

GEER

Claims 208 Votes, Furnish 108 and Johns 32.

The political state-makers are losing sleep. Some of the aspirants for high office continue to deal in glittering generalities, but most of them are beginning to quote figures. The tables prepared by the different candidates, or their friends, do not at all harmonize, as several of the delegations are claimed by more than one candidate.

One of Governor Geer's workers claims the following, after the first and second ballots: Baker, 7; Coos, 7; Curry, 3; Clatsop, 10; Columbia, 7; Benton, 11; Douglas, 6; Gilliam, 4; Jackson, 12; Josephine, 7; Multnomah, 4; Lake, 4; Lincoln, 4; Linn, 14; Lane, 18; Malheur, 3; Marion, 22; Multnomah, 20; Polk, 9; Sherman, 4; Wasco, 22; Washington, 5; Wheeler, 4; Yamhill, 11. A total of 208 votes.

One of Mrs. Furnish's friends claims the following with an ever-increasing vote as the balloting progresses: Unadilla, 14; Grant, 7; Morrow, 4; Multnomah, 67; Walla-walla, 5; Union, 11. Total 108.

Dr. O. M. Dodson, state commissioner from Baker County, is engineering the campaign for Charles A. Johns. When asked for figures, Dr. Dodson said: "We claim everything." It is understood that Mr. Johns' friends claim on the first ballot, the following delegations: Baker, 22; Malheur, 4; Grant, 7; Harney, 4; Walla-walla, 5. Total 52.

In these estimates the Geer men make their figures with the belief that Henry E. Ankeny will not be a candidate. Mr. Ankeny is said to be working for Geer.

Ingenious Democratic state-makers have prepared the subjoined ticket.

Governor—George E. Chamberlain, of Multnomah.

Secretary of State—Walter M. Pearce, of Umatilla.

Attorney General—J. H. Raley, of Pendleton.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—B. F. Snuffer, of Tillamook.

Supreme Judge—Sylvester Pennoyer, of Portland.

SAVED NORA'S LIFE

(Journal Special Service.)
SALEM, March 28.—It is the old, old story—a lover's quarrel—wary of life—attempted suicide—doctor called—prompt emetics—stomach pump—life saved.

This is the abbreviated history of pretty Nora Ridgeway's sorrows. Miss Ridgeway and Arthur McKinnon were lovers. She, 18 years of age, handsome, vivacious, innocent, idolized the young man who had won her heart.

He, worldly, in a measure callous, unyielding, cold upon occasion, critical, exacting—not understanding the tender love of the one that so fondly cherished his very name—with a good fellow, an good fellows go.

After a quarrel at 6 o'clock last evening, Nora took excessive sublimate, but her condition was discovered in time to save her life.

McKinnon is doubtless sorry. A wedding may be the silver lining to the cloud of woe.

COURT NEWS.

J. M. Franch was appointed legal guardian of his children, Arthur Monroe and Elsie Josephine Franch. The minors are the beneficiaries of their mother's insurance policy of $500.

An order was received in the State Circuit Court Wednesday issued by Judge Melville C. Brown, United States District Court of Alaska, division No. 1, restraining further proceedings in case of Marcus W. Adams vs. Western Fisheries Co. Adams is suing for $5,000 damages received while in the employ of the company's tender steamer in Alaska.

L. Breshie has filed with the County Court a bid of $2,000 for a tract of land of the Hannah M. Smith, deceased, estate. The property was sold by the executor, William Ladd, March 6 last for $2,600. The sale had not been confirmed by the court yet. Breshie has deposited $500 with the executor as evidence of good faith.

Pending the opening of the trout fishing season, April 1, many Portland anglers are enjoying line sport over on the banks of the Columbia river, catching salmon trout. They bite freely at worms or salmon eggs, and it is great fun to land one of the big fellows. The waters of the Columbia are said to be liberally stocked with this delicious fish. There is no law against catching them anywhere in tidewater.

Orton Resigns—State Convention.

George M. Orton, candidate on the Republican ticket for the legislature, resigned the presidency of the Federated Trades Assembly at its meeting last night. His resignation was accepted and Vice-President H. E. Gurr was made his successor. Vincent McCulloch was then elected vice-president.

The local newspaper states that A. A. Bailey, also a candidate for the legislature on the Republican ticket, was not asked to resign as secretary of the Assembly. All this is ancient history, but the facts are:

At the meeting a week ago, Secretary Bailey was present. President Orton was not. A committee was appointed last night to draft resolutions expressing the appreciation of the council for the efficient services rendered by Mr. Orton while in the chair.

A communication was read stating that the International Confectioners' Union had declared a boycott on the National Biscuit Company of Chicago, and requesting all unions to have nothing to do with the manufactured goods of that concern.

Quite a lengthy discussion ensued in favor of state federation, and the council issued a call for a convention to be held here the first Monday in May to further consider the subject and effect an organization.

