

FUNERAL OF DR. TALMAGE

Great Crowd Packed Church of Covenant.

(Journal Special Service.) WASHINGTON, April 16.—The great Church of the Covenant in this city was crowded to the doors last evening to witness the funeral ceremonies over the remains of the Rev. Dr. Thomas DeWitt Talmage.

The honorary pallbearers were Justices Harlan and Brewer of the Supreme Court of the United States, Senators Cullom of Illinois, Burrows of Michigan and Doolittle of Michigan, Representative William Alden Smith of Michigan, ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster, Rev. Drs. Louis Kloppsch of New York and Bittinger and Pike of this city, Brooklyn friends of the deceased minister, and B. H. Warner of this city.

A male quartet sang "Lead, Kindly Light, Dr. Talmage's favorite hymn; "Beyond the Sighing and the Weeping" and "It is Well With My Soul." Dr. Hamlin in his address pictured Dr. Talmage as one of the great clear-grown of the country.

THE BODY BURIED. NEW YORK, April 16.—The remains of the Rev. Dr. Talmage were interred in the family plot at Greenwood Cemetery this morning.

McMINNVILLE JOTTINGS. (Journal Special Service.) McMINNVILLE, April 15.—In conversation today with a number of farmers and fruitgrowers, it was learned that the prospect for a large fruit crop is very good.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE TONIGHT

The Secret Caucus Will Be Followed By Convention Ratification.

The caucus of the delegates to the Democratic County Convention will hold an adjourned meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at A. O. U. W. hall, corner of Second and Taylor streets, for the purpose of selecting names of Democrats to go on the Fusion ticket.

It is expected that the session will be a heated one. It will be secret. Immediately after the adjournment of the caucus, if this contingency occurs at all, there will be an adjourned meeting of the county convention proper, under its own name.

The nominations made in secret caucus will then be ratified and a straight Democratic ticket containing the name of a candidate for County Surveyor will be placed in the field with great eclat. This will be done in order that the election law may be technically obeyed. Otherwise the work of the county convention would be illegal.

John Van Zante will act as chairman and R. J. O'Brien as secretary. There is expected to be a number of spirited fights over some of the offices. It is claimed by the committee that there has been no slate formulated. This is true in regard to some of the offices, but for others, men have been selected by those who are shaping the destinies of the party.

The warmest contest is likely to come up over the nomination for Mayor. State Senator R. D. Inman seems to have dropped out of the fight, probably of his own volition. The principal candidates are John Lamont and W. E. Robertson of Corbett, Felling & Robertson. Friends of both contestants claim the greater strength, and both are working like beavers. The legislative ticket is probably slated as was outlined in The Journal of yesterday.

Some of the country delegates are dissatisfied with the apportionment of the road supervisors, but it is thought that the matter may be easily settled. The Fusion Republicans say they are willing to concede any or all of these jobs for the sake of harmony. The pay is only $2 per day, and the work is laborious. This does not appeal to the average politician of either party.

It is thought that there will be a full attendance of the delegates as proxies have been in great demand all day and have been hard to secure.

JOINT REPRESENTATIVE.

(Journal Special Service.)

OREGON CITY, April 16.—Chairman R. B. Beattie of the Democratic County Central Committee today called a meeting of the members of the committee to be held next Tuesday for the purpose of naming a candidate for Joint Representative of Clackamas and Multnomah Counties. Among those mentioned for the place are Sheriff J. J. Cooke, C. N. Wait of Canby, W. W. Jesse of Barlow and J. K. Gribble of Mackayburg. It has been arranged that the Multnomah County Central Committee will name the candidate for Joint Senator. State Senator George C. Brownell, who was renominated by the Republicans, will begin his campaign by an address at Mulino Saturday night.

Railways' New Schedule.

The new time schedule of the Portland-Vancouver division of the Portland Railway Company went into effect this morning.

The company now operates a through car to Vancouver, making no stops between East Davis street and Highland. A 42-minute service is operated on the through line. The Woodlawn locals are now being operated under a 12-minute schedule, the old schedule being 15 minutes during the day and evening.

Church Contract Let.

