

BANDIT KILLED IN TRAIN ROBBERY

Illinois Train Held Up and $20,000 Stolen—Posse in Pursuit.

(Scripps-McRae News Association.)
SAVANNAH, Ill., Aug. 6.—From $18,000 to $20,000 in money, and one life lost, represent the results of a hold-up of the Burlington limited express at Marcus, a big station eight miles from here at midnight.

The dead man was one of the bandits, apparently a railroad man, who was killed by Adams Express Messenger Byle, who unloaded his pistol at the retreating band after the robbery had been completed.

A posse of 55 is close upon the heels of the remaining five bandits and a battle is anticipated.

The train passed here at 11 o'clock.

When it reached Longley River bottoms near Marcus, Engineer Emerson responded to torpedo signals by stopping the train. As he did so he was "covered" by two masked men while others cut the engine and express car from the train. These were taken up the road. The express car was dynamited and the safes demolished, and everything of value placed in sacks.

The robbers mounted horses and started away at a gallop when Byle opened fire. One was seen to reel but was sustained by comrades for a while. He was finally left by the roadside, dead. The body was found at daylight by the posse.

All the desperadoes are believed to be railroad men.

FAMILY TROUBLE

Musician in Police Court for Threatening His Wife.

S. W. Driscoll, a musician, was before Judge Hogue yesterday afternoon charged with threatening to take the life of his wife. The evidence showed that Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll did not dwell in harmony and that the bone of contention between them was the possession of their child. Driscoll denied that he had threatened to murder the woman. He was put under $100 bonds to keep the peace.

MITCHELL PLEASED TO BE HOME

Senator John H. Mitchell reached Portland yesterday afternoon. The Senator is chairman of a sub-committee of the Senatorial committee appointed to look into Hawaiian affairs generally and the matter of claims for damages arising from the recent Honolulu fire and plague. Mr. Mitchell will remain in Portland three weeks, after which he will sail from San Francisco to Hawaii, August 25, where the matter in hand will employ and out any alluring encouragement that Uncle Sam would help to clean up any financial shortage, as was done in the case of other expositions.

Inasmuch as the Republicans themselves are not harmonious in the matter of Cuban reciprocity, the question is by no means settled, but Mr. Mitchell believes that the party will unite on the matter soon and make a reciprocal treaty with Cuba possible.

Perhaps the most interesting question the time of the committee for possibly a month. Claims for damage against the Government arising out of the fire are placed at $2,000,000.

It is the Senator's opinion that Democratic chances for success this fall are not as rosy-hued as they might be.

On the question as to whether Seattle would be able to exert sufficient influence to secure the removal of the Vancouver Barracks to that city, the Senator said he knew nothing of any such move. He said that when the rumor was sprung up last March, the War Department emphatically denied it.

The Senator was disappointed that the matter of selection of a site for the Lewis and Clark Exposition had been delayed so long. He had no idea how much money Congress might be willing to appropriate to assist the enterprise, and said that that body was becoming fatigued with the numerous requests to assist enterprises of this sort, which is undoubtedly true. In case the Exposition should come out short on funds, he did on which Senator Mitchell expressed himself—at least to Oregonians—as the ever-present one of the Columbia River. He believes in the efficacy of a dredge at the mouth of the river, but does not think that an extension of the jetty will afford permanent relief. The sands which the west winds of winter pile into the channel at the river's mouth, could, he thought, be effectually cleared away with the dredge, but then, after all, the opinion of the Government engineers should settle that point.

Oregon should appreciate the splendid efforts made by Representative Tongue and also Senator Turner of Washington, who did yeoman service in assisting the Oregon delegation in securing the Columbia River appropriations. Mr. Mitchell says it was very difficult to get $5,000,000 down for the Columbia River bar, and $14,000,000 for the Dulles canal project.

No opinion as to prospective legislation for Oregon was expressed by Senator Mitchell.

ELKS' LOVING CUP.

Contest Is Proving Very Popular For The Journal Trophy.

Rumors are coming to The Journal that the regions of friends of the various Elks are working "on the quiet" to secure as many votes as possible for their favorite in The Journal's great contest.

The handsome silver loving cup to be awarded by The Journal to the most popular Elk in either Washington or Oregon, is on exhibition in the windows of Feidenheimer, the well-known jeweler, at the corner of Third and Washington.

It is a beautiful trophy, and attracts attention to itself, even though it is surrounded by other beautiful objects.

Now is the time to get your votes together. Read the "conditions" governing the contest. They are very easy to comply with. The friends of the Elks "had better hurry" for the time is limited and The Journal hopes to see a large number of votes picked up.

This fact alone will establish the stand taken by this paper that the Order of Elks is a deservedly popular one.

MT. TABOR VAUDEVILLE.

