CEREDO FIREBUGS

A Dastardly Attempt to Burn a Whole Family.

(Journal Special Service.)

KENOVIA, W. Va., Aug. 1.—Firebugs at Ceredo, near here, attempted to incinerate the family of A. A. Wilson, a Norfolk & Western engineer early this morning. The family barely escaped with their lives. The fine residence was completely destroyed, together with $500 in currency, 500 worth of jewelry and many valuable papers. Residences and a church near by were saved with difficulty.

LOCAL MARKETS.

The advent of the first car of new wheat from the Walla Walla country during the past week finds the local exporters pretty well clear of last season's crop. Receipts are light so far, but the season is young yet, and the past month ending yesterday saw the attempts and failures of several different combinations to control the Eastern market.

California fruits are becoming a glut on the market. Watermelons are of an inferior quality, and cantaloupes find slow sale.

Jobbers of groceries, hardware and kindred lines report business improved as contrasted with the same date a year ago.

Teas—The market rules strong at this time but only a moderate quantity is being imported the first and second crops having already been handled by the local jobbers. The third crop comes in during the present month and prospects are that the prevailing firm conditions will continue. Some grades are quoted at from 10 to 15 per cent to 30 and 40 per cent higher than a year ago, owing to the general clean-up last spring.

Local quotations at date, Oulong, different grades, 25 to 65 cents; Gunpowder, 26, 32 to 35 cents; English Breakfast, different grades, 11 to 65 cents; Spider Legs, uncolored Japan, 28 to 60 cents; Green Japan, very scarce, 28 to 60 cents.

PORTLANDER'S ADVANCEMENT

Seven years ago Herbert C. Hoover, of Newberg, Or., was graduated from Stanford University. Now he is receiving an annual salary of $25,000. Yesterday he passed through Portland to San Francisco, where he will take passage for London. He was accompanied by his brother, T. J. Hoover, of San Francisco.

After leaving Stanford, Mr. Hoover, who is one of the brightest young mining engineers, went to Australia in the interest of the great London mining firm of Bewick, Moreing & Company. From there he was transferred to Northern China to look after the firm's coal deposits. He was soon appointed consulting engineer to the Director-General of Mines of the Provinces of Johol and Chi Li. He afterwards resigned from the duty he was performing for the Chinese Government.

He organized, as representative of the London firm, a new company, comprising both Chinese and foreign stockholders. Within two year's time the property advanced to a valuation of $5,000,000 and 80 per cent above par is the figure at which the stock is quoted. Mr. Hoover's efforts were greatly appreciated and he was given a junior partnership.

COURT PROCEDURE

Police Fines Will Hereafter Be Deducted From Bail Deposits.

In the future, Police Judge Hogue will enforce the rule enacted in the last City charter which provides that in case of an arrest and release on bail, the bailsmen become responsible for whatever fine may be imposed upon the prisoner after conviction heretofore it has been optional with a person fined to either pay the same or serve time. In the latter case the bail was refunded to the party depositing it. Under the new procedure if a prisoner who has been out on bail pending trial is fined, the sum is deducted from the bail and the prisoner is left without the choice of serving time to liquidate the fine.

SHIELDS' AMATEUR NIGHT.

Tonight is "amateur night" at Shields' Park. This announcement should draw a large attendance of itself, even if it were not for the regular program. Mr. Shields has promised a week's engagement to the novice who can give a good act tonight.

Eight numbers have heretofore been the limit of the usual program, but next week the bill will contain four numbers, exclusive of the orchestral selections. Among the attractions to delight the patrons of this popular open-air resort may be named the Lawrences, Demontrello, the sensational barrel-jumper, Dorothy Dene, the Lamonts and others equally as good.

BUILDING MATTERS.

The Ladd estate has secured a permit for $4000 improvements at the southwest corner of Second and Stark.

W. H. Fayle has taken out a building permit for the erection of a $2600 residence on East Sixteenth street, between East Yamhill and East Taylor.

P. A. Worthington will erect a $1200 home on East Davis between East Twenty-eighth and East Twenty-ninth streets.

Isaac Hill has secured permission to construct a $2000 dwelling on Schuyler, between Nineteenth and Twenty-first streets.

A STRANGE CASE.

(Journal Special Service.)

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 1.—An investigation by the Coroner into the death of Mrs. Celia M. Census of Berlin.

According to the new census of Berlin, Germany, the population of that city is 1,901,567, an increase of only 12,875 during the past year, as against 42,593 in the preceding year. The falling off in the rate of increase is attributed to the movement of the inhabitants to new suburbs made accessible by electric traction.
