YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Portland, 7; Spokane, 3.
Seattle, 9; Tacoma, 1.
Helena, 7; Butte, 4.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Club	Won	Lost	P.C.
Seattle	47	30	.613
Butte	42	32	.568
Portland	39	37	.513
Helena	35	39	.473
Spokane	35	45	.438
Tacoma	31	45	.408

The game of yesterday was almost an exact repetition of the game of the previous day. The striped socks got all that was coming to them in the third inning, and during the balance of the game scored only eleven.

But for the fierce collection of seven runs in one bunch Spokane would have won out, as the big-brassers played good and consistent ball.

Before the game opened Manager Grim cast his optics over the bleachers, and not seeing Hoodoo Caesar, stated the game was a cinch for his team.

The first two innings were played with plenty of ginger, and the grand stand was shouting itself hoarse. Five big innings were up on the tally board.

At this juncture appeared Julius Caesar, with his somber face and glacial hat. Manager Grim observed him and said things under his breath, which would have made the scion of an illustrious name grow pale if he had heard them.

By some strange freak of fate, the alleged hoodoo had no more than located himself when Portland, without any apparent license, began to pile up runs, and did not stop until they had seven to their credit.

First inning—McLaughlin made a three-bag hit. Ferris went out on first. Reitz sent fly to Engle, who delivered the ball to third and caught McLaughlin.

Pfeister struck out Muller and Anderson, while Von Buren died on a pop to first.

Second inning—Eley went out on a foul catch. Donahue hit to Harris, who juggled the ball. The winner tried to steal second and was caught by a throw from the catcher to second. McKevitt went out on a fly to center field.

Zeigler went out on a fly to center field. Weed struck a grounder and made first base. Harris went out on a fly to McLaughlin. Delsel was given a base on balls, and while Shea was trying to the bat Weed fell down while going to steal third.

Third inning—Howells sent a fly to Zeigler, which settled him. Frary struck out. Pfeister tried to reach second on hit past third, but was too slow.

In the lucky last half of the third, the 7-score play was as follows: Shea made a safe hit for first. Engle appeared at the plate amid cheers and was given a present. Just to show his appreciation he punted a ball to the pitcher, who stood like a wooden man and let the ball roll by. It was sent to first by the short stop in plenty of time to cut out Engle, but the man on first made a fumble. Muller then made a hit for first and Eley again dropped the ball. Van Buren came to bat with the bases full. He hit a safe grounder to center field, which let in Shea and Engle. Anderson sent a fly to right field, which McKevitt dropped and could not find in time to prevent Muller from scoring. Zeigler made a safe hit to center and Van Buren and Anderson galloped over the plate. Weed went out on first and Zeigler made third. Harris hit a two-bagger, which let Zeigler in. Delsel went out on first. Shea hit to first and let Harris in. Engle died on a short fly to Pfeister.

Fourth inning—McLaughlin sent a grounder to short stop, who got it to first before the runner arrived. Ferris got first on a punt along the third base line. Reitz struck out. Eley sent a three-bagger to the rear fence back of the score board. This let in Ferris. Donahue went out on a fly.

Muller out on first. Van Buren reached first, but went out while trying to commit larceny of the second bag.

Anderson sent out a fly which was taken in by Donahue after a good run.

Fifth inning—McKevitt went out on fly to right field. Howells out on fly to Engle. Frary sent a two-bagger to the right field. Pfeister died on a fly to Harris.

Zeigler died on first and Weed died likewise. Harris got to first on a fumble by Pfeister. Delsel died on first.

Sixth inning—McLaughlin got to first. Ferris hit to first. Reitz then sent out a fly and died at the third bag, letting in McLaughlin and Ferris. Eley went out on first and Donahue followed with a fly.

Shea out on fly. Engle made first. Muller struck out and Von Buren died on first.

Seventh inning—McKevitt out on a fly. Howells out on first and Frary on a fly. Anderson, Zeigler and Weed went out on three straight flies.

Eighth inning—Pfeister out on first. McLaughlin safe hit. Ferris out on a fly. Reitz hit to first. Donahue hit to first and Reitz died on second.

Harris came to the plate and was presented with a bunch of War Crys, and to show his disgust over the present struck out. Delsel hit a fly to second base, which Reitz caught over his shoulder. Shea struck out.

Ninth inning—McKevitt died on first. Howells made first on a slow hit and second on a passed ball. Frary went out on a foul to left field, which was gathered in by Muller after a long sprint. Pfeister settled the game by going out on first. Score:

HELENA BUMPS BUTTE.
BUTTE, Aug. 15.—After a game which YOUNG CORBETT.

