CRASHED INTO PASSENGER TRAIN

Electric Car Runs Wild on Hawthorne Avenue.

Southern Pacific Baggage Car Set Afire, But No One Injured.

A costly wreck occurred at 7:30 this morning at the east end of the Madison street bridge when a freight car of the Portland City and Oregon Electric road crashed into the incoming California express train from San Francisco.

The electric car struck the baggage car of the Southern Pacific train, splintered it and broke the Pintsch gas tank underneath, setting fire to the train. The fire department promptly responded and saved it.

The passengers received a severe fright, but no one was injured. The fault was entirely with the Oregon City road.

A Journal reporter reading on the East Side was on the scene immediately after the crash. In fact, he could feel the shock and is in a good position to tell, from his own observations and the narratives of eye witnesses, just how the accident occurred.

In the first place, the Southern Pacific Company can in no way be blamed. It has the right of way, its train was proceeding slowly, and by its automatic electric bell at the crossing, which rings when a train is approaching two blocks away, gave ample warning to all to "look out." On the other hand, the street car company has a large sign suspended between its electric power wires reading as follows:

"Stop—Flag this crossing."
When the order is generally obeyed, eye-witnesses claim that the flagging precaution was not thought necessary this morning.

Electric express car No. 102, with 17

G. Reinke as motorman, was coming down the Hawthorne avenue incline at a rapid rate, just as the California express crossed Hawthorne avenue on East First. The electric car had a heavy trailer hooked on, and too late the motorman found that he could not stop.

The engine and tender of the train had already crossed the intersection, but the electric car crashed into the train's baggage car. This in itself did no great damage. It did, however, break the connections of the gas storage tank under the baggage car. The escaping gas became ignited and created a pretty blaze till the fire department arrived and extinguished it.

The train, which came to an almost instant standstill when collided with, could not proceed until a part of the front end of the express car had been chopped away with axes.

Superintendent Tiffany of the electric company, who was somewhat late in putting in an appearance, seemed all at sea when he glanced around himself. He immediately commenced issuing contradictory orders, and the clearing away of the wreck was delayed.

As in all railway accidents, those immediately concerned refused to talk. It is claimed, however, by the street car representatives that the track was covered with a frosty formation, but such is not a fact. Even were this so, the car which crashed into the train was not provided with sand with which to sprinkle the rails. It was simply a case of fast running and a disregard for all ordinary precautions.

CITIZENS' TICKET

Captain Spencer Offered Chairmanship of the Movement.

The fusion of the dissatisfied Republicans and the Democrats in combination with the organized labor of the city, made much progress today. The first organized steps will be taken tomorrow. It is probable that a joint conference will be held Sunday and a temporary organization effected.

By unanimous consent of the young Republicans and citizens generally, Captain S. C. Spencer will be the chairman of the movement. It is understood that he has consented to act as temporary chairman and at the Sunday meeting he will be elected as such. He will then call a mass meeting of citizens to be held some time next week, when the movement will be organized permanently and steps taken to bring out a ticket.

All the people interested in the movement say that so far perfect harmony reigns.

It is agreed by unanimous consent that the offices of Mayor and State Senator shall be given to the Democrats, the representatives in the legislature to be evenly divided between the Democrats, the Republicans and the labor forces.

Among the candidates that are prominently mentioned are the following:
Mayor—John Lamont, R. D. Inman, W. E. Robertson.

State Senator—Mark M. Gearin, Sylvester Penney.

Legislature—John O'Neal, Newton McCoy, James Gleason, G. W. Allen, W. G. McPherson, John A. Bushman, Mr. Curry, T. J. Concannon, L. T. Peary, P. A. MacPherson, Fred W. Mulkey, Frank Freeman, E. A. Mosser, Ben Seiting, Art. Haseltine, Frank Schlegel, W. A. Clarke, Prof. Kromer.

Sheriff—Thomas McNamee, N. H. Bird, W. B. Steele, Thomas Hokirk, Harry Meyer, John Driscoll.

County Clerk—Major J. P. Kennedy.

City Engineer—Oscar Bellinger, Douglas Taylor.

County Judge—J. V. Beach, H. E. Adams, E. B. Seabrooke.

County Assessor—Charles K. Henry, W. H. Grinstaff, Capt. C. E. McDonnell.

C. W. Nottingham would have been a nominee for Representative as he was at first very much dissatisfied with the Republican ticket, but he has later been induced to accept the Republican nomination for Joint Representative with Clackamas County.

Mr. Inman has a strong following for Mayor, for the reason that in 1894 he was elected Mayor and was counted out. The voters seem to think there will be a kind of poetic justice in giving him the office now.

John Gearin does not desire the office of State Senator for personal reasons, but it is believed he will accept it if the nomination is tendered him by the committee.

The Republicans will probably insist on the nomination of Capt. Charles E. McDonnell as County Assessor. He will be acceptable to most of the Democrats.

CONGRESS

Proceedings for the Coming Week.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Next week promises to be the banner week in the House. The program contemplates the discussion of the Payne Cuban Reciprocity bill.

