

SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKES

LOS ALAMOS, Aug. 1.—Huddled around camp fires or wrapped in blankets and camped under trees, the few remaining residents of Los Alamos spent the night in sleepless terror, awaiting the coming dawn. Not a house in the town was occupied during the night, the people living in the open and afraid to return to their homes. The terror inspired by the rumbling and trembling was increased by the sound of falling ruins. The majority of persons of the town left yesterday, and today witnessed the departure of most of the balance, every available conveyance being made use of, and the trains carrying many. A special train from San Louis Obispo carried away a great crowd last evening, and a number more left for Santa Barbara on the 11 o'clock train this morning.

MORE EARTHQUAKES.
A series of severe shocks occurred at 7:30 last night, followed by slighter ones up to 2 this morning, when the tremors ceased, to be renewed again at 9 a. m. morning, when two severe jolts were felt. The walls of the buildings destroyed yesterday and left still standing were thrown down last night. Practically all the damage possible has been done.

A BRAVE GIRL.
SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 1.—A telephone message at 10 this morning from Miss Leslie, the operator at Los Alamos, who is almost the only woman left in town, and who bravely remained at her post throughout the disaster when her family left the place, states that three distinct shocks were followed by a severe tremor at 7:30 last night, and that two sharp shocks within a few minutes of each other occurred at 9 this morning. Of a population of over 500 less than 20 remained through the night. Everybody is badly scared and are making preparations to leave. Every few minutes she has been obliged to leave the office and flee into the streets for fear the walls would collapse.

Several water tanks in the outside country that remained standing were demolished last night. The home of Juan Carreaga, upon whose property the Great Western union oil field is, was badly damaged. It is a large frame house. It was shaken completely off its foundation, the windows broken and the house badly twisted. The loss will be over $2000. Many reports of big land slides in the mountains are coming in. The John Bell barn, one mile from town, was badly damaged at 9 o'clock this morning. All during the night people left in wagons, and at 9 o'clock a six-horse hay wagon took out 20 women and children. This morning many of the business men and merchants left, and six families started for Santa Barbara in a rig. It was very hot all night, and at 6 this morning the thermometer stood at 77. It is very sultry. Rumbling noises underground can be heard continually, and many fear an eruption.

GLOUCESTER FISHERMEN

Have Struck for Higher Prices the First in the History of the Banks.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
GLOUCESTER, Mass., Aug. 1.—The first labor strike in the history of the fish business, which has been pursued here since 1823, is on. A thousand men and women went out last night.

ANOTHER DISASTER

Many Miners Entombed in a Coal Mine in New South Wales.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 1.—Rescuing parties are hard at work at Moubi Kemble colliery at Wollangong, N. S. W., where it is feared 127 miners have lost their lives by an explosion of gas. Thus far 27 bodies have been recovered. One hundred and forty-nine men and boys were taken out alive. The New South Wales Parliament today adjourned as a mark of sympathy for the bereaved families.

MORE DEAD RECOVERED.
SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 1.—Forty more bodies were recovered this morning, placing the number of known dead at 67.

LONG SWIM FOR TRIAL

Holbein Fails to Cross English Channel.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
LONDON, Aug. 1.—In the Bow-street Police Court today Colonel Arthur Lynch, the Irish member of Parliament charged with treason, was committed for trial.

Will Make Another Attempt to Accomplish the Feat on August 12.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
DOVER, Aug. 1.—Holbein, the long-distance swimmer, who left Cape Gris Nez last night in an attempt to swim the English Channel, was forced to leave the water at 6 o'clock this morning, eight miles from Dover, on account of the strong tide. He had covered 30 miles in 12 hours and 22 minutes. He will renew the attempt on August 12th.

BLOOD SPILLED

Banfield-Veysey Teamster Goes on Wild Rampage.

A man by the name of Cronck, one of the non-union drivers for the Banfield-Veysey Company, imbibed so freely yesterday that he was unable to navigate with any degree of accuracy. He did not permit a little "load" like this, however, to interfere with business. His wagon was also loaded, and he started out heroically, although tottering, to deliver slabwood to the company's patrons.

He was on the East Side where the streets are not paved with asphalt or carbolinum asphaltum. They were just common, every-day Portland streets with frequent chuck holes here, there and everywhere. A wheel dropped in to explore one of these, and Cronck also dropped. He fell from his high pedestal with a thud, but aside from being "scabbed" he escaped uninjured.

