Some of the railroads in the East are against it, to speak slangily. Cerisingh-up officials, when called upon by the embers of the Interstate Commerce mails on the party of the commerce mails on the commerce of the commerc ministion, turned state's evidence on muselves. There was a sort of tack derstanding that by so doing they uld not be prosecuted for their most rgant violation of the law.

then the comm sident Roosevelt and informed him of real condition of affairs, he said that e big fellows in the railroad world e amenable to the law the same as ny one clee, and does not favor their aying a mere fine and then being al-iwed to go.

Local railroad men feel that the integof the interstate commerce act should rigidly maintained. Once they know bat it will be, and that the not without power to enforce its own es, it will make all the difference the world as to whether violations of rs-manifestly an unjust discrimination pera-manifestly an unjust discrimination scaling the there is to be permitted. Post-and freight men do net think that a form of imprisonment would be too assert for the Eastern magnates who have resumed that, because of their influence and dinangled power, they are above the aw. Some of them say that these felrows ought to take their medicine just e same as any one else.

INJUSTICE TO WOMEN.

(Journal Special Service.)
PARIS, March M.—Another case showing how necessary it is to conform to marriage laws of France has just been decided,

Young Robert de Brogle married the Faronne des Landes, a friend of his mothtr's, without the knowledge or o his father, Prince Amedee Brogile The marriage was celebrated in London, and the prince asked the Paris courts to declare the contract null and volo.

The court annulled the marriage.

The Prince de Broglie also asked the court to prohibit the baronne using the name of Broglie. This request was granted. Robert is now serving with his contact and a transition of the

WHY HE CAME.

R. A. Thayer, the leading jeweler of Teropto, Canada, is making his initial whit to Portland. He says that the Cana-dua Pacific is selling tickets to Portland at the same rate that it does to Vancouver. B. C. This was an opportunity fait this city that he could not let pass unimproved. The rate ought to bring many of our Canadian cousins to visit us, who were heretofore precluded from so doing by reason of being comcouver to Portland in addition to the through rate. He thinks Portland will be the leading city of the Northwest.

Do not delay trying the Peacock flour; you will never regret it.

THE KAISER'S OPINION

A man of , Emperor William's political views, believing in a government based on the army and on the inherited prerogative of the privileged castes to rule, cannot sincerely like a government which is of the people, by the people and for the people. The kaiser and the upper ruling classes in Germany look upon the United States as little better than a "mob government."

I collected during my stay in Berlin a few suthentic utterances made by the kalser about this country. To the late General Runyon, then United States amagssador in Berlin, he once said: "Such a pushing people as the Americans Wil-soner or later clash with others, but let us hope never with Germany."

To Ambassador White he said: "America is a country of contrast - piercing other occasion: "I know there are many hnigs my Germans might learn from the merican people—above all, their opti-nism, their naive enthusiasm and unquenchable energy."

To the late President Harrison he said n the course of an hour's conversation: Your whole country is an experimentsh intensely interesting one, I admit, but still an experiment. Whether it will stand the storms of time as the older controlles of Europe have done remains

To the same: "One of the doubtful fee tures of American life is its lack of na-tional cohesion and homogeneity-you're tional cohesion and homogeneity—you're a conglomerate, a bubbling caidron."

To the same: "Such seething party poli-tion as yours are not conductve to a only, well-balanced public opinion."— Wolf you Schierbrand in the World's

The Spicks Told Her Where to FARMS, CITY PROPERTY Find Treasure.

BURNA VIRTA, Gol., March il. Mrs. orchouse Malien, aged 7 years, known the woman miner, diet of apoplexy at as the woman miles are apopled at Twin Lakes. Thirty years ago she arrived in Colorado, coming to Buena Vista in 1872. She was prominent in this section and has always been an enthusiastic mines. On two occasions she sold mines for a handsome sum. She always dressed in a short walking skirt, with heavy miner's boots, and worked in her various mines as a common mine laborer. On the crest of Free Gold hill, east of this piace, at an altitude of 8,000 feet. Mrs. Mallen cut huge timber and built her a warm log cabin. From Buena Vista her cabin on top of the mountain i steep trail. This she climbed weekly carrying the necessary provisions on her back to last her the week. On this same mountain she had several prospects and had tunneled into the mountain to great depths. All the work she did without sistance, drilling, blasting, timberly and wheeling out the ore and waste by the stronger sez.

In 1892 she sold one mine in the Twin Lakes district for $3,000. With part of this sum, at the age of 66 years, she visited the World's Pair and other points, returning to this city one year later. She erected several handsome residences here and considerable of the carpenter work she did with her own hands. Mrs. Mallen was an enthusiastic spiritpalist during her life, and invariably told her to dig. Her success in all mining ventures, she said, was mainly due