George Y. Harry, of the Sheet Metalworkers' Union, was elected organizer, and instructed to visit various crafts in the eastern part of the state and induce them to send delegates to the convention.

RIVER AND OCEAN.

The British bark Lota left down this morning with a cargo of wheat.

The British ship Rockhurst is the last vessel to load with wheat this month. She is now ready for the sea, and will clear Tuesday.

The British bark Brunel, Captain Milne, arrived this morning from Newcastle with a cargo of coal, and is anchored in the stream. The Brunel was 71 days on the sea, having set sail January 14. The captain reports having met with fair weather and experienced a pleasant voyage. A berth at the docks will not be secured for the vessel before Monday.

The French bark Ernest le Gouve, which is at the Irving dock receiving a cargo of wheat, will sail from this port with a new officer in command, Captain Craigdon having resigned and Captain Pihlouty succeeding him. Mr. Craigdon has not made public his future intentions. Pihlouty was formerly captain of the ill-fated Ernest Reyer, which was wrecked on the breakers at the mouth of the Quinault River near Gray's Harbor last December. The vessel was considered almost a total wreck and was shortly afterwards sold for $1,000.

Debris of the United States revenue service has returned to Portland after an eight months' absence. In returning from the North he was on the Honfetta, which was wrecked on the Alaska coast. From there he went to San Francisco and was on the San Rafael, which also met with ill-fate, and on this occasion Mr. Debritz distinguished himself by saving several lives. He intends to remain here but a short time.

THEY LIKED DAINTIES.

Several would-be sports, with depleted pocketbooks, who were desirous of seeing the Thurston-Donovan fight, broke into the rooms of the School of Domestic Science in order to gain entrance to the Exposition building, where the fight was held. In passing through the school the men, not satisfied with gorging themselves with dainties, virtually wrecked the rooms, doing damage to the amount of $50 to $75.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS.

At a meeting of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. J. C. Pritchard were chosen delegates to the Los Angeles convention.

Professor Rigler gave an interesting talk, his subject being "Woman's Relation to the Public School." There were several other interesting features, among them solos by Mrs. Russ Bloch Bauer, accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Thomas.

ROBBERY

Mrs. Campbell Accuses Charles Schroeder.

Deputy Constable Magner of the Justice Court took a double rig yesterday and, proceeding to a point near the Poor Farm on the Canyon road, arrested Charles Schroeder and Frank Griesback and brought them to town. Schroeder is charged with robbery, while the other young man is accused of assault and battery. Both were released on bail.

The complainant in the case is Mrs. Michael Campbell, and the story she tells makes it look very bad for the young men if she can substantiate it. The boys, however, claim that she is a trouble-maker and has kept the entire neighborhood in a turmoil for a long time. Each side will tell their stories to Justice of the Peace Kraemer next Saturday.

Mrs. Campbell's story in part is as follows: "These boys have been abusing me, my husband and children a long time, and also beating my cows. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning Charley Schroeder kicked my door in and pointed a big pistol in my face. I said 'For God's sake, don't shoot me.' My little 10-year-old boy then ran to my assistance and he pointed the gun at the brave little fellow and I thought he was going to shoot. Then I said:

"What do you want?"

"He said 'Give me your money.' 'I threw him my purse and he emptied the money in his hand and went away. The purse contained all the money I had in the world. I saved it up so Mike could get back in the Hed Carriers' Union. The amount was $5.00."

This statement is but a brief outline of the long story that the woman told amid tears and sobs. All the parties to the case assembled in the Justice Court this morning. The case was continued one week and the defendants admonished to leave the woman alone. They deny having disturbed her.

DON'T HOLD VOTES

It is known that several thousand votes are held back in the Fair Site voting contest. The Journal has knowledge of one person gathering up hundreds of votes for one place. He has collected many of them from Journal subscribers in the neighborhood in which he dwells.

It is known that a young lady has almost "blown up" for her favorite location and that others are "saving 'em up" for a future onslaught on the Exposition editor.

Don't do this now—it's too early. This contest will last for many weeks yet, and should attract immediate response from readers of this paper. Let us have all the votes right up to date for next Saturday's enumeration. And send them in on Friday. Saturday is too late for that day's counting.

QUESTIONS BY POLICE.

Not so long ago John Foster was quite well known in local politics, and his sleek, portly form was very familiar as a cigar store ornament.

Finally he arose to be an officeholder—poundmaster. But that was not bad, as the pay was far above that of some officers bearing higher sounding names.

Yesterday morning Mr. Foster was asked to visit the police station, where he answered some very pointed questions pertaining to confidence games and bunco schemes. He had a companion in Sam Nevilla.

Both denied positively that they were interested in or contemplated any confidence operations. They were anxious to set themselves right and answered all the questions put by the officers. There was no proof against the men and they were allowed to go.