The next big contest to engage the attention of the sporting world and general public is the featherweight championship bout between Terry McGovern and "Young Corbett," which is scheduled to take place at New London, Conn., on August 29. Both men are confident they will win. "Young Corbett," is, of course, present champion, and McGovern will strive to regain his old title.

was dragged through nine innings without life or enthusiasm Helena yesterday won from Butte by a score of 7 to 4.

SEATTLE AGAIN WINS.
TACOMA, Aug. 15.—Seattle yesterday gave the home team a bad defeat. Harmon gave some wild pitching and lost the game with the rotten support he received. Score 9 to 1.

INLAND EMPIRE LEAGUE.
LA GRANDE, Aug. 15.—On account of the rain yesterday only seven innings were played. Baker City lost to the home team by a score of 6 to 0.

TO FIGHT AT LOUISVILLE.
NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The fight of McGovern and Young Corbett, at New London on August 29 has been abandoned, owing to the war made by the authorities. The fight will take place at Louisville on September 15.

O'BRIEN RETURNS TO THE RING.
BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 15.—Dick O'Brien, who has not done any fighting for a long time, is to try his skill in the ring again, being matched for a limited round bout with "Twin" Sullivan, to take place at Old Orchard tonight. Sullivan is a youthful fighter, clever and strong, and it is the general opinion among followers of the game that he will make short work of O'Brien, who is believed to have lost much of his former prowess.

HYNDS WILL REFEREE.
SALT LAKE, Aug. 15.—In the Root-Gardner fight to take place here next Sunday, Harry P. Hynds, of Cheyenne, has been chosen as referee. Both of the fighters are in good condition, and have done with hard training.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT

New Industries at St. Johns Are Under Way.

The prospects for the future growth of St. Johns are looking up brighter than ever. Numerous enterprises are already under way and others are being projected. New residents are moving into the suburb nearly every day and the town is presenting a rather lively appearance.

Although the prospects are rather dim for the incorporation of St. Johns, still many of the citizens say that they will be better off without it. Many are talking of presenting a bill to the next Legislature.

HAPPINESS

In its true sense cannot be had if you have defective eyes.

If the defects can be overcome with glasses, we can make you happy if you will give us a chance to fit your eyes with a pair.

We would be pleased to have a little talk with you if you have poor eyesight.

THE FOREST RESERVE

B. F. Allen of Prineville Voices Sheepmen's Views.

"The sheepmen of our section seem to be well pleased with the idea of the proposed new Forest Reserve," says B. F. Allen, president of the First National Bank of Prineville, who is at the Perkins. "The United States government system of leasing in the Cascade Reserve has proven satisfactory and a general benefit to all in the way of preservation of timber and division of grazing territory between cattle and sheep men will be the result of the opening of the new reserve."

As it is now, we are overrun with sheep men who pass our way from Wasco, Sherman and parts of Gilliam and Grant Counties on the way to the mountains. As affairs are run now it takes about four sections of land to pasture a flock three months during the summer, and if a man has to be continually paying rent for pasturage the year around he might as well go out of business."

Still there is money in sheep. One prominent sheepman, Charley Cartwright, came to Crook County 20 years ago broke, and now, by thrift, energy and foresight, has accumulated one of the best ranches, fully stocked, in the country worth $50,000 to $75,000.

FLEGEL'S AND ALBEE'S LUCK.

"Rattling good joke!" exclaimed Councilman A. F. Flegel of the Eleventh Ward, "and maybe you think I didn't enjoy it."

"What's the joke?" interrogated his neighbor, H. R. Albee, Councilman representative from the Tenth.

"Why, when I returned from the coast the other day I was met by a delegation of neighbors who walked with me to my residence, where they had laid in a store of roast chicken, crab salad, ice cream, cakes, a big can of what they called Flegel Punch, a watermelon the size of a chair and flowers to beat the band. I couldn't get it through my head what it all meant, until one of the leaders mounted a chair and began one of the most eloquent speeches that ever greeted the ear of mortal man."

"What did he talk about?" Mr. Albee asked.

"You couldn't guess in a thousand years. The Superintendent of the Street-Cleaning Department must have felt it incumbent upon him to do something for a Councilman that the latter, perhaps, might stand pat with his constituents."

so he sent a man away out to our region to clean the two feet of dust from the crosswalks which had never been cleaned before. My neighbors thought I had him do it, and they stand ready to this day to crown me king-citizen of the ward. Of course I knew nothing about it, but—hush. Just keep this story to yourself."

