GRANTS PASS. (Journal Special Service.) GRANTS PASS, July 29.—There are more mining men and capitalists in this section now than ever before in the history of the Josephine mining district.

PENDLETON. (Journal Special Service.) PENDLETON, July 29.—An aggregation calling itself the "Bloomer Girls" baseball team, composed of six women and three men, played the Pendleton aggregation last night by lamp light.

A SEA MONSTER. (Journal Special Service.) MARSHFIELD, July 29.—Captain John Bergman, of the Umpqua Lifesaving Station, captured a fish in the Umpqua River last week, says the Marshfield Sun.

Contest of Young Women for Elks' Carnival. EXCURSION TONIGHT. Five Hundred Dollars Will Be Given to the Lucky Girl.

(Journal Special Service.) OREGON CITY, July 29.—County School Superintendent J. C. Zinsler yesterday announced that the regular county examination for state and county papers would take place in this city August 13 to 16 inclusive.

The flattering success that has attended those who have gone down deep in the development of their quartz properties has proven conclusively that the mines and ledges of this section are permanent and will bear deep sinking.

While the lights were bad and none of the players could see the ball, yet the local aggregation had to throw off and make monkeys of themselves to even prolong the game.

The sea monster was noticed swimming in the river, with a portion of its fin projecting above the surface, by one of the station's crew, who informed Captain Bergman.

In the contest for Queen of the Elks' carnival five candidates have been accepted, and the polling of votes at carnival headquarters, Seventh and Stark streets, will begin tomorrow morning.
