

GRAVE CHARGES

Three Men Indicted in Bauchene Case.

WHITE AND KING

Are Named -- News of and About the Halls of Justice.

Informations have been filed charging John King and Thomas alias "Bull" White with murder in the first degree. They are accused of murdering P. Bauchene on the night of August 22d.

The formal charges in the case of Andrew White, who was recently arraigned for the murder of Bauchene, the three men with Bauchene were all very drunk at the time, and it is not very clear how Bauchene got his death stroke. It was probably in some row while all were too drunk to have much of an idea what they were about. The supposition is that Bauchene refused to stand treat when his turn came, and in the scuffle that followed he was struck with a club by some of the number about him. The witnesses examined before the District Attorney in the proceedings relative to the informations, were the same ones examined in the case of Andrew White. All those defendants are under arrest. "Bull" White and King were taken from the city jail to the county jail yesterday, and are now in the custody of Sheriff Storey. Joe Duichneider and John Keefe, who were detained as witnesses, have been released. Court having adjourned until September 8th, no arraignment of these men will be had now; but they will be required to stand early in September, and the case will doubtless be set for trial at an early date. It is quite probable that the question of intoxication as an excuse will be an important feature in the defense, and it may be that insanity will be urged.

SEVEN MURDERERS

There are now seven men in the county jail awaiting trial for murder. They are Andrew White, Thomas, alias "Bull" White, John King, Belding, Gladise, Smith and Johnson. These last three are colored. So many murder cases have never been before the Courts at this time.

McALLEN & McDONNELL

CLOSE LABOR DAY

The dry goods house of McAllen & McDonnell will be closed all day Monday-Labor Day.

The grand opening sale of fall goods started this morning with a rusa. It looks as though, in view of Monday's closing, people were trying to do two days' shopping in one. The display of ready-to-wear garments shows by far the greatest range of styles ever shown west of New York. These high grade goods selling at 50 cents on the dollar afford a rare opportunity of securing an exclusive at a price less than makers' cost. The firm's well founded reputation for selling worthy goods is a guarantee that these garments are dependable and worth the price. That no shoddy or varnished goods find a place in their stock, is the proud boast of McAllen & McDonnell.

Ladies who are inclined to save money in the purchase of their fall and winter outfit will do well to see this stock. The store will be open this evening till 10 o'clock.

The beautiful silk flag that is to go to some labor union as a prize after Labor Day was presented and is displayed by McAllen & McDonnell in their store, corner of Third and Morrison. This is an attractive piece of workmanship, and will please the eye for many a moon after it has been won in the contest.

TORONTO EXPOSITION

Inaugural Ceremonies Will Not Be Held Till Monday.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 30.—The annual Industrial Exhibition was opened to the public today, though the formal ceremonies attending its inauguration will not be held until Monday when many visitors of note will be in attendance and the occasion made one of unusual note. The exhibition this year promises to be of extraordinary note. The management has worked hard in gathering choice exhibits and the result is the largest and most comprehensive display of agricultural, manufacturing and dairy products ever seen in this part of the Dominion.

B. B. RICH LEADING

Passes Geo. E. Streeter in the Journal Contest.

Forty thousand earnest, enthusiastic voters, mark today's contest for the most popular Elk in Portland, as it is being conducted by The Journal, and the feature of the same is the rapidly shifting of the positions of the leaders in the good humored battle. Yesterday's exciting point was the forging ahead of candidate Geo. E. Streeter even to the point of passing the former leader, B. B. Rich. The former then stood a good 500 votes ahead. When the record was made this morning the count of votes showed 1390 votes to add to Mr. Streeter's, but 1165 were there for the Rich vote. This added to the respective figures for Friday, gave them, respectively, Rich, 2,439; Streeter, 2,127; so that Mr. Rich jumps back to his former place, Mr. Streeter next, thus retaining the lead as against his lead of 525 the day before.

Another feature of the contest is the big vote of the popular Portlanders, popular candidates, Frank Frazier, who has passed 10,000 mark. It is reported from Pendleton that there is something brewing there, and that a big jump for Frazier is among the probabilities. Meanwhile the fight of the leaders is of all absorbing interest.