The contract for the erection of the new Mizpah Presbyterian Church, East Thirteenth and Powell streets, was let at the meeting of the trustees and building committee of the church. The contract was awarded to Thomas Muir, the lowest bidder, for $5,300. Work will be begun on the new structure at once, the old church building being moved to the adjoining lot.

MONTAVILLA.

A social dance will be given at Woodard's hall, Montavilla, Saturday, under the auspices of the Mt. Tabor band.

It is expected that a triangular fight will be made at the coming school election for the office of director. It is said that there are three strong candidates in the field and each are sure that they will win. Dr. William Deveny, M. W. Parsons and Mr. Barringer are the contestants.

Quite a number of Montavilla people are talking of annexation with Portland. The principal reason seems to be that the principal reason. The main reason is that the water supply of Montavilla is at present secured from Crystal Springs, on the side of Mt. Tabor. The water is the best that can be secured any place if care is taken of the supply.

Mr. Dixon, the carpenter, is finishing a new six-room cottage on Bradnard street. The house will have a concrete basement.

Mr. Henderson, the contractor and builder, has disposed of his new six-room residence to Mr. Freeman, the mail clerk.

There are about 25 new residences contemplated at Montavilla this summer. A number of the owners are already here and are at present camping out in tents.

WOODLAWN.

Mrs. Charles Ivey, who was in a local hospital for several weeks, is again at her home in Farrell's addition.

Officer Julius Kalleck is making extensive improvements around his property.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Woodlawn Methodist church gave a musical and literary entertainment at the M. E. church Friday evening. The affair was a success.

THOMAS TAGGART

For Chairman Democratic National Committee.

(Journal Special Service.) INDIANAPOLIS, April 16.—The impression prevails in political circles in Indianapolis and throughout the state that the selection of Thomas Taggart as a member of the executive committee of the national committee means that the party leaders have him in mind for Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, to succeed Senator Jones.

DOUBTFUL CHARGE.

Detective Ford has been working today on the case of F. C. Hughes of Oregon City. During his sober senses he purchased a ticket for Tacoma and had his baggage checked. This morning he complained that he had been "robbed" in the elegant saloon of both ticket and check.

Tony Arnaud, proprietor of the saloon in question, is regarded by the police as one of the "best" men in the business in the North End and they have no doubt but that Hughes lost his "stuff" at some other place while intoxicated. What they would steal a railway ticket and baggage check, anyway? Too easily traced.

CLOSING TAX ROLLS.

City Gets $3000 More This Year Than Last.

City Treasurer J. E. Werleip is today closing up the tax rolls under the Bancroft bonding act. The sum of $10,000 was transferred over from the general fund to cover deficiencies incurred under the old Bancroft law.

The payments this year will be more than $3000 in excess of those of last year, owing to the advantages of the act since the amendment as to the payments went into effect. The total amount collected last year was $13,000, compared to $16,000 this year.

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met in regular session at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. A new ordinance, providing for stone bicycle racks to be placed on the sidewalk curbs, was introduced.

A remonstrance from citizens of the Eighth ward against granting a liquor license for a resort proposed to be established on the hill near Brooklyn was referred to the liquor license committee.

A letter from the Lewis and Clark Civic Improvement Association asking the Council to prohibit the stretching of banners across the streets of the city, was received and was referred to the street committee.

A letter from the police department asking for an appropriation of $2500 for improvements to the patrol telegraph system, was read and referred.

Federated Trades Council.

A special meeting of the Federated Trades Council was held last night, but no business was transacted further than giving the excursion committee full power to act in the matter of fixing a date for the trades union annual excursion. Although not definitely settled, it is probable that a trip will be made to Salem this year on or about June 1.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO ARE IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell is the dean of the woman lecturers of the United States. She made her first appearance on the platform in 1840.

Miss Helen Gould has sent two expensive paintings to the Normal and Industrial College, at Greensboro, N. C., as souvenirs of her recent visit to the institution.

M. Savognan de Brassia, the Italian explorer in the service of the French government, is to be granted an annual pension of 10,000 francs—a reward for 20 years' service.

Ho Yow, the Chinese consul at San Francisco, denies that he has usurped the imperial yellow for his racing colors, and explains that the only flag displayed on the occasion of a victory for his stable bore a dragon with four toes, not one with five toes.

