Advised Postponement of St. Louis Fair.

A meeting of the Lews and Clark di-rectors with John Barrett. Commissioner-General of the Louisiana Purchase Expo-sition to the Orient, took place yesterday afternoon at 246 Washington street. Those present were H. W. Corbett, Rufus Mal-lery, Lee Friede, F. Dresser, A. H. De-vers, George W. Bates, Charles B. Ladd, Paul Wessinger, A. L. Mills, Mr. Fenton and H. W. Scott. and H. W. Scott.

President Corbett explained the reason of Mr. Barrett's presence and what good he could do for the exposition.

Mr. Barrett thereupon explained how the Louisiana Purchase Esposition could help the Lewis and Clark Centennial, the summary of which is:

1.—That the Lewis and Clark Exposition directors should have a building at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

2.—That a representation should be sent

8.—That the Lewis and Clark Exposition secure a selection of the best exhibits at St. Louis.

St. Louis.
4.—That the Lewis and Clark Exposition should express itself in favor of holding the St. Louis Fair in 1904.
5.—The postponement of the St. Louis Fair to 1904 would be beneficial to the Lewis and Clark.
6.—If the Lewis and Clark Exposition comes after the Louisian Pürchuse Exposition in 1904, it would be possible to get the foreign countries especially the position in 1904, it would be possible to get the foreign countries especially the Asiatic, to continue their exhibits in Portland.

7.—If the Lewis and Clark directors recommend to their delegation at Washington to vote favorably for the postponement of the St. Louis Fair to 1904, they can expect reciprocal interest on the part of the Senators and Congressmen of the Central West and of the Louisians Purchase.

share.

8.—If now the Lewis and Clark management and the Northwest influences heartily join in promoting the interests of the Louislans. Purchase Especition, and in favoring postponement if that is determined upon, they will be assured of the good will of the management of the Louislans. Purchase Especition; with all its complicated machinery and vast influences now at work. For example, the Louislans, Purchase Expection is spendouisiana Purchase Exposition is spending alone for foreign exploitation some greater amount on extra measures of home publicity. their exposition closes.

Mr. Barrett explained that the Louistana Exposition would close on December 1, which would leave five months for the transfer of exhibits to Portland.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr.
Barrett for file interest in the Lewis and Clark Centennial and he was requested to keep President Corbett informed of the Oriental attitude towards the Lewis and Clark Centennial. Mr. Barrett promised to do all in his power towards the welfare of the Lewis and Clark celebration.

Steelhead Salmon.

Fish Warden Van Dusen spent a couple of weeks recently on the Snake river and its tributaries securing information con-cerning the "steelhead" variety of sal-mon, which frequent those waters this time of year for spawning. In those sections they are generally known as the spring run of salmon. He states that he looks upon this fish as one of the most deshrable for the state at large of any other variety. They predominate any other variety. They predominate during the months of the year when a fish food is most desired, but are not found in such numbers to afford fisher-men lucrative employment.