The following is the vote for all as it stood this morning:

George E. Streeter, Portland	2,127
B. B. Rich, Portland	2,439
Frank Frazier, Pendleton	10,000
E. E. Merges, Portland	480
P. A. McPherson, Portland	614

PREPARING FOR BIG MOVEMENT

The Canadian Railroad officials here have received word that the yard and hotel at Field, which was enlarged and beautified for the accommodation for the summer tourists this year, is still inadequate to accommodate all the visitors to that popular resort. The travel this year has been something enormous and the company is unable to take care of the great number of people. They have also received notice that the Canadian National Park is to be enlarged. It now has an area of ten miles square and is to be increased to a park of 65 miles long and 40 miles wide. There is to be a great amount of money spent in beautifying the place to make it one of the most attractive resorts in the Dominion.

Agent Johnson says that the company is preparing for an immense movement to the Pacific Coast and are expecting one of the largest movements of settlers ever known.

ASSAULT NOT PROVEN.

Frederick Ritter, an old man, was before Judge Hogue yesterday, charged with assault on Mrs. Caroline Frick. The evidence showed that Ritter had called her a number of profane names and had threatened to strike her. The court discharged the defendant, stating that if he had intended to assault the woman, he had plenty of opportunity to do so, and the fact of his not striking her showed that there was no intention of assault, and the man was not guilty.

SUCCESSFUL RECITAL.

Miss Nita Briggs gave the first of a series of piano forte recitals, to be given by pupils of Mrs. S. B. N. Paul, at her studio, last Wednesday evening. The rooms were filled with a delighted audience.

THEY WILL WIN PRIZES

The Unions Making the Best Impression.

CONTEST IS FREE FOR ALL

Those Winning Journal Prizes Will Have to Hustle.

Once again is attention called to the fact that a big voting contest, conducted by The Journal, will begin next Tuesday and continue to October 2 for the purpose of ascertaining which two labor unions in the city are the most popular, progressive and enterprising. Those securing the highest number of votes will receive $50 in cash and a very fine roll-top writing desk, representing the first and second prizes respectively. No union is debarred from entering the race; it is free for all.

During the big parade Monday many thousands of people will look on with critical eyes. They will form conclusions rapidly, make notes and comments freely, and as all of them are aware of this prize proposition and have the right of suffrage, they are no small factor to take into consideration. It should be the aim of all labor organizations, therefore, to create the best possible impression upon the minds of the spectators next Monday. They will vote as they think, and the union which does not heed this advice will sink into oblivion and there remains until the raindrops cease to fall in Portland. To employ a graphic original expression, all should look well to their laurels or they will be covered with an avalanche of ballots in the idea of October.

Some one organization is going to excel. It is nearly always the case in a demonstration of this nature. Why not all attempt to do so, and then it will be a highly interesting contest? It would be a neck to neck race, with all the chances in favor of those that win. This statement is indisputable. Remember the purchasing power of the first prize. Murderers and highway robbers have been committed for less sums. Many men have braved the dangers of far-off Alaska and returned with smaller amounts; it would have looked "good" to them in the less exciting days of Seattle's history. But this is foreign to the subject—win the prizes on merit.

LAWYERS ARRESTED.

Eleven lawyers had been cited to appear in the Municipal Court this morning to show cause why they are delinquent in the payment of the occupation tax. C. E. Lent was present and filed a demurrer for a dismissal of his case on the ground that the facts in the complaint were not sufficient to constitute a case. J. N. Davis gave bail for the continuance of his case. None of the others showed up. Attorney Fitzgerald stated that the dragging along of these cases was getting tiresome, and that hereafter the violators of the ordinance would be treated the same as other offenders against the law. An order was issued that the delinquents be arrested and bail required for their appearance. Warrants are out for H. B. Adams, G. C. Ames, Gustav Anderson, G. B. Cellars, R. L. Eaton, R. T. Graham, S. H. Gruber, C. E. Kindt and J. E. Mager.

WILL GET SAWMILL

New Enterprise to Be Started in Sellwood.