His "load" was still heavy, and he concluded that he did not want to work. He directed his uncertain steps to Banfield's branch office at the mill, of the Inman-Paulson Company. Arriving there he explained between siccoughs what had happened and intimated that his salary ought to be increased. The company did not see it in that way and a heated colloquy ensued. Blows were exchanged and exposures of personal character were made by the principals to the fray. Many other things were done and said which are not printable, but the upshot of the whole matter was that Cronck was paid off and forcibly ejected from the premises after much bad blood had been spilled.

Those who witnessed the fight said that it was a "hot tamale," and was no fake affair.

BOER LYNCH COMMITTED

in Bow Street Court.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
LONDON, Aug. 1.—In the Bow-street Police Court today Colonel Arthur Lynch, the Irish member of Parliament charged with treason, was committed for trial.

MILES GOES

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—According to excellent authority, it has been determined by the President that Major General Young will succeed General Miles in command of the army when that officer retires for age in August, 1902. For political reasons Miles will be allowed to remain on the active list until his statutory retirement, although he is practically a figurehead so far as the present administration is concerned. Young will serve but five months as commanding general when he will reach the age limit, and upon his retirement it is the plan to appoint Major General Corbin, the present adjutant general, Gen. W. C. Carter is slated to succeed the latter as adjutant general.

DEADLY FLOODS

Have Cost Many Lives Throughout the Star State.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 1.—To date 14 lives are known to have been lost by the floods in various parts of the state. The loss to the Government by the washing away of part of the state fish hatchery at San Marcos will reach $50,000.

The report from Hillsboro, Texas, that 500 Mexican wood choppers have been drowned 50 miles south of Dallas, has not been confirmed and is not credited.

LOOKS BETTER TODAY.
DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 1.—Clear hot weather is reported today all over Texas. It now looks as though the floods were over. The cotton crop will probably be benefited by the change.

WILL DOWN THE STRIKERS

Operators Have a Scheme—All Quiet at Shenandoah.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—According to stories in circulation here today, the coal operators have agreed upon a plan for breaking the anthracite strike by September 1.

QUIET IN SHENANDOAH.
(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
SHENANDOAH, Aug. 1.—Perfect quiet prevails here today, and no further outbreak is expected. The 1500 members of the National Guard who were called out yesterday are sauntering about the country as if on a vacation trip. Picket lines and sentries are posted but have nothing to do, for the strikers have determined hereafter to refrain from any participation in disturbances. The strike leaders are working to have the Governor soon withdraw the soldiers.

The following telegram has been sent to Governor Stone.

"We, the undersigned officials of the Ninth District Miners' Union, believe that the request made of you to send troops to Shenandoah was based upon exaggerations; and as we are confirmed in this belief, we respectfully request you to send a personal representative into this town to investigate the conditions, and after such investigation believe that you will learn that the presence of troops in this town is unnecessary, and that the order should be revoked.

TO SERVE INJUNCTION.
(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 1.—The Force station that deputy marshals left here this morning for New River to perform service of Judge Keller's injunction issued on Thursday.

MITCHELL ON THE RIOTS.
(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 1.—President Mitchell, of the United Mineworkers of America, has issued the following statement on the recent riots at Shenandoah, Pa.:

"Complete and authentic reports furnished by national officers of our organization, located at Shenandoah, show that the story of the riot at Shenandoah was greatly exaggerated, and that the facts are much distorted. It develops that no one was killed or fatally injured, and that the entire trouble might have been averted had the deputies kept cool and used greater discretion. While I greatly deprecate acts of lawlessness by any one, particularly by those on strike, I am naturally pleased to learn that the trouble is not as serious as first reported. I have repeatedly warned the strikers that any violation of law on their part would militate against themselves alone, and I am hopeful that there will not be a repetition of trouble of this character."

TRACY'S LATEST

He Crosses the Columbia Twenty Miles South of Wenatchee, Wash.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
SEATTLE, Aug. 1.—Tracy held up the ferryman at Jenkin's Ferry at midnight last night. The man refused to take him across the Columbia until daylight, when they crossed, Tracy holding guard over him. An hour before he held up a rancher and took $30, 20 miles south of Wenatchee.

