BIG PURSES HUNG UP

Ponies of the Northwest Which Will Be There—Baseball Notes.

No games were played by the Northwest Leagues yesterday. It was moving day. This week the Portlanders will play at Spokane. The Tigers will be at Butte, and Seattle will be at Helena.

Inland Empire League.

FENDLETON, Sept. 3.—The local ball team has made a remarkable record so far this season. Out of 22 games played they have won 21. They now have a lead on the pennant which it will be almost impossible to overcome with the season nearly over. Walla Walla, Baker City and La Grande are far behind in a bunch. Any one of these teams may take second place by a spurt of a few winning games.

Among the Ponies.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 3.—The Charter Oak $10,000 event was yesterday won by Anzella in three straight heats. The best time made was 2:08 1/2. The race was a ragged one, the horses breaking frequently.

SALEM RACE ENTRIES.

Some of the best horses in the Northwest have been entered in the Salem races during the State Fair. For the greater Salem purse there are 22 entries. It is anticipated that the record will be lowered, as the rich stake of $2,000 will encourage every horse owner to do his best to win the stake.

In the 230 pacing class a purse of $400 has been hung up. The entries are seven, Lady Park, Evangie, Zulu, Alta Cora, Rockford, Flyett, Taffeta and...

CRESCUS TO TRY TO BEAT HIS OWN RECORD.

The biggest event of the trotting world will be the attempt of Crescus, world's champion trotter, to beat his own record at Memphis this coming fall. Crescus now holds the record of 2:02 1/2. His owner, George H. Ketchum, will drive him a mile against time for a very big purse. Many judges declare Crescus is fully capable of beating his own figures. He is being carefully trained for the big feat.

Anderson in Michigan, starved himself to get down to the proper weight, and just before the fight ate two pounds of beef steak, with the result that he was taken sick and nearly died. Terry McGovern, who is training at Price Hill, Cincinnati, says: "I am in much better shape at present than I was when I fought Corbett at Hartford. I am so sure of defeating Corbett that I am willing to wager money on the result."

"QUEENSBERRY REALM."

W. W. Noughton, in his book, entitled the "Kings of the Queensberry Realm," in speaking of the big bruisers says: "Corbett was the greatest natural boxer for a heavyweight the world ever produced," and adds, "While he lacked the proportions of either Sullivan or Jeffries, and fell far short of Fitzsimmons as a knocker-out, he was a greater marvel when in his prime as an athlete than any of these. He might well have been called the Napoleon of the Queensberry ring."

Of Robert Fitzsimmons he says: "By a combination of strategic fighting, a knowledge of the most vulnerable points of the human anatomy, and a faculty for delivering punches that jarred every nerve and fiber of the frame, he has earned for himself a name that will endure."

He says of James J. Jeffries that "he possesses something of each and every attribute great pugilists should have, and will certainly loom up conspicuously to anyone who indulges in a retrospect of pugilistic history."

ROOTS GREAT RECORD.

When Gardner beat down Root, at Salt Lake, it was the first defeat that he had met in 22 battles. His most notable contests were victories over Jack Moffatt twice in six rounds; Billy Swift, twice in six rounds; Harry Peppers, Frank Craig (Harlem Coffee Cooler), knockout; Alex. Greggins, seven rounds; won from Tommy West, six rounds; knocked out Ed Dentfass, four rounds; Dick O'Brien, five rounds. Root fought a draw with Tommy Ryan, six rounds; knocked out Dan Creedon, one round; knocked out Dick O'Brien, three rounds; knocked out George Byers, nine rounds; won from Kid Carter, 15 rounds; knocked out Australian Jimmy Ryan, two rounds; won on a foul from George Gardner, seven rounds, and knocked out Billy Stilt, two rounds.

Until defeat there was only one that had held the local boxer to an even break. The Bryan, Neptune, Jupiter B, being victorious, and that was his meeting with Tommy Ryan at Tattersalls.

INITIATIVE REFERENDUM

The Illinois "State Petition" to Be Filed.

(Journal Special Service.) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 3.—In response to the call of Daniel L. Cruise, president of the Referendum League of Illinois, delegates are assembling in Springfield for a three days' conference. The purpose of the conference is to plan a campaign for the initiative and referendum in the state and for the further purpose of filing what is known as the "state petition." It is claimed that this petition will have over 350,000 names on it. The league aims to secure a majority vote for counties and cities, an amendment to the state constitution enabling the people to control legislation, and the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

For months past the management has been engaged in gathering choice exhibits in all lines of industry and the result is a large and magnificent display of horticultural, mining and manufactured products. Many novelties in the way of entertainment are offered, including a miniature reproduction of the Martinique disaster. The season's music will be furnished by Sousa's Band and Damrosch's Orchestra.

POLITICS BOILING

Two Factions of Pennsylvania Republicans Hold Meeting.

