SEATTLE, Sept. 6--Hickey slaughtered the Portland batters yesterday. Eleven Webfooters died at the plate. They fanned conscientiously but Hickey was there with the twisters, and there was nothing doing with the visitors. The home team found Engle and hit him freely. The score was kept down by fast field work. Portland played out of luck in having twelve men on bases. Van Buren performed the best stick work, making two second bag hits. He and Harris stole a base each, while the Clam-diggers managed to commit larceny of five sacks. Van Buren brought in the first run making a swift sprint from second to the plate on a center field liner by Anderson. In the sixth Deisel was made a gift of first, and when Engle landed on the sphere, Jakey made the get-away to third. For a time he spared for an opening to rush home, and when Zeigler made a safe hit he lost no time in reaching his destination. Portland made two neat doubles. They had Seattle guessing at every stage of the game, and kept the bases occupied. Score:

HELENA IS DOWNED. HELENA, Sept. 6--Wiggs was the whole game yesterday. The long tosser got the Bunchgrasses going at the beginning of the game, and before he was through with them he had left twelve of the men at the plate looking foolish, after swiping the bat through the atmosphere. Quick made the sensational play of the day, in sending out a fly which netted him a home run. The attendance was small. Score:

TACOMA WAKES UP. BUTTE, Sept. 6--Errors and bad luck on the side of the Senators, and by a rare good luck on the part of the tigers, the latter won out by one score. Having pitched good ball and only allowed a donation of four bases. Harmon reentered the Minors with six bags and was retired. Johnson then went into the box and gave the Montana three more

LARSON TO LOOP

Track Now Ready for the Event.

BABY SHOW SUCCESS

Over Two Hundred Flowers of the Family on Exhibition Yesterday.

CARNIVAL PROGRAM. Tonight, 9 p. m., Loop the Loop. Monday, 2:30 and 8:30 p. m., Midway Performances.

PROTEST DISALLOWED. Tacoma's protest against the decision of the judges of the Elks' recent parade has been disallowed by the carnival managers. They regret greatly that it should have occurred, but the high standing of the judges and the previous understanding makes their award final.

Tonight at the Elks' Carnival the public will have a chance to see the most daring and reckless performance ever given in Portland. "Plunger" Larson will risk his life, as he has often done before, on the loop and show what little care some people have in dangerous positions. Larson arrived in the city yesterday and today is superintending the construction of the loop.

Yesterday was his birthday and he was anxious to ride then but the loop could not be put up and he was disappointed. Those who know him say he is afraid of nothing and will ride anywhere a wheel will go. He is a member of the 2100r City Cycle Club, of Minneapolis, which city is his home, and is well known among local racing men, many of whom have met him in races.

Monday is charity day at the carnival and 10 per cent of the receipts at all the games will be divided among the local charitable institutions as follows: Baby Home, Children's Home, St. Agnes' Foundling Home and the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. The percentage of the Midway receipts will be given through the courtesy of the manager, Mr. Jabour.

Wednesday is military day and there will be one of the greatest demonstrations ever seen in the city. Troops from the Vancouver Barracks, Oregon National Guards, artillery and bands will be in line. It is assured that there will be a force of 2000 men in the parade, 450 horses, 12 pieces of artillery and six bands. The grounds will present an inspiring scene during the afternoon and evening when the boys will be in attendance. Manager Rowe is putting forth every effort to make it a military day in every sense of the word.

Thursday night Mr. Rowe has arranged for one of the most unique and startling events ever witnessed on the Coast and he is willing to compare it with any in the country for novelty and interest. It will be a wedding in a lion's cage. The young couple has not been announced yet, but they are local people and have a host of friends who will be there to see the ceremony performed.

Tuesday will be wedding day and six young people will be reduced to three. The double wedding last week was a great success and the repetition on Tuesday is looked forward to with interest by the numerous friends of the young people.

THE BABY SHOW. Yesterday's baby show was the greatest success of the entire week's events. Every mother there knew her baby was the best, and the committee had the biggest job on their hands that ever fell to man.

Two hundred and eight sweet faces, 208 sunny, innocent smiles and 208 happy mothers. A great throng was there to witness the contest in young American citizenship and every one went home happy.

THE RESULT. Judges--S. O. Baker, of Spokane; W. L. Fugate, of La Grande; C. O. Crittser, of Roseburg.

1--Best looking girl under 1 year, No. 111, Verna Lenore Arpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Arpin, 25 North Seventh street.

2--Best looking boy under 1 year, No. 170, Teddy Keefe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Keefe, 706 East Iron street.