Attempts will be made by the Democrats to amend the bill so as to open the subject of tariff revision, but the chairman will rule all such amendments out of order.

Some of the best sugar Republicans will seek the adoption of amendments also, placing a differential on refined sugar, but the chairman's course of procedure will be the same.

Usually a large number of Senators desire to make speeches on this measure, and even friends of the bill scarcely expect to reach a vote on it during the week.

There is an impression that the Senate's action on the question will be confined to the extension of the laws now on the statute books.

CHAIRMAN DECIDES.

At the Democratic county convention Thursday it was decided to adjourn until April 10. Several other motions for adjournment were put and carried without reconsideration. The chairman now decides that the convention stands adjourned until such a time as is selected by the caucus of delegates, which is to be held at Eagles' Hall Saturday, April 12, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

STRONG SPEECH

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, April 5.—Senator Fairbanks spoke at great length on the Exclusion bill, detailing the history of restrictive laws in America, stating that the bill before the Senate is not a departure from the well settled policy of the government. It was necessary, he said, to maintain high wages for labor, and the admission of the Chinese would undoubtedly lower wages. The government would be recanting to the high trust committed to it should it enter upon a policy which would undoubtedly lower the standard of our civilization. Our first care must be for our own people, and this country must beware of a surplus of labor. A serious objection to the Chinese is their general disregard of the home relation which unites a republic. Exclusion laws should be stringent and effectively administered.

An interesting colloquy arose at the conclusion of Fairbanks' remarks. Gallinger thought that certain provisions of the pending measure would violate the existing treaty. Lodge and Mitchell denied the charge. Gallinger took Hon. John F. Foster as his authority. Penrose charged that Foster was the accredited agent, orally, of the Chinese government. Gallinger expressed surprise, but declared that if any existing treaty was to be violated he could not support the measure, even if his own state demanded it.

A CURIOSITY

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
LONDON, April 5.—Another extraordinary feature of the Rhodes will developed today. Lord Rosebery, Earl Grey, Lord Milner, Alfred Beit, Dr. Jameson, L. L. Mitchell and B. A. Hawke are the executors and residuary heirs of the estate. They will divide more than a million pounds between them.

The curious feature is that as each legatee dies his share goes to a common fund until the surviving legatee becomes sole legatee of the vast bequest.

TREMENDOUS SENSATION

Astounding Discoveries of Corruption In St. Louis.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
ST. LOUIS, April 5.—The most startling report ever made by a St. Louis Grand Jury was returned this morning by the body which has been investigating the municipal boodle scandal.

True bills were reported for millionaires and members of the Municipal Assembly, who have been arrested from time to time on charges of bribery and perjury.

The report then recites that combines, for the purpose of bribery, exist in both branches of the Assembly, and that in recent years few ordinances have been passed without the use of money. Assemblymen, the report says, seem to regard bribery as a legitimate business occupation and frequently receive from $100 to $100,000 for their votes.

The report says that a regular scale of prices for bribery has been discovered as existing in the Assembly.

Among the true bills reported is one against Robert Snyder, a Kansas City millionaire, charged with offering a Congressman $50,000 for two votes on the Traction bill.

George Kobusch, also a millionaire, is charged with perjury.

MAY BE ARRESTED

Margaret Sheperd Cannot Get a License.

Several citizens, including Archbishop Christie, called upon City Attorney Long this morning in relation to the public lectures of Margaret Sheperd, in which she criticizes Catholicism. They asked that the attorney render an opinion of the law governing cases where trouble is likely to follow public lectures of a defamatory character, and as to the right of the city authorities to withhold a license.

Mr. Long, in his written opinion, said that the city authorities were justified in not issuing a license where trouble was likely to follow, and that the police had the right to arrest any lecturer whose remarks were likely to cause a public disturbance, or who charges an admission fee without a license.

The woman has no license, and if she attempts to lecture and charge an admission fee she will be arrested. To avoid police interference, she spoke last night in the Rodney Avenue Christian Church.

SELF MURDER

Woman Shoots Herself with Small Rifle.

Mrs. E. A. Palmer committed suicide this morning at Fairview, a village on the O. R. & N. Railway about 12 miles from Portland. She shot herself through the head with a 22-caliber rifle.

Mrs. Palmer is supposed to have been mentally unbalanced, as she has been very morose since the birth of a child several months ago.

The coroner went to the scene and held an inquest this afternoon, the verdict being in accordance with the above facts.

NEW REVENUE RULING.

Collector Dunne has received a circular from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in the matter of shipments to the Philippine Islands of articles subject to internal-revenue tax. It quotes a part of Section 6 of "An Act temporarily to provide revenue for the Philippine Islands, in bond or with benefit of drawback." The Commissioner rules further that the certificate of the Collector of the Islands as to the landing of articles and payment of duties thereon, will be accepted in lieu of the prescribed certificate of the Foreign Revenue Officer and the Consular verification of the consignee's certificate.