(Journal Special Service.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 3.—Republican political affairs in the Keystone State reached the boiling point today, when both factions of the party held meetings in this city. The Union Republicans, or anti-Quayites, assembled in state convention at Musical Fund Hall this morning and were called to order by Chairman Frank M. Ritter. The purpose of the convention is to name candidates for Governor, Lieutenant-governor, and Secretary of Internal Affairs. There is talk of an effort to induce the convention to endorse Judge Pennypacker, the gubernatorial candidate of the regular Republicans, and there is also reported a sentiment among the delegates favoring the endorsement of ex-Governor Pattison, the Democratic candidate. Indications, however, point to the nomination of independent candidates for the three offices to be filled. Additional interest is given the situation by the presence in the city of the state committee of the regular Republicans, who assembled in accordance with the recent call of Senator Quay. Speculation is rife as to whether they are here in an endeavor to make a deal with the union convention or to balk the plans of the latter in putting up an independent state ticket.

SLANG IS VITALIZING

University of Chicago Professor Argues in Its Favor.

(Journal Special Service.) CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Slang is the vitalizing force in the English language, according to an assertion made by Professor Oscar Lovell Triggs, of the University of Chicago. "Fables in Slang" and the jargon of the street urchin, according to Professor Triggs, are storehouses of words freshly coined for the next generation. And in the course of his discussion of the creation of new words Mr. Triggs allowed himself to take a part in the formative process. "So far as natural growth is concerned the English tongue has come almost to a halt," Professor Triggs declared. "The only place where we can look for new contributions is in slang. Words are constantly being coined in the talk of the streets which will eventually become recognized by the acadicians and given a place in the dictionary. "Slang is highly metaphorical and even poetic. I grant that the imagery is often of a homely sort, but it is nevertheless as involved in its suggestion as the most polished phrase of the masters of diction.

REWARDS HEROINE

She Displays Great Bravery During Armenian Massacres.

(Journal Special Service.) PARIS, Sept. 3.—The French Academy has awarded the Audiffred prize of 15,000 francs ($3,000) to a woman—Mme. Meyrier, wife of the French consul at Diarbekir. The consul and his wife were in Armenia during the massacres in 1895. Mme. Meyrier sheltered, fed and cared for more than 700 Armenian refugees in the consulate building, which was several times besieged. M. Meyrier and his staff repulsed the Turkish assailants time after time. This lasted twelve days, and when all immediate danger had disappeared the rescued Armenians left, showering blessings on the head of their saviors.

Six months later Mme. Meyrier led a caravan of 600 Christians to the coast, a fortnight's journey. The valiant woman led the band on horseback, with her four children following on a litter, and passed with her party through the midst of hostile tribes. She reached the coast in safety with all the refugees under her care.

WEDDING OF NOTE

Prominent Chicago Girl Marries an Italian Doctor.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—A wedding of note here today was that of Miss Bertha Nixon, daughter of William Dixon, former editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, and a prominent Republican leader, and Dr. George De Tarnowsky, of Nice, Italy. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Nixon, and the best man was Mr. George Oakley, of New York. After an extensive bridal tour through Europe, the couple will return to Chicago, for their future residence.

HELLO GIRLS ALMOST DONE

Automatic Secret Service Telephone Will Cut Them Out.

(Journal Special Service.) CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—The Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company has leased one of the Kerfoot buildings in the heart of the city for a central telephone exchange. This lease is made preliminary to the company's owning its own central headquarters and is one more step toward the establishment of the automatic secret service telephone in Chicago.

Coming on the announcement of the increase by $1,000,000 of the capital stock of the Automatic Company, the establishment of this headquarters is regarded as the most important action yet taken by the company, which promises to maintain in this city the most complete automatic telephone service yet established in the United States.

The increase in capital was necessitated by the increase in manufacturing facilities and the rapid growth of the automatic telephone business throughout the country. The Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company has ordered 25,000 telephones of it, to be delivered April 1, 1903, and to furnish 75,000 more, as soon as the company's plant is completed.

This order covers the 100,000 telephones which the new telephone company anticipated last spring were to be established in Chicago as soon as the conduits and exchange quarters were provided. This latter work is now so well under way it has been determined to lose no time in placing the telephone service and entering upon active business.

In the Automatic Company's factories 3000 persons are to be employed this fall and winter in preparing the new service demanded.

SILVER JUBILEE

Prominent Catholics Celebrate at Elkhart, Ind.

(Journal Special Service.) HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Sept. 3.—A meeting was held here today for the formation of an historical society for the study and preservation of the history and antiquities of the Tennessee Valley. The meeting, which was presided over by Judge Richard W. Walker, was well attended. Following the enrollment of members, there were several interesting papers on the Lauderdale County mounds and the early history of the Tennessee Valley settlements.

ELKHART, Ind., Sept. 3.—More than 100 prominent priests and prelates of the Roman Catholic Church gathered here today and helped to make memorable the celebration of the silver jubilee of the Rev. Henry A. Boeckelman, priest of St. Vincent's Catholic Church. At 9 o'clock this morning there was a celebration of high mass by Bishop Alerding, of the Ft. Wayne diocese. Afterward the visiting clergy and other guests were entertained at a big dinner in the parochial school. Father Boeckelman was born in Hannover, Germany, in 1851, but was brought to Logansport, Ind., by his parents in 1853. At the age of 24 he was graduated from the Christian Brothers' College in St. Louis, and from St. Viator's Seminary at Bourbonnais, Groves, Ill., in 1877. He was ordained on August 13, 1878, and assigned to St. John's Church, Cochen, Ind., remaining there until transferred to the pastorate of St. Vincent's Church in this city in 1881.
