats, and two of them were lost. Two days out from Hongkong she lost her propeller, which necessitated her return to that port and going into drydock. This detained her about four weeks. On entering the harbor at that place she drifted across the bow of the Norwegian steamer Heim, but no serious damages were sustained by either ship. The Andrapura is in command of Captain Hazle, with Scott as second officer. She brings a 1,000-ton cargo of general merchandise, consisting of matting and other Oriental goods, which is being discharged at the Columbia dock.

NO REPLY YET.

As yet the Port of Portland Commission has received no reply from Faber, Du Zaur & Donnelly, the New York firm to whom the contract for the new dry dock was forwarded for signatures a few days ago. Unless a reply is received by the time of the weekly meeting of the Port this afternoon, the meeting will be adjourned until another week. It is the opinion of President Bantfield that a favorable reply will be received, as the firm would probably have wired the Port had the terms not been satisfactory.

NEW TIME CARD.

Superintendent Buckley and Superintendent Campbell, in charge respectively of the Oregon division and Washington division of the O. R. & N. Company, have been in the city for a day or two in consultation with General Superintendent O'Brien. For 30 days past the general superintendent's office has been busy in making certain amendments to the company's time card. These changes are necessitated by reason of the new code of train and operating rules, brought about by the working together, under the merger of the Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line and the O. R. & N. These become effective April 1.

BOAT MEALS REDUCED.

Beginning April 1, all the boat lines between Portland and Astoria will reduce the prices on breakfast and supper to the uniform basis of 25 cents each, being a reduction of one-half in present prices for those meals. Dinner charges will remain the same. It is understood that these arrangements were the result of mutual agreement among the several lines.

Mr. Lovejoy is a delegate to the biennial convention of the Grand International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which meets in Norfolk, Va., on May 7, at which time he intends to put forth every effort to have the next convention meet in Portland.

THE JOURNAL TRADING CHECKS

The trading checks appearing in the Journal's advertisements are the simplest and most direct appeals that have been made to the good sense of alert and painstaking shoppers. Just look at the columns of the Journal today. Here you have a chance directly before you to save money. In H. E. Edwards' furniture advertisement a coupon appears good for fifty cents. Cut one out and take it to the Edwards establishment and it entitles you to a fifty-cent reduction on a $5 purchase. The price of goods are given in the advertisement, and it is like finding money to be allowed to use these coupons as cash. In the Chase Paint & Oil Co.'s advertisement a ten-cent coupon appears, good for ten cents in payment of $1.00 worth of goods. In the ad. of Bristol, the grocer, and others, one-cent coupons appear, which pass for current coin in the same manner on the basis of 10 per cent of your purchase. Save up your coupons and try how the plan works. Shrewd people have immediately taken hold of it. It is exclusively used in the columns of the Journal, and smart shoppers are reaping the benefit.

Death in the electric chair is the penalty for the offense. The trial lasted nine weeks. One hundred and fifty shots were exchanged between whites and blacks on Warrior River, 12 miles east of Jasper, Ala. A race war is feared. Two colored men were whipped for stealing. Two masked men compelled the clerk of the Hotel Whitley at Emporia, Kansas, to hand over $50 to them, and then, locking the clerk, a porter and a traveling man in a closet, attempted to break into the safe, but were scared away. Mrs. Henrietta Miller, beaten and outraged by the colored Pullman porter at La Junta, Colo., will recover. The negro's body was permitted to hang all night, when it was taken down by the coroner. Gray of Garden City, Kan., was acquitted of the charge of causing the death of Miss Irma Brown by malpractice.

ROUND TOWN.

Geo. Otter has proposed to plant azalea bushes in the hills west of the City Park, recently purchased by the Water Committee. A supply of the shrubs can be secured at Cow Creek Canyon, in the southern part of the Willamette Valley. Incorporation articles were filed yesterday of the Pacific United States Fence Company. The incorporators are N. E. Ayer, A. J. Norton and S. B. Lithicum. The capital stock is $25,000. The Ministerial Association gave a farewell banquet at Watson's Monday evening to Rev. A. W. Ackerman, retiring pastor of the First Congregational Church. There were more than 100 persons present, many of whom spoke in glowing terms of Rev. Ackerman and his work in this city. The idea has become pretty well grounded with most persons that if Portland is to become a "rose city" that roses must be cultivated. In consequence, local dealers in rose bushes report that the demand upon them for these plants has very nearly exhausted the supply. Portland Club, Fifth and Alder. Finest lunch in city. Portland Club, Fifth and Alder. After a residence of ten years in Portland, D. S. Peters died Tuesday of apoplexy at his residence, 828 Kearney street, at the age of 63 years. Taxes have been coming in slowly since March 15, the time limit for getting the 3 per cent rebate. Only about $5,000 has been taken in during the past week and the clerical help has been reduced in the Sheriff's office as a result. Mr. W. P. ### U. S. Treasurer Worked for $100 Per Year.

(Journal Special Service.) NEW YORK, March 27.—The Sons of Oneda gave a dinner at the Savoy hotel, to which it invited Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury, as guest of honor. The president of the society, Justice Charles H. Trux, acted as toastmaster. Mr. Gage responded to the toast, "Welcome to Our Honored Guest." Speaking of his early business struggle, Mr. Gage told how his first employment was as a messenger in a bank in Rome, N. Y., at a salary of $100 a year. After eighteen months' service, he asked for an increase, and not getting it, went west. Mr. Gage drew a humorous picture of his duties in the bank—sweeping the building out, running errands, keeping the fire alight and other small tasks.
