

A LOVE FEAST

Furnish and Williamson at The Dalles.

The Candidates Open
State Campaign.

(Journal Special Service.)
THE DALLES, Or., April 5.—Thursday night was a gala time in the history of Eastern Oregon politics. The Williamson-Furnish push held Jolly Jinks, where all factions of the Republican party indulged in a genuine love feast and declared their allegiance to the County, State and Congressional tickets from top to bottom. Prof. Birglett's orchestra rendered exquisite music during the intervals of speech-making.

The spacious parlors of the Umatilla House were profusely decorated with potted plants and evergreens, which, under the glare of numerous calcium lights, presented a scene as blithesome as a Summer bowery.

N. J. Sinnott presided and introduced Hon. W. J. Furnish, candidate for Governor, as the first speaker of the evening. The Pendleton banker expressed his profound gratitude for the reception accorded him, and declared he would make such a vigorous campaign that he expected to carry the State by a majority of at least 10,000 votes. He endorsed the entire Republican platform and said that if its teachings were enacted into law the State would enjoy the most prosperous period of its existence. Lapel buttons bearing the inscription "W. J. Furnish for Governor" were then distributed through the audience, and Mr. Furnish thus began his campaign.

Senator J. N. Williamson, candidate for Congress from the Second district was given a rousing reception. He said: "Mr. Furnish and myself have been down to Portland, and incidentally dropped into what proved to be a Republican State and Congressional convention. They were short of material and were so solicitous that we take places on the ticket, and rather than offend them, we complied with their request. Providence (and Jack Matthews) being on our side, we went out."

He then paid a glowing tribute to the gubernatorial candidate and declared that it was just such noble men as Mr. Furnish, who in 1898, charged the political parties and made it possible to elect the immortal William McKinley. "Speaking on the arid land question, he said: 'It is not so much a question as to whether or not these lands should be irrigated as it is a question as to how they should be irrigated.'

"These barren regions," he continued, "had better remain so indefinitely than to be reclaimed by any system that would pass them immediately into the hands of large corporations. Some scheme can, and must be, devised, whereby the Federal Government shall put the water, now going to waste, into storage reservoirs and irrigating canals, on such a plan as to be accessible to the homesteader and home-builder in such quantities and under such conditions as will render it of sufficient benefit to him that he can afford to remain permanently upon the land. Otherwise I had rather see Eastern Oregon remain as it is until this can be adopted."

The other speakers of the evening were: Attorney Fee of Pendleton, who played Mr. Furnish in nomination; N. J. Sinnott, The Dalles; Charles Reed, of the Dufur Dispatch, who gave Moody loyal support in the primaries; G. W. Phelps of Heppner, chairman of Congressional convention; Milton Anderson, Moody delegate of Dufur; Mayor Farley, The Dalles; N. Wheland, The Dalles; B. S. Huntington, The Dalles; Hon. W. H. Dufur, Dufur; Hugh Gourley, editor Dalles Chronicle, and B. H. Wilson, The Dalles.

The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers by all factions for the bus-grass candidates.

COMING HERE

Reception Should Be Arranged for Harriman.

What sort of entertainment should be provided for E. H. Harriman and his party, on the occasion of their coming visit to Portland? The Portland Board of Trade has already set the ball to rolling by suggesting, through letters, to President Mohler of the O. R. & N. Company and to Manager Kohler of the Oregon lines of the Southern Pacific, that something ought to be done.

President Mohler was asked by The Journal what were his ideas on the matter, late yesterday afternoon. He replied: "I did not know that such a letter had been written. I will undoubtedly receive it in time. What will I do? I will be better able to decide when I see it. As soon as I ascertain the wish of the Portland Board of Trade, I shall wire the substance of the letter to Mr. Harriman, and shall be governed entirely by his desires."