Sellwood is coming to the front as a place for new enterprises. Negotiations have been going on for some time for the purchase of the property at the foot of Spokane avenue formerly used by J. E. Young & Co., as the site for a saw mill.

The deal has been kept secret, even the names of the intending purchasers being unknown to the residents of the vicinity. It is said that the company will expend about $40,000 on the building and the installing of machinery for the new mill.

Already, it is said, orders have been received in advance for the running of the mill both day and night. The promoters of the new enterprise expect to have the mill in operation within the next 90 days.

The Oregon Water Power & Railway are said to be in the market for the purchase of about 10 additional acres of land along the water front in the vicinity of Sellwood. The company has made a number of purchases of land in the vicinity. The knowing ones say that the company is figuring on erecting their new car shops at Sellwood if they can secure the land.

The location of the land is on the line of the company's new river route. A great howl has gone up from the residents of Milwaukie on account of the supposed determination of the company in moving its car shops to Sellwood from that place.

Saved by Quick Action.

The residence of M. C. Muney, corner East Forty-third and East Salmon streets, caught fire yesterday morning while the family were absent for a short time. Some boys of the neighborhood had got into the house and in playing around the stove dislocated several of the stove pipes. Before the blaze was discovered it had gained considerable headway but quick action in throwing some water on the places where it would do the most good saved the structure from ruin. The damage amounted to about $100.

To Erect Factory.

Negotiations have been concluded for the purchase of a site of land from the Hawthorne estate for the erection of a two-story brick building on East Taylor street between Grand avenue and East Sixth street. The land was purchased by the Neustader Brothers, who will establish a large factory on the site. According to the management of the company the new factory will employ about 200 men at the start, the number being gradually increased to 500 when the works are under full headway.

OFFICER SHOOT

Arrested for Reckless Driving.

LAWYER AGAINST IT

Warrants Will Be Issued for Violation of Tax Ordinance.

Officer Nash, at 2 o'clock this morning, noticed a coupe, with one horse attached, going up Fourth street at a terrific speed. The driver was lashing the horse and shouting like a wild Indian. The policeman gave chase on his bicycle and demanded that the conveyance be stopped. The man in the rig jumped out. Nash fired three shots before the rig slowed up.

Explanations were made and it was learned that the outfit belonged to a hackman, named George Clark, who had left it in front of the Perkins Hotel while he went to get a lunch. During his absence two persons came along and took possession of the rig and put the horse through his paces on some of the principal streets.

The men are prominent in society and business circles.

The one arrested by Officer Nash proved to be W. A. Packard of Crane & Co., while the man who escaped from the rig, jumping was an employe of the London & San Francisco Bank, named Fred Fredericks.

At the hearing this morning Merchant pleaded guilty and was fined $15. LaRock claimed that he was not fighting and had thought that the mixup was only a friendly wrestling bout. He was assessed $10 for creating a disturbance.

FRUIT IS MOVING.

"Apples and pears are beginning to move from Southern Oregon," said W. E. Coman this morning. "The season is now coming on, and another month will see a wonderful shipment of these fruits. There is a big crop in every section of Southern Oregon this year and we are expecting that 300 or 400 cars of choice fruit will be handled by our line alone."

"The hop crop will also start in a short time. Pickers are now fast getting to the fields and in a few weeks the crop will begin to move. The yield this year is good; the vines are in a healthy condition, and the crops will be better than for some years. The Southern Oregon shipments are going to be heavy this year and the fruits and other products are excellent in quality."

BOARDS TO MEE T

HEARING IS TODAY

Fay Case Before Judge Winchester at Bismarck, N. D.

DUFUR IS MAKING TROUBLE

Judge Pipes Is Now Arguing the Case.

The Fay case is slowly unravelling itself. The latest developments are that Fay will not be tried at Mandan, but at Bismarck, N. D. Judge Winchester will preside at the trial.

This morning the following telegram was received from Judge Martin L. Pipes, from Mandan, N. D.:

"Arrived on time. Fay well. Hess to answer today at 2. Hearing probably later. Dufur is here. Procure information against him for threats of obtaining money. Get requisition on Governor of North Dakota; also same for Hess for fraudulent means. Wire Sheriff Weeks here to arrest both and hold them pending arrival of requisition papers."

