THAT LYNCHING

(Journal Special Service.)

DENVER, April 1—A party of Denver negroes, headed by Editor Sharp, of the Times-Speaker, waited upon Governor Orman yesterday morning, and requested that steps be taken to investigate the recent lynching at La Junta, in which H. Wallace was killed. It was alleged that Sheriff Barr of Otero was derelict in his duty in that he did not use all the means in his power to save the life of his prisoner. The delegation did not deny that the crime of which Wallace was accused was deserving of death, but it was declared that he should have had a fair trial by a jury. Governor Orman told them that they were at liberty to file charges against Sheriff Barr in the Otero court if they so chose. They departed with the declaration that an investigation would be made.

THE "COPS" ARE ALL RIGHT

Two rough-clad women who arrived in lown recently, applied at the City Board of Charities for work. They are wrothy at the treatment they had received here. They said there was no charity in the cown, and that every time they asked for job the people required them to furnish references before they would give them anything to do. Superintendent W. T. Gardner, of the Boys' and Girls Aid Society, and the matron of the charity institution listened to the tirade of the strangers till finally Mr. Gardner strelessly pulled the lapel of his coat side and exposed his official star.

"Oh, the policemen of Portland are all right," exclaimed the surprised woman when she observed she was talking to an officer. "The people are wholly terrors, but the "cops" have been nice to is."

The two work-seckers then hastily desarted and have not been in the vicinity of the City Board of Charities since.

HOMESICK HOMESEEKER.

A Journal reporter met an Easterner today who actually didn't like Oregon. In fact, he was homesick and wants to return East, He held up an umbrella which tooked almost as though it had just been purchased, it was so new in appearance. "That umbrella," said he, "I bought just four years ago down in Arkansas. Course it don't rain down there only duct in a great while, but I thought I mout need it. I read all about this yere Oregon in your papers, and so I come. Oregon in your papers, and so I come out to see and retraced all I had along. Haint been here morein a month, but I've had enough. I've had more use for that umbrella since I came than in all the years since I bought it. I'm a goin back."

AN OLD CRIMINAL.

EEDALIA. Mo. April 1.—W. H. Wallace, colored, who was lynched at Ladunta. Colo. For criminally assisting Mrs. Henrietta Miller, an aged white woman, was sent to the penitentiary for two years for a similar crime committed here nearly four years ago. Wallace was employed as janitor at the M. K. & T. passenger depot and stood well in the romananty. Almost weekly for three or four months there were mysterious assaults upon white girls returning home from work at night. Bloodhounds were finally secured and Wallace was rundown, after which time there was never against him was only circumstantial, but ac consented to plead guilty if given a ne conscuted to plead guilty if given a White the share the first heart of in Denyer. It was predicted when the eventually figure as the principal in a

PING-PONG IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, March 37.—For $500 a side, two brokers played ping-pong at 25 Broad street yesterday and incidentally decided the championship of Wall street. Broad street yesterday and incidentally decided the championship of Wall street. The game was the most strenuous in the history of the country. Broker Norman DeMauriae beat Broker Fred Watson. Each claimed the championship before the game was been a marked by the game bears and the championship before the game bears. the game began, and the argument was settled by the posting of $500, the sending for a ping-pong set and the opening of the game then and there. DeMauriac won three games and Watson two.

ELKS' GRAND LODGE.

The Elks have secured a $29.60 round-trip rate from Portland to Salt Lake on account of the meeting there in August of the Grand Lodge of the order. It is a little too far ahead to prognosticate the exact number of delegates that will attend the gathering from Oregon, but an estimate is out something like this: From Portland, 130; Baker City, 76; Astoria, 50; Roseburg, 40; Salem, 59; The Dalles, La Grande and Pendleton will each be represented.

THE MARKETS.

Acording to the Portland Flouring Mills Company, the grain and flour market is in a very weak condition. Very little business of any kind is being done. Valley wheat dropped I cent, the quotations now being $2763c. A rise of 50 cents is reported on shorts.

As was reported yesterday the supply of eggs was much greater than the demand, and in consequence eggs are selling today as low as 13 cents.

Poultry is alightly weaker again today. Hens are quoted straight at $5 a dozen or 16c to 11c a pound. There is a slight advance in ducks, the quotations today being $636.50 a dozen.

The steamer arrived from California iate last evening and a large supply of fresh vegetables are being distributed on the street today.

Potatoes remain at former prices.

There is a slight decline in green onions today. Lemons took a drop this morning of 50c a box.

A car of bananas is expected the latter part of the week.

Heavy receipts of hogs in the Eastern markets caused quite a flutter in the markets there. Conditions in the local market are normal and prices the same with a steady market.

The large buyings in sugar have about stopped. Grocers are stocked up for a number of months and the friesh have not chapted.