3--Best dressed baby under 1 year, No. 134, Irene Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson, 129 Page street.

SAYS GOV. GEER ANENT FULTON

Will Be "Blood for Blood," in the Senatorial Race.

Governor Geer dropped in from Salem this morning just as he declared for the Carnival alone, but he was going over to Astoria for Mrs. Geer's Alert as usual on state topics, the Governor took quickest of all suggestions, as to United States Senator, and being told of the recent declarations of State Senator Fulton's friends, that Fulton is now going to make a straight-out fight for it and for blood, the Governor quickly said: "He's out for blood, is he? Well there will be others out for blood, and they will have the people behind them." Then he said: "If Fulton was a candidate for Senator, why did he not enter the voting contest instead of running for the upper house? He chose to ignore the issue then. It seems queer to get in now."

As to legislation at the coming session the Governor said that the state is in the anomalous position of apparently not having anything important to ask.

Would there be any railroad legislation of any kind? "No," said the Governor. "We had a railroad commission six years ago but found no use for it. In fact there is not today a single railroad act on the statute books except the law of a maximum passenger rate of 4 cents per mile, and the roads have voluntarily made the rate 3 cents."

Everything indicated, the Governor said, a high degree of satisfaction by the people and he himself believed there was never a time when conditions were more satisfactory, of the state enjoying a larger degree of prosperity. It was in contemplation of such conditions as this that the Governor declared his intense interest in the Lewis and Clark Fair.

THE CONTEST NOW OPEN

Votes Are Not Coming in Very Rapidly.

BUTCHERS ARE IN THE LEAD

The Carpenters a Close Second-- The Vote in Detail.

Votes for the most popular, progressive and enterprising labor union, which took part in the parade Monday, are coming in. When the first installment came in the figures were so small that it was decided not to publish them until others could be added to the list. A fair start has now been made and the public will be kept advised as to how the vote stands. The Butchers and Carpenters are in the lead, but it is a difficult matter to prognosticate how long they will retain their present honored positions.

If they are still at the head of the list on October 2 they will capture the prizes of $50 and fine roll top writing desk. The vote stands as follows:

NEWS OF THE LABOR WORLD

What Portland Workers Are Doing for Their Advancement.

George Uhler, national president of the Marine Engineers' Association, left yesterday for his home in Philadelphia after a stay of several days in Portland. The object of his visit was for the purpose of endeavoring to make satisfactory arrangements for the reinstatement of several engineers who lost their positions several weeks ago at the termination of the strike. Two conferences were held with the steamboat owners during the week, but whether anything was accomplished or not both sides refuse to state.

The Cement Workers' Union has issued a challenge to the Team Drivers' Local 162 for a tug-of-war contest to be pulled off two weeks from Monday. The team drivers will take no notice of it, stating that it came from an official source. They say, however, that they are open to engagement for the 1903 Labor Day celebration.

At the meeting of the Painters' Union Thursday evening the voting contest of The Journal was discussed and it was decided to exert every effort to secure one of the prizes. The secretary says that he would like to win that fine desk, and what is more that he intends to do it with the assistance of other members. A vote of appreciation was tendered the donor of the silk flag which the union won Labor Day.

SALEM IS FIRST

To Advertise Old Oregon THROUGH THE EAST

Portland at State Fair--Gorham Is Promoted--Rail News.

General Passenger and Freight Agent Coman of the Southern Pacific has the Chicago agent of the company 6000 pamphlets from Salem, the first lot of advertising that has been sent by any of the cities of the Northwest that promised literature to Agent McKenny when he was here.

The Willamette Valley is meeting their agreements in this regard more promptly than any other section. The rest of the 10,000 circulars to be furnished by Salem will be ready for shipment in a few days. McMinnville will have its 5,000 circulars ready by the last of next week, and Ashland has sent word that the 75,000 promised are now in press and will be completed inside of two weeks.

This advertising is of great benefit to the Northwest, as it will bring thousands of homeseekers here. The company is doing everything in its power to aid the cities in getting out this advertising.

GORHAM ADVANCED. The unofficial announcement has been made that L. O. Gorham, who for some time has been local agent of the Rook Island, has been promoted to the position of general agent with headquarters at Portland. His territory includes Oregon, Washington, the northern part of Idaho, and the northern and western part of Montana.

