

POLITICS IN NEW JERSEY

A Hot Contest Is Probable in the Sixth Congressional District Today.

(Journal Special Service.) PASADENA, N. J., July 31.—The Republican Congressional convention of the Sixth district is in session here today with a full attendance of delegates from Bergen, Passaic and Sussex, the three counties comprised in the district under the new apportionment. There are several Republican candidates, who are opposed to Congressman James F. Stewart, the present incumbent, notably William M. Johnson, a prominent State Senator and Assistant Postmaster-General in McKinley's Cabinet; W. C. Breckenridge, state committeeman from the district; William Barbour and Sheffield Phelps, son of the late William Walter Phelps. While the combination against Stewart is strong and there are other elements in the field against him, the indications point to his re-election, though not without a lively contest.

HELD HER DEAR

John James' Munificent Reward for His Wife.

(Journal Special Service.) NEW YORK, July 31.—This notice is posted up in front of John A. James' little furniture store at 680 Gates avenue, Brooklyn: LOST—Ten cents' reward for information that will lead to the location of my wife. She has left me. Let her go, Gallagher.

James, who is 61 years old, and saw active service on the frontiers in the United States Army, says that while he was under arrest for intoxication his wife deserted him, carrying off some of his savings and a portion of the stock of the store.

NEGRO CONGRESS.

Five Thousand Africans to Gather at Atlanta.

(Journal Special Service.) ATLANTA, Ga., July 31.—Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, secretary of the Negro Young People's Christian and Educational Congress, is in receipt of at least 5000 invitations to the meeting of the congress to be held here next week. The delegates will come from all sections of the country and will represent all religious denominations and all walks of life. The chief object of the gathering, which is the first of its kind, is to ascertain the true moral, intellectual and spiritual condition among the colored people in all parts of a country and to inspire and stimulate aggressive Christian work among the young people and in the homes among the children. Prominent among those interested in the movement are J. Garfield Penn, Booker T. Washington, Bishop W. J. Gaines, Bishop B. W. Arnett, Bishop Walters and Bishop Clinton.

LIFE SAVERS

Discuss Their Vocation at Nantes, France.

(Journal Special Service.) PARIS, July 31.—A dispatch from Nantes says that several representatives of America are attending the international congress of lifesaving, preservation of health and maritime security, which opened in that city today under the auspices of the Society of Lifesavers of Brittany. The congress will be considering lifesaving in water and from fire, plotting in fog, lifesaving on board steamships, the moral and physical development of sailors and fishermen, and several kindred subjects.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

The Slogan of a New Political Party in Missouri.

(Journal Special Service.) ST. LOUIS, July 31.—Followers of the Public Ownership party, the chief promoter of which is Lee Meriwether, the labor leader of this city, met in conference today to discuss plans for perfecting a thorough state organization and adopting a platform of principles. The new party is an off-shoot of the Allied party which was organized by Meriwether and others last year at Kansas City. It is supposed to interest in the movement all voters who believe in direct legislation and public ownership. They carry out the principles of the Missouri State Federation of Labor.

LONE STAR REPUBLICANS.

(Journal Special Service.) WACO, Tex., July 31.—In compliance with the call of C. A. Lyon, chairman of the state executive committee, the members of the committee met in Waco today to discuss the outlook for the party and to fix upon a date and place for holding the state convention. Waco, Dallas and several other cities are under consideration as a place for the convention.

Gertrude Myren, New York's celebrated clairvoyant, is now located at room 607, Lighthouse building, corner Yamhill and Fifth streets.

THE MARKETS.

The big potato crop has had much to do with the lowering of the prices, and the supply seems to be in excess of the demand. There is a big invoice of vegetables of all kinds and the housewife is taking advantage of the generally reasonable prices. There were no important changes in quotations today.
