BAD FOR FRUITGROWERS.

The tie-up of the boats on the Snake River, due to the strike of the marine engineers, is complete and is proving disastrous to the interests of the fruit-growers, who depend on the boats to get their product to market. Hogs are being turned into the orchards to eat on the late fruits, which cannot be marketed. Many tons of prunes and other fruit will also be fed to hogs. The remnants of the peach crop are being hauled to the railroad in wagons, while many teams are engaged in peddling peaches through the towns and rural districts. Peaches are selling at retail throughout the Palouse country at from 60 to 75 cents a box. The tie-up is complete, and farmers have stopped hauling their grain to Snake River points. Buy school shoes from Billings, 229 Morrison, and get stockings free. *McCarthy out, bunting, third strike.

TIGERS WIN FIRST

Twelve Innings to Decide the Game—Some Great Playing.

Northwest League. YESTERDAY'S GAMES. Tacoma, 5; Portland, 7. Butte, 2; Seattle, 1. Spokane, 11; Helena, 0.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. Won. Lost. P. C. Butte... 61 41 .598. Seattle... 58 45 .563. Helena... 54 47 .535. Tacoma... 41 41 .500. Spokane... 40 54 .435.

The finest of Portland gamblers, were out at the ball park yesterday afternoon. They all got their money's worth. The game was one of absorbing interest from the time that McCarthy made the preliminary speech of "play ball" to the windup of the twelfth inning. The four days' rest of the home team put them in splendid shape and they played first, last and all the time. Tacoma was out to redeem itself and made a great showing. But for the lucky hit of Rockenfield, over the right field fence, which netted three scores, the outcome would have been much different.

Sammy Vigneux was strictly in the game. The balls hot from the bat landed in his big mitt, and not a single passed ball was allowed. The crowd was delighted over this part of the play, and when Sammy made long sprints for high twisting fouls and landed them to the number of half a dozen, the audience blistered their hands and throats with applause. But when Sammy stepped to the plate, with the bases well populated, and awaited the ball far into this center field, he was the whole circus.

Engle pitched all around McCarthy. But one man was given a pass on balls, and five were fanned out. The pitcher for the visitors gave out five passes and struck out two.

In the first inning Letcher struck out, and Nagle and Hutchinson died on first. The second half Muller out on first, Van Buren on a foul and Anderson on first.

Second—Andrews went out while taking a lead from first. McCarthy on a foul and Swindell on a fly to Muller. Second half, Stoval went out at first. Vigneux got first on balls and managed to sneak to third before Murdoch and Deisel died on short hits.

Third—Zalusky hit for first and fell down trying to steal second. McCarthy and Letcher went out on fouls. Portland—Engle got to first on an error by McCarthy and made second on Muller's sacrifice. Van Buren and Weed went out on fly.

Fourth—Nagle out on a foul. Rockenfield on a hot grounder to Anderson, which was delivered at first and Hutchinson on a fly to Van Buren. Portland—Anderson and Vigneux went out at first and Stoval on a fly to right field.

Fifth—Andrews hit to Deisel and made first on an error. McCarthy got a base on balls. Swindell got to first. Zalusky took the bat with three men on bases. He sent a fly to Muller and Andrews came in. McCarthy was caught on third and McCarthy, the pitcher, died on a fly. Portland—Murdoch base on balls. Deisel safe hit for first. Engle sent a two-bagger to center field and two men came in. Muller went out on first. Van Buren got to first on balls and slide stepped. Weed got out on an error and Engle came home. Anderson sent a two-bag hit to Swindell and Van came in. Stoval died on first.

Sixth—Letcher and Nagle made first on hits. Rockenfield sent the ball over the fence and the three scores were brought in. Hutchinson, Andrews and McCarthy all went out on flys. Portland—Vigneux and Murdoch went out on flys and Engle on first.

Seventh—Swindell struck out, and Zalusky and McCarthy out on first. Portland—Muller hit for first and reached third on error. Van Buren and Weed went out on flys. Anderson hit to McCarthy and Muller came in.

Eighth—Letcher got to second on a hit to the right field. Nagle died on first. Rockenfield on a fly. Hutchinson lined to center field and Letcher came in. Andrews and McCarthy went out on flys. Portland—Stoval and Vigneux died on flys and Deisel on first.

Ninth—Both sides went out in quick succession. Tenth—Both teams brought in two scores each. Eleventh—There was nothing doing and goose eggs were put on the score board. Twelfth—Andrews made a two-bag hit and then came over the plate on a hit by McCarthy. PORTLAND.

Score by Innings. Tacoma... 0 0 0 1 2 0 1-8. Portland... 0 0 0 4 0 1 0 2 0-7. Earned runs—Portland, 2; Tacoma, 5. Bases on balls—OT McCarthy, 3; Engle, 1. Sacrifices—Muller, Deisel, Zalusky, Nagle. Stolen bases—Van Buren, Vigneux. Passed ball—Vigneux. Time of game—2:10. Umpire—McCarthy. Attendance—1200.

McCarthy umpired the best game of the season. His decisions were clean cut, and given with firmness which left no room for argument. He worked harder than anyone on the diamond and was present wherever there was something doing, or where he anticipated that there might be. He gave satisfaction to all concerned.

SEATTLE DEFEATED. SEATTLE, Sept. 19.—Butte won the game yesterday by a score of 2-1. The diamond was muddy from a slow rain that was falling during the play. Seattle could not get a run until the last inning. The game was featureless.

HELENA SHUT OUT. SPOKANE, Sept. 19.—Helena was batted all over the field here yesterday and were shut out. The home team brought in a bunch of 11 scores. Thompson pitched schoolboy ball and gave the Bunch-grassers 17 hits. Pfeister struck out five men and kept the hits scattered.