"Well, I shall swim," responded Councilman Albee, "for I am with you with a similar experience of my own."

"What's that?" inquired Flegel.

A street-sprinkler has been keeping the dust in my ballwalk flat as a flounder and all the people think that Albee is the man behind the spritz. I don't know how the thing came to wander so far away from its reservation, and don't care very much, but I do enjoy the felicitations I receive from the happy throng which never saw a sprinkler in the ward before. To be a Councilman and have such things happen is like finding a gold mine at the garden gate."

A STRANGE LAWSUIT

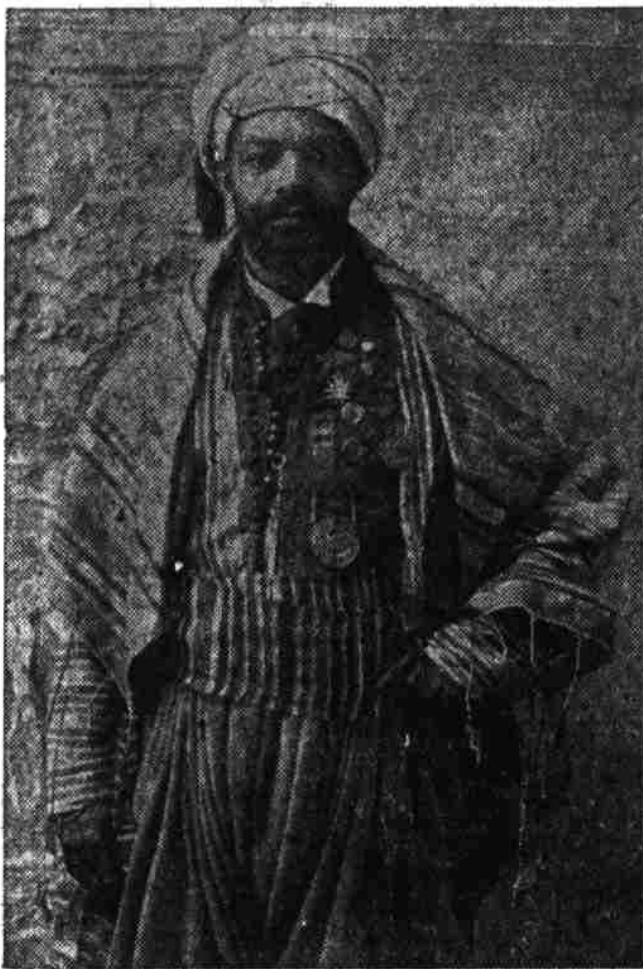

Telephone Company Sued for Lightning's Work.

(Journal Special Service.)
SHELBYVILLE, Aug. 15.—A lawsuit was commenced here a day or two ago by T. A. Floyd of this county against the Cumberland Telephone Company, in which Mr. Floyd claims $25,000 from that company. The suit is based on the fact that a short while back a son of Mr. Floyd was killed by a lightning stroke, and it will be urged on the trial that the wires of the telephone company were out of place or have been improperly placed, and that because of this the lightning was conducted to the body of the son. The fight for a verdict against the company will be a very earnest one.

THE INFLUX OF ALIENS.

The Western Passenger Association has issued a circular giving a comparative statement of the alien and steerage arrivals at the port of New York for the first six months of 1901 and 1902. There is a total increase of $3,304 souls, or 33.4 per cent for the first six months of 1902, over the same period for last year. 1901, January to June inclusive—Aliens, 23,977; citizens, 11,140; total, 25,117. 1902, January to June inclusive—Aliens, 39,382; citizens, 8,998; total, 28,382. During the month of May in each year about 10,000 more aliens arrived than in any other month.

AN ACROBATIC ARABIAN.

Jabour takes special pride in presenting to the Elks' Carnival what he claims to be the best troupe of Arabian acrobats now traveling. They are twelve in number, and perform various feats of tumbling, pyramid building, with a vim and agility that never fails to arouse enthusiasm. Some of their feats of strength are marvelous, and Hadji Momo, the under stand, is claimed to be the best all around Arab acrobat in the world. The chief of the group is Hadji El Cheriff, who was brought to this country 25 years ago by P. T. Barnum, the great showman. He traveled a number of seasons with Barnum's show, and also with Buffalo Bill. At the World's Fair he won the prize as the whirling dervish against 30 competitors, whirling two hours and a half without cessation. This year he gives on the platform in the Midway, preceding the tumbling of the acrobats.