HIS FIRST APPEARANCE.
WENATCHEE, Wash., Aug. 1.—Harry Tracy, the notorious Oregon outlaw, has turned up again after an absence from public view of about a week. The latest escapade of the desperado was the holding up of W. A. Sanders and S. J. McElowney on their ranch six miles down the Columbia River from Wenatchee.

About 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning he appeared there, having just come out of the Cascade mountains. He was armed with a Winchester rifle and two revolvers, and had three horses one of which he rode. When he appeared at the ranch he announced who he was and demanded dinner. McElowney's wife at once prepared a meal and the outlaw remained at the ranch all day and ate two more meals. During this time he gave the family a full account of his exploits from the time of his leaving Salem, and told of the killing of Merrill with great gusto. "Merrill was a coward," he said. "I had to get rid of him or he would have both been captured."

When night drew on he forced McElowney to get him two fresh horses and ordered him to be his guide to a ferry some miles down the Columbia. At this Mrs. McElowney began to cry and the outlaw said her husband might stay where he was, and started off alone, after threatening to return and kill every soul about the place if any hint of his having been there were sent out.

MORGAN RETIRING

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Wall street gossip, in discussing the report that J. Pierpont Morgan is to retire from the management of his vast interests, owing to the state of his health, mention George W. Perkins as his successor. Perkins is only 40 years old, and two years ago he was offered a salary of $300,000 a year to become Morgan's right-hand man. He planned the Northern Securities Company, and conducted many other deals of similar magnitude.

ELIOT RAISES A NEW QUESTION

Can the Park Blocks Be Used for Carnival Purposes?

At a meeting of the Park Commission today Rev. T. L. Elliot, a member of the commission, raised the question of the commission's authority to grant the Order of Elks the privilege of using the park blocks on Seventh street for carnival purposes. At first it was determined that the matter had progressed too far for consideration, but finally the question was referred to a committee composed of General Beebe, Rufus Mallory and the Mayor. This committee will investigate the matter and report at a meeting to be held in a few days.

Two offers of deer for the parks were rejected, as the city has enough of this stock now.

The monthly payroll was approved, and claims aggregating $32.30 for supplies were ordered paid. Estimates of $985 for labor, and $258.85 for supplies for August were passed.

G. N. MAKES CHANGES

Transfers and Promotions in the Portland Ticket Office.

A number of changes went into effect this morning in the city ticket and freight office of the Great Northern Railway Company in Portland. E. A. Manley, who for a year past has been the assistant ticket agent, has been transferred to the Great Northern city ticket office at Spokane, in the same capacity.

J. Sherman Taylor, who has been in the office here for the past five years as one of the stenographers and assistant freight rate clerk, Stewart Harder succeeds Mr. Taylor here in his former position. Mr. Manley came to Portland from the Great Northern's office in Tacoma.

A HAPPY TIME

Woodstock people had a most delightful time at their dramatic entertainment last evening. Over 250 attended the performance of "Lend Me Five Shillings," which was well rendered, and to hear Miss Jessie McConnell, noted everywhere for the sweetness of her voice, and the charming manner in which she entertains her audience.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Man Caught in Machinery and Badly Injured at Power House.

J. W. Lawrence, an employe of the City & Suburban Railway Company, was caught on a shaft at the East Side power house and seriously injured. But for the tearing of his clothing he would have been killed. His right arm was broken and his face and head badly cut. He is at the Good Samaritan hospital.

BALDWIN RETURNS

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
LONDON, Aug. 1.—A dispatch from Honningsvag, Norway, reports the arrival there of Arctic Explorer Baldwin who said he had been baffled but not beaten. His year's work was successful, he said, in establishing enormous depots of condensed food, affording a chance for a Polar dash in 1903. The destruction of sledges and the depletion of food for the ponies and dogs compelled his return. He discovered Nansen's but recovering the original documents there. The steamer America will remain at Tromsø a week making repairs.

TEDDY PICNICS

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 1.—The President, Mrs. Roosevelt and their children, with lunch baskets, went to the woods this morning to picnic. No guests are expected today. The yacht Mayflower has sailed for Gardiner's Bay for target practice. The President has announced that he will investigate the cause of the desertions from the vessel. The men claim they are given green liver and mildewed bread to eat. The captain is said to be a martinet of the worst type.
