PLANS OF LEAGUE

The Tax-Payers Propose Many Measures.

Affairs to Receive Exhaustive Treatment if Suggestions Are Heeded.

The Taxpayers' League is hard at work notwithstanding it has not appeared of late in the public prints. Many of the enembers have been away on their summer vacation, and from now on there will be plenty of work.

EXPERTING THE COUNTY BOOKS. A number of months have passed since a petition was filed with the County Court for the appointment of experts to examine the books of the Sheriff's office, It is understood that an expert or experts will soon be appointed. At any rate, the members of the league feel it should not be delayed much longer, and that there should be an annual checking up of every fiscal ofnce.

No new legislation is required to authorise this, the County Court having ample authority.

CEMENT SIDEWALKS. The City Auditor, Mr. Devlin, is working on an ordinance designed to prevent fraud in the laying of cement sidewalks, and to protect the property helder. The executive committee has gone over the matter carefully and it is believed that the ordinance, when completed, will go far towards remedying a number of abuses about which much complaint has been

THE CORNELL ROAD.

It has been stated that the railroad from Hillsboro, about which so much has been said in the papers, has applied for or been granted by the County Court a right of way over a portion of the county road known as the Cornell road. This road is not only one of the most beautiful drives around Portland, but one very largely used, and a railroad running over it would be very injurious and dangerous The attorney for the league has received instructions to look into the matter and report what, if anything, has been done. The members of the league so far as they can will do all in their power to keep this road clear of railroad tracks. CLEAN STREETS AND CLEAN SIDE-WALKS. The Civic Improvement Association is actively engaged in trying to bring about the results indicated by the above title. sympathy of the members of the league, but will have their active assistance. The present condition of our streets and sidewalks is inexcusable, but we seem to be a long way from the goal when such acts of vandalism are permitted as the open and shameless destruction and damaging of the beautiful shade trees on Everett street during the past week. However the league will keep at it, knowing that once people realize what cleanliness means, there will never be a backward movement. Instead of having their efforts belittled by the authorities, they should be glad to have the unselfish assistance of the members of the Civic Association. The league hope their re quest for an officer to jook after the sidewalk nulsances will be granted. TAX COLLECTING. The extraordinary cost of this branch of the county government is still before the league and it is believed that the County Court will take such steps that this expense will be largey reduced in the future.

CONSOLIDATION OF OFFICES. No complaint has been heard from any source of the consolidation of the offices of County Clerk, Receiver and Clerk of the Circuit Court and no observable friction is noticeable by reason of the change. The semi-annual report of January 1 next should and doubtless will show a large saving in the expense of conducting these

A number of other matters are being considered, but at present are not far enough along for publication.

LEGISLATION. The attorney for the league is hard at work on bills which will be recommended to the members from this county for their consideration and action. They are all of general interest, a list on which work is now being done is as follows: COUNTY MATTERS.

Expenditures.-"An act limiting the maximum of expenditures by the coun ty and further limiting the expenditures to the levy made."

This has been found to work well, on the whole, in the administration of the city's affairs, and no reason has been suggested why a limit would not be equally efficacious with the county. As the law now stands, the levy may be law, but there is no limit on the expenditures, and in consequence, until the year is out and reports in, the cost of running the county is not known.

Tax Collecting-"An act to make the County Treasurer Tay Collector. It is believed that this will tend to refluce the expense of the tax collecting very largely.

County Commissioners.-"An amendment to the law so as to pay for each gay's work given to county business." This will make the law conform to its intention. As now construed, the County Commissioners draw three dollars a flay for every day in the week, including Sundays, and holidays, PURCHASE OF COUNTY SUPPLIES. The propriety of amending the bill regulating the advertisement for county supplies so as to permit purchases to the extent of $100 or thereabouts without advertising therefor, is under advise-

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION. It has been suggested that a re-arrangement of the Board of Equalization so that it will be composed of taxpayers and persons other than those making the assessments, would work well,

TAXATION. A study of the law relating to the taxation of franchises is in progress. By many it is believed that the law as it now stands is sufficient and only needs enforcement. If not, amendments will be suggested so that this property right will share equally with all other interests in bearing its fair proportion of the cost of maintaining the government,

CITY LEGISLATION. The new charter is the only piece of legislation affecting the city which has been considered. The charter should go in effect at as early a date as possible and if a special session is called it is hoped the Governor will include this subject in his call.

GENERAL LAWS. Corporations .- "An act to compel al! foreign corporations of every kind doing business in this state to appoint a resident agent on whom service of process may be had." "An act requiring the payment to the state of a fixed compensation based on the capital, to be paid on the formation of new corporations, and for issuing permits to a foreign corporation to do business in this state."

"An act relating to the taxation of public and quasi public corporations so that the state will derive a reasonable revenue therefrom !

Assessment.-"An act respecting the taxation of personal property, by which stocks of goods end property of a like nature brought into the county after the let of March of each year may be assessed and the tax collected."

There are a number of other subjects receiving attention, but not finally acted on. Amongst these are the following:

FEE BILL The bill covering fees of all the of ficers is being gone over carefully and examined with a view of suggesting amendments as may be required.

AUDITOR'S BILL. The auditor's bill is being examined with care so as to ascertain if any amendments are necessary to make it more effective.

BIG BILL DEVERY

He Spent $51,000 for His Election---Speculated Judiciously.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17 .- Devery's victory is said to have cost him $51,000. His total salary for 23 years' work amounts to $58,-000. When taunted with the large sum expended he says he made plenty of money in judicious speculation. Carroll's followers on the Tammany committee expect enough Croker desertions on the committee to give them entire control.

