

MISS TALMAGE A BRIDE TODAY

Daughter of the Famous Preacher and Charming Society Belle.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—A notable wedding today was that of Miss Maud Talmage, youngest daughter of the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, to Mr. Charles F. Wyckoff of Ithaca, N. Y. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, the officiating clergyman being the brother of the bride, the Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage of Chicago. On account of the prolonged illness of Dr. Talmage the wedding was quiet and the guests including only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the two families.

The bride of today is one of the most popular and charming of the society set in Washington. She is fond of horses, which she manages with skill, and is endowed with splendid gifts of conversation. She has been in the receiving line at many of the more notable society events here. The wedding journey will be to Japan and the Orient. If the condition of Dr. Talmage's health is such that it will be deemed advisable for the daughter to be absent from his home, and the couple expect to be away six months. When they return they will live in Ithaca.

READY FOR DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

For the next three days Portland will be a Democratic city. The clans are gathering. Every incoming train brings its full quota of the untried. They come with words of cheer and their hearts full of hope. They wear their Sunday clothes and many of them are accompanied by their wives and daughters. They expect to remain three days and then return to their constituents.

tioned as a probable candidate for Secretary of State, and he may be chairman of the convention.

Much caucusing is in progress, and when the state convention meets at 11 o'clock tomorrow there will be little to do except ratification. The state committee has not given out any decision as to the temporary or permanent organization, but the delegates are talking. At present it looks like Thomas H. Crawford of Union for chairman, or possibly the invincible A. D. Stillman of Umatilla, and Horace Mann of Medford for secretary. The temporary organization will be made permanent.

The delegation contains Andy Broadus Wintree, the law partner of Captain Sam White and the youngest and smallest member of the convention. He comes on a proxy. Mr. Wintree is the president of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Baker, which is gotten up in true Tammany style. Other Baker delegates in the city are E. A. McDaniel, the correspondent of the Oregonian from that city. C. H. Chance of Bumpeter, well known here; Ann Brown, D. W. Kelly, J. Nat Cooper and Hon. William Smith of the State Senate.

Startling Piano Prices

Store News From Eilers Piano House—A Large Number of Fine New Uprights to Be Sold This Week at Dealers' Wholesale Prices. Six Dollars a Month Will Secure Choice of Nearly Two Carloads.

During the coming week we wish to sell something like three carloads of the very best medium-grade pianos ever shown in Portland. They were regularly sold by another retail house for $275 and $300 heretofore. These instruments are greatly improved, and better made than they were when they were sold at the above-mentioned figures. In fact, we doubt very much as to whether a San Francisco branch store or a concern getting its pianos from San Francisco jobbing-houses or on consignment from money brokers could afford to sell them for less than $225 even now and make a living profit. But we are going to sell these instruments during the coming week for $186 each, and the pianist styles for $172, and to make it an object for you to take one of them quickly, we will sell you one on payment of $10 down and $10 a month. Remember the prices $172 and $186, one and the same to all alike, no more will be asked, no less will be accepted; 3 per cent off for all cash, or $9 down and $1 a month, with interest on deferred payments at 3 per cent per annum.

Calling your attention to the fact that out of every one hundred patients I treat, eighty-five per cent. are benefited. Consultation invited.

ROASTS EXCLUSION BILL.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Senator Gallinger was the first speaker on the Chitney Exclusion Bill in the Senate today. He declared that the pending bill was unwise, unjust, unnecessary and the kind of measure that engenders prejudice. He said it aimed at a weak people and was a species of legislation that would never be thought of in connection with a stronger nation. He insisted that the bill is narrow, bigoted, intolerant and indefensible, and that if he had not been assured by Senator Lodge that it was a carefully prepared measure, he would have believed it could only have originated in the brain of a sand-lot orator.