It has also been announced that Thomas F. Clark, traveling passenger agent of the Rook Island, at Los Angeles, will succeed A. E. Cooper, who recently went to Topeka to become general traveling passenger agent for the lines in Kansas. Another traveling freight agent will be added to the force of men for the Portland office. W. F. Baker, chief clerk in the office of the assistant general superintendent of the Great Northern at Spokane, will have his headquarters in Portland and will cover the Northern territory as traveling freight agent.

These appointments have not yet been confirmed by the home office. The appointments will become effective on Sept. 10.

SPECIAL RATE TO THE FAIR. W. E. Coman is doing everything possible to encourage closer relations between Portland and the State Fair at Salem. He has arranged for a special excursion rate on Portland at the fair on September 15th. Extra trains will be run and there is a great effort being made that the Oregon metropolis shall make a credible showing.

For this day a special rate of $1.50 for the round trip has been arranged which will also include admission to the fair. Special trains will leave Portland about 8 a. m. and make the run to the Fair Grounds in one hour and a half; returning will leave Salem at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The fair this year will exceed all former ones. Extra attractions have been procured and the produce and fruit exhibit promises to be one of the best seen in the state.

SUCCESS FOR BOARD. Success has at last crowned the efforts of the Montavilla Sub-Board of Trade in the matter of securing a free mail delivery in that suburb.

A meeting of the board was held last evening a very large number of members being in attendance. The meeting was presided over by President L. R. Lewis.

A communication was read from United States Senator John H. Mitchell in relation to the free delivery system. Mr. Mitchell enclosed a telegram received by him from the postal department at Washington. It was to the effect that the Montavilla office would be consolidated with that of Portland and that hereafter it would be a station of the West Side office.

Postmaster Burdett was present and offered to build the station building, providing that the board recommended him for station agent, and that he secured the plum. He also said that he had been notified of the change. The board has as yet taken no action on his proposal.

Postmaster Crossman says that the free delivery system will be in running order in about three weeks.

TIMBER FRAUDS

Tillamook Banker Is in Trouble.

CHARGE CONSPIRACY Secret Service Men Are Busy-- May Be Arrested.

Special agents of the Department of the Interior have for the past two months been active in Tillamook County, gathering evidence to expose one of the most gigantic timber land frauds ever attempted on the Coast.

The land is a tract of over 15,000 acres, in the best timbered section of the state. The value of the property will aggregate hundreds of thousands of dollars. There are between 90 and 100 of the alleged illegal filings. Some of the most prominent men in Western Oregon are mixed up in the deal.

CRIMINAL ACTION is anticipated against the offenders, and some arrests are looked forward to in the next few days. The history of the case dates back to September, 1899, Claude Thayer, son of a former governor of the state, is alleged to have originated a plan whereby he could enrich himself by gaining control of valuable parcels of the public domain, by entering into a conspiracy with some settlers and causing the filings of applications for timber claims by the dozen.

THE SCHEME alleged to have been operated by Mr. Thayer, the wealthy Tillamook banker, was to induce people who were eligible to file on either homestead or timber claims to take up land. A written contract was made with them whereby the banker was to advance all the money necessary for the filing and securing of final proof. After this had been done, the land was to be sold and, after deducting the expense incurred in securing a title, the remainder of the money was to be divided equally between Thayer and the settlers. Some of these contracts are on file at the Oregon Land Office, where they were introduced as evidence in a contest case.

EXPOSURE OF FRAUD was brought to the attention of Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, on an appeal from the local land office of a decision in a contest brought by Charles E. Hays. Hays had instituted a suit for title to a piece of land, which was filed on by a Thayer settler, against whom he charged fraud and collusion, to deprive legitimate home seekers of their rights.

Upon becoming cognizant of the evidence of misconduct in the matter, Secretary Hitchcock from Washington, Special Inspector Green to make an investigation, and report his findings. These were forwarded to the Department with the result that Mr. Green was notified to proceed to Tillamook and take whatever evidence the contestees had to give in palliation of their proceedings.

NO DEFENSE was offered, and a refusal to give any evidence in the case, was made by Mr. Thayer and the settlers, through their attorney, T. B. Handley. The contestees at first expressed a desire for a hearing before a commissioner of the Land Office, or before a County Clerk. The time for a hearing was set for Monday last, Edward N. Deady was appointed by the Government to act as referee and in company with Inspector Green and a stenographer, went to Tillamook to take the evidence. The refusal of the settlers to make any statement in exoneration of their conduct changed the phase of the case. Deady has given them that the representative of the Government would argue for the reverting of the claims to the Government on the grounds of default, in making defense. Yesterday afternoon 14 of the cases were argued before Receiver Bibeau, of the Oregon City Land Office. Others are being heard today.