The vaudeville performances at Mt. Tabor Park continue with increasing interest. Large crowds assemble each evening to enjoy the novelties and unique attractions.

DeGanna has won admiration for his wonderful skill in performing the double high-wire act, while Prof. Jack Heburn, the trick bicyclist, makes one think of something superhuman when noticing the marvelous control he exerts over his machine. He has mastered all the old tricks and has several new ones of his own invention which do not fail to bring out rounds of applause.

The slack-wire artist is a professional in his line and shows that he has expended much of his time in careful training. The Fitzgerald Sisters, Del Hartino, Smith Brothers, and George Penrose, are important features of the entertainment.

Prof. Hunt's dog and animal show and the miniature railway, the smallest in the world, are something worth seeing. Prof. Hunt has certainly demonstrated the latent abilities of the dumb animals.

$600 Fire in Albina.
A fire in another ice house, this time on Railroad and Knight street, Lower Albina, took up the attention of the fire department about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ice house was an old structure and made a hot fire, causing over $600 worth of damage to Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, the owner, to John Everson's saloon and to the two cottages adjoining.

Sunnyside.
In the Sunnyside district things in general are quiet as a result of so many of the inhabitants being away on their summer's vacation; however, it is gratifying to know that work is progressing rapidly on the addition to the Sunnyside public school building. For a number of years the necessity of a larger building has been felt but no decided action was taken until this spring. When the addition is completed it will more than double the former capacity of the building, and as an increased attendance is expected several new teachers will be installed this fall. Stevenson and Company, contracting plumbers, have about completed their work and work on plastering the building will soon commence.

Every day people are out looking for location for homes and they are coming from various states.

Among the recent purchasers are Mr. Mills of Brownsville, Wooten Mills, Mr. Mohr, salesman of Olds, Workman; Thos. Kearnes, Mrs. Reynolds of Clackamas County, E. Rayburn, of Clatsop, formerly of Iowa; Mr. Powers, formerly of Nebraska; E. H. Darnell, prominent educator of Washington. These new buyers bought from one to 10 acres and intend building. Many already have been building.

Mrs. M. Grey is putting up five new residences south of Church.

F. Coffman is remodeling a cottage near his own residence.

Mr. Elliot and family, newcomers from the East, are residing a little northwest of Station.

Sellwood.
Albert Grossbeck is erecting a new cottage which he will rent when completed. Charles T. Steinlein, the popular Sellwood mailcarrier, left a few days ago for an outing at Yaquina Bay. He was accompanied by his family.

The Sellwood schoolhouse has been raised from its foundation by means of jackscrews and moved a few feet south to give room for the new addition which is to be added. The small L, which projected has been cut off from the main structure, sold for a small sum and moved to a side street. The new addition will contain five rooms and the contract for the carpenter work was let several weeks ago to Peter Hobkirk. Work has not been commenced on the new structure pending the movement of the building, but as that part of the work will soon be completed it is thought that construction will be pushed ahead. The new rooms will not be ready for occupancy by the time the fall session commences, but as rapid progress as possible will be made.

EAST SIDE BRIEFS.
Subscriptions to the Soldiers' Monument Fund are coming in right along. Between $1500 and $2000 has already been raised.

Mt. Scott Notes.
One of the most enterprising suburbs of Portland will be found at the terminus of the Mt. Scott line of the City & Suburban Railway. It is situated highly, and commanding fine view, water unsurpassed, a flourishing church, a fine school in a well-kept schoolhouse, a fine system of water-works going up by the up-to-date grocer and Postmaster, Frank Coffman, a chop mill, has scales and steam saw. What more is necessary.

In an interview with O. R. Addison a leading capitalist residing at Mt. Scott, it is learned that real estate deals are

W. W. ALDRICH DEAD OF CANCER
S. W. Aldrich, for a number of years a prominent contractor and for a time proprietor of the Aldrich drug store on Sixth and Washington streets, died at Good Samaritan hospital yesterday from cancer of the stomach. His ailment began 15 years ago but his condition was not deemed serious until a short time ago, but in a few days he grew so much worse that he was sent to the hospital where he could receive the best of attention.

Mr. Aldrich had contracts for excavation work on the City Park reservoir in 1893, and has done much tunnel work for the O. R. & N. Company in the Blue Mountains and for the Southern Pacific Company in California.

He was 44 years old and resided at 133 St. Clair street. He leaves a widow and two children—Dora, aged 16, and Walter, aged 14. The time of the funeral has not been set, but the service will be conducted by Rev. J. F. Gormley, of the First Christian Church, and participated in by the Masonic, Workmen and Elks. Mr. Aldrich requested that his body be cremated. At one time he carried considerable life insurance, but at the time of his death the amount he held in the orders was all that he had.