A letter has also been received from Charles L. Fay dated Mandan, August 27, stating that he just arrived and that Sheriff Hess is treating him well and is a pleasant gentleman. The letter also states that as soon as they stepped on the depot platform at Mandan they were taken into custody. He thanks his friends very much for what they are doing for him.

Governor Geer, Governor-elect Chamberlain, Mayor Williams, Congressman Moody and many G. A. R. veterans are sending telegrams to North Dakota, endeavoring to obtain the release of Fay at once. Blair T. Scott is receiving many letters from all over the United States praising him for his fight for justice. Mr. Scott said today:

"A great many people seem to think it as strange that Fay objects to being tried in Wisconsin, but it is not strange at all to those familiar with the facts. Dufur, who is prosecuting Fay, is a scoundrel of the deepest dye, and is trying to railroad Fay to the penitentiary. He seems to exert a great deal of power in Waupaca, as is evidenced by all the trouble he is causing Fay, and a man like that is liable to swear falsely to obtain his ends. As I understand, he claims to control and does control the legal machinery of Waupaca. Wis, hence we used all our efforts to keep Fay out of Wisconsin. We are perfectly willing to have him tried in any state but Wisconsin."

ORDINANCE ASSAILED

Attorney Gleason on the Occupation Tax.

HE PAYS JUST THE SAME

George H. Durham Thinks the Ordinance a Good One.

"Why that ordinance ain't worth a rap!" remarked Attorney James Gleason, in front of City Treasurer Werlin's window this morning, when twitted by a brother attorney who was also there to pay his occupation tax. Continuing he said:

"If I tested it I could tear a hole in it big enough to drive a dray through. It is no good!"

"But I see you are giving up your seven good dollars," was remarked.

"Why certainly. Why shouldn't I? I am not kicking at that, but just saying that the ordinance would not stand, if tested. People engaged in other pursuits have been laying back waiting for the matter to be passed up to us, thinking that the bar would take it up. But I for one am in favor of paying up and letting these rich firms have their attorneys contest it. Then some one of us will get our money back in fees. If they want it contested, let them pay for it."

S. A. Harrington—"This is neither right or just. An attorney is a member of the Court and the judiciary is exempt. I do not believe the measure is legal, but I will submit, and here is my $5."

Judge J. C. Moreland did not think the tax a just one, but he submitted gracefully. Dr. Kirkpatrick said:

"I realize that Portland covers too much territory and is in urgent need of money, if only to maintain its streets. I would pay with better grace if I knew the money was going into the street fund, but I hope some of it will drift into that channel. Our streets are sadly in need of extensive repairs and I for one would be happy to attain that end."

George H. Durham, one of Portland's leading attorneys, said: "It's a good law and I hope every one will pay up without a murmur. The city needs the money."

Others simply walked up to the wicket, paid their money and departed. Below is a list of the attorneys who paid this morning, and the amount of their tax:

C. H. Piggott, $5; R. G. Morrow, $6; F. Schlegel, $1; Hogue, Wilbur & Langley, $10; S. A. Harrington, $5; James Gleason, $7; J. C. Moreland, $5.

A number of licenses were issued to foot peddlers who came here to work the Carnival crowds. They pay $1.50 per day. One who claimed to be in this class when asked what he handled, remarked "Clothes, etc."

"Well, in that event, you will have to pay $10 per day." The man departed without delay.

Another man came in and asked Mr. Werlin what his taxes were. The treasurer turned to his books and found that the man was rated as a merchant and his taxes would be $12.50. When he turned to make out the receipts the man remarked that he was a manufacturer's agent, Mr. Werlin never blinked, but told the man that he was taxed $5. The man stormed for awhile and rushed off after an attorney who presently arrived at the treasury and explained that his client was really a merchant and that his remark was an absent minded one. Mr. Werlin stated that he took the man at his word. The receipt was made out for $12.50.

Frank Ingram, the convict shot in the penitentiary by Merrill, shortly losing his leg, was today granted an indigent's license to peddle trinkets on the streets.

PEST HOUSE IMPROVEMENTS.