Patrolman John M. Pennington of the Boston "Forces" has retired on a pension of $600 a year, after a service of 54 years. He was born in 1822.

Charles Howe, a farmer near Champlain, Ill., reasoned that the oat crop would be small. He mortgaged his farm, went to Chicago with $25,000, speculated in oats, and went back to Champlain with $10,000. He and his family are going to Europe.

Charles Felton Fildes, who wrote "Blunderbuss" and "Quincy Adams Sawyer," is an inventor as well as a novelist. During his connection with the Massachusetts bureau of labor statistics he devised several machines for the mechanical tabulation of figures, many of which have been used by the census bureau in compiling its returns.

Dr. Julius Sewer of Providence, R. I., has been chosen to fill the chair of Old Testament language and literature, of Oberlin Theological Seminary.

Gilbert Parker, the novelist and member of Parliament, says he thinks Fifth Avenue, New York, the most beautiful street in the world, next to the Champs Elysees, Paris.

Rev. Arthur Chilson, one of the prominent ministers of the Friends denomination of Iowa, has just started for East Africa, where he will establish a mission for the Friends' church of the state of Iowa.

Hints to Women ONE THING AT A TIME. There are women who wear beads and braid hair at the same time, or half-a-dozen other things demanding a focus of attention. This is a process of breaking down and certain disintegration. A great man has said: "If you start to tie your shoe, his your shoe. Think of nothing else but that little task." It is utterly impossible to concentrate thought upon two or more things. This statement will be denied by housekeepers, but please look at the average housekeeper. What is she but a bundle of nerves. "Tired to death" and "too busy to take any comfort" from week's end to week's end. "Let your moderation be known to all men." Moderation pays. When it is dictated by intelligence it rises into the realms of the highest wisdom and the purest usefulness.

ETIQUETTE OF CORRESPONDENCE. There is an etiquette about everything, even about the way a woman ought to write her note. Considering all things, it is perhaps as well that woman should read, mark and inwardly digest the laws that ought to rule her conduct when she "takes up the pen." Two things, above all others, betray the inelegant or unaccustomed letter writer. If she be guilty of neglecting the margin at each side of the page, or if she so far forgets her precepts as to add a P. S., she is forever doomed. Society is exact in details, and society declares no omission or commission to be the unpardonable sin. The note, to be correct, must be written upon paper of medium size, preferably cream white, and must be clear and distinct. The monogram is stamped on the paper, or the crest if one has the right. When the writer has borne all these facts in mind, and has signed her unabbreviated name, she may rest content.

GROWING WATER LILIES. That pure and lovely blossom, the water lily, may be grown in other places besides lakes and ponds and those who desire their jewels and their children as a matter of course. They are unconscious of their veil and their gloves, and they expect every one else to be equally so. If they see an intimate wearing a handsome gown they refer to it admiringly, but they also preface their comment with an apology. Their differences with their husbands are not aired, neither the domestic upheavals caused by the desertion of the cook on wash morning.

TO THE MANNER BORN. The best bred women do not fuss. They take their gowns and their furbelure, their jewels and their children as a matter of course. They are unconscious of their veil and their gloves, and they expect every one else to be equally so. If they see an intimate wearing a handsome gown they refer to it admiringly, but they also preface their comment with an apology. Their differences with their husbands are not aired, neither the domestic upheavals caused by the desertion of the cook on wash morning.

STRANGE, BUT TRUE. The Japanese never sleep with the head to the north. This is because the dead in Japan are always buried with the head in that position. In the sleeping-rooms of many of the private houses and hotels a diagram of the points of the compass is posted upon the ceiling for the convenience of guests.

JUST TO PASS TIME AWAY. HE GOT THE BLAME. "Who is the responsible man in this firm?" asked the brusque visitor. "I don't know who the responsible party is," answered the sad, cynical office boy. "But I am the one who is always to blame."

LARCENY BY BAILEE. Magnus Bowman was arrested today on a charge of the larceny by bailee of $80. The charge is preferred by R. Mullins, who alleges that Bowman obtained from him the sum named under the false pretense of clinching a bargain for the purchase of Henry's confederate and trill store, West Park and Washington streets. It is a badly mixed up affair, but Judge Cameron will try and get to the bottom of it tomorrow afternoon. In default of bonds, Bowman is in jail.