In discussing the matter further, Mr. Mohler called attention to the well-known fact that Mr. Harriman always rather shuns that seeks publicity. He is a man that is naturally modest. He objects to being greatly honored. He is not at all partial to banquets or public functions and he tends to draw him out of the retirement he so much prefers.

Manager Kohler had but shortly arrived from a tour of inspection of the lines of his company, and was found at his desk. It was buried to the depth of several inches with matters demanding immediate attention. He felt surprised that such a letter had been written and seemed pleased to know that the Portland Board of Trade desired to have honors paid to the head of the great Southern Pacific-Union Pacific system. Manager Kohler said: "I really cannot tell at this moment what the local officials of our company will do to make the stay of our president and party pleasant while here. I have not yet received the letter written by the Portland Board of Trade."

WOULD LIKE TO GO TO CONGRESS

The question of the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Second district is beginning to receive considerable attention from the faithful. The latest probable candidate is John H. Raley of Umatilla County. J. W. Morrow of Heppner has a strong following and there is always a possibility that the lightning will strike ex-Governor Penoyer of this city. Governor Penoyer says that he does not want the office, but as he is one of the few men who might win, it is thought he might be persuaded to accept the nomination. A. D. Rockefeller, of Portland announced yesterday that he is a candidate. Ex-Candidate Simmons is also said to be running for Congress.

ROUTINE

Matters Considered by Federated Trades.

The meeting of the Federated Trades Council was called to order last night, with Preside Gurr in the chair. A communication from G. Y. Harry, special organizer for a State Federation of Labor, was read. Mr. Harry reports great success so far in his work, only having visited The Dalles and Pendleton. A committee was appointed to induce the various unions in the city to send delegates to the convention in May, and also to create a general interest in the proposed State Federation of Labor.
A. A. Bailey tendered his resignation as a delegate from the Typographical Union, which was accepted, and a committee was appointed to draft a resolution expressing the appreciation of the Council for the past services rendered by Mr. Bailey during his term as secretary of the body.

All the unions are still contributing financial and moral support to the Workers' Alliance, and new developments are looked for soon.

Within the last week two new unions were organized, the Bartenders' League, with 96, and the Glaziers', with 24 members.

Steps are being taken by the Council to secure a hall of its own. Delegates to the Hall Association will meet two weeks from last night, when reports will be made as to the progress of the movement.

COMMITTEE AT WORK

Citizens' Ticket Will Be Carefully Selected.

The Conference Committee appointed by the caucus of delegates to the State convention is quietly but steadily at work trying to ascertain the smallest number of offices the Democrats will have to concede to the dissatisfied Republicans, the labor leaders and the other elements not embraced in the ranks of the so-called Independent Republicans.
Several quiet little conferences were held yesterday, but so far there has been no formal conference with any organized body. It is understood that the Democrats will insist on naming the Mayor, the State Senator and at least three of the Representatives to the Legislature. The

E. U. PHILLIPS, Pres. INCORPORATED C. A. PARTLOW, Sec. and Treas.

CATTLEMEN'S BRUTALITY

(Journal Special Service.)
ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., April 5.—A courier has reached here from the scene of the fight between sheep and cattlemen east of Big Piney. He was on the ground and says no one was injured, but that 12,000 sheep were killed or scattered, the animals being shot, clubbed to death and driven over a cliff into a deep and narrow ravine. Three sheep wagons were burned, together with the bedding and camp outfit of the stockmasters.
The fight occurred between Sand Springs and East Boulder Creek, 20 miles east of Big Piney. The sheepmen were several miles beyond the dead line and were encroaching upon the reserve claimed by the cattlemen, when a band of the latter appeared, heavily armed and mounted. After firing several shots at the sheepmen, who returned the fire, the cattlemen closed in, and, as they outnumbered the sheepmen five to one, disarmed the herders, tied them and proceeded to destroy the outfit and kill the sheep. The courier will not divulge the names of the flockmasters, but he would not deny that the latter are John and Abe Hill. There is considerable excitement in the upper Green River country, and further trouble is expected.