Senator Hanna Gets Demonstrative During Conference at Oyster Bay.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 17 .- "My decision is final. I cannot acquiesce in the administering of free trade poison in order to cure the trust evil, which I abhor.' This is the reply of Speaker Henderson wired to Lafe Young in answer to a telegram which he, in conjunction with S. W. Rathburn, sent to the Speaker pleading with him to re-enter the race.

Speaker Henderson positively refuses to reconsider his withdrawal from the Congressional race for a moment. He asserts emphatically that owing to the fact that his views regarding the treatment of the trusts by reducing the tariff in whole or part are not in accord with the views of many of his party in Iowa, he cannot accept the nomination for Con-In declining the nomination Speaker Henderson wrote to the chairman or the convention, in part, as fol-

"Since my return to the district. I have made a careful study as to the sentiment in the district ani state, and I believe that there is no little sentiment, and a growing one, among Republicans, that I do not truly represent their views on the tariff question Believing this condition to exist, and knowing that I do not agree with many of my people that the truststo which I am and have been opposedcan be curbed or the people benefited by free trade, in whole or in part, I must decline to accept the nomination so graclously and enthusiastically made."

ADDRESS TO VOTERS. Speaker Henderson has also directed as address to the voters of the Third Iowa district in which he says: "For the past three years I have advocated giving control of trusts to Congress. In my opinion proper supervision can never be had until Congress has power to treat them.". He also says that he is a firm believer in reciprocity and protection that will protect labor and industry, and that he is 'against wicked corporations that would trample on the rights of people to fair play and the fruits of honest efforts." Speaker Henderson was elected to Con gress in 1882 and has served continuously ever since. He was elected as Speaker of the House in 1899 and re-elected in 1901,

MAY ELECT BOISE. WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 .- The only topic of conversation here today is the refusal of Speaker Henderson to accept the nomination for Congress at the hands of the Iowa Republican convention. Dem-Congress is assured.

Political leaders here are of the opinion that Burton, of Ohio, may succeed Henderson as Chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, although Hepburn, of lows, is considered as a strong fighting factor.

leaders in both the Democratic and Republican parties regarding the statement of Speaker Henderson, when asked for his reason for refusing the nomination, in which he said:

"My letter to Chairman Albrook is the whole thing in a nutshell. You cannot kill the trusts by applying free trade without killing our own industries. The foreign trusts are fighting the American trusts, and I do not believe that, for the purpose of controlling American trusts, we should make a market for foreign trusts, thereby crushing out the industries of this country. After my conference last Saturday at Waterloo, hearing the views of the Chairman of my district. I concluded that my views on the tariff question were at variance with those of my parsy, and I did not desire to appear in a false position.

HANNA RANTS. WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 .- In the con ference, held with the President yesterday at Oyster Bay, Senator Hanna was inclined to get boisterous at times when the tariff question was being discussed. Those who attended the conference were President Roosevelt, Postmaster-General Payne, Senators Hanna, Spooner, Allison, Aldrich and Lodge. The object of the coming together of these Republican leaders was to arrange the policies to be taken up in the coming national cam-

Senator Hanna is quoted as saying: "As long as I remain in the Senate, and can raise a hand to stop you, you shall never touch the schedule of the tariff act." The parties to the conference were very reticent after they returned from Sagamore Hill, but it can be stated on reliable authority that it was decided to make no attempt to revise the tariff at the coming session of Congress; that the President is to maintain his position as to the trusts, and further that he is to insist on his demand for reciprocity with Cuba. It is understood that he will fully outline his policy regarding this latter question in some of the speeches he is to make on his Western trip. It also can be stated on excellent authority that the coal strike was not discussed. The President's purpose in having this conference was to ascertain if there had been any marked political changes in the different sections of the country during MANY TELEGRAMS.

Congressional committee meets here to-morrow to determine their course in nam-ing a successor to Henderson in Con-gressional candidacy, Henderson is flooded with telegrams this afternoon. Roose-velt and Allison sent messages from Oyster Bay, deploring his action and saying it would damage the party and precipitate a tariff agitation which would menace national prosperity. Similar telegrams have been sent by Hanna, Lodge, Fairbanka, Spooner, and other prominent men. Henderson so far has answered note of them.

Heavy Losses in the Business Heart of the Town.

(Journal Special Service.)

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Sept. 17.-The place occurred yesterday morning, and another large section of the town, comprising the best part of a block in its very heart, is as clean as a floor. The buildings lost include both the leading hotels, ocrats are jubilant and believe that the the Central and the Goldendale, which election of Bolse to Henderson's seat in stood on opposite corners of the half block, and between them, on the west and north sides, more than a dozen larger or smaller stores and business places, including the postoffice. All were wooden structures, most of them two stories high, and those streets were solidly built up. Considerable comment is being made by Every one of these are gone. Insurance is generally small, as the rate is very high owing to the deficient water supply. The loss is not so heavy a blow to the town as the former fire of several years ago. That was in the main a benefit, as numerous buildings were rebuilt of brick, which will be the case now. By far the heaviest loss falls on County Treasurer A. H. Ahola, owner of the Centrai Hotel. He and Mrs. Ahola had only returned that day from Portland, where they had made numerous purchases in improvement of the hotel. It had just been completely overhauled, and they had Mayor Eastham was chosen president and also just put in an expensive acetylene gas plant. The very day of their return from Portland they were to see their all licked up in flames. They will, however, rebuild at once.

Had there been a wind, the whole town on the south side of Main street would have been destroyed.
