

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd's Luncheon. Misses Florence and Estelle Flower, of New York City, were guests of honor at a new o'clock luncheon Thursday, given by Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd.

During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. A. Morrison, of the Trinity Church, the bride party stood in front of the east window, which was basked with palms, while suspended above was a basket filled with white asters, and pink carnations.

PERSONALS. Mr. Bryan, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Wirt Minor. Mr. C. P. Strong and uncle, Mr. John Rice, have returned to Dayton, Wash., after spending a few days in the city.

SCHOOL OF DOMESTIC SCIENCE. By Mabel Williams Plowman, Editor for "The Club Journal," Setting Forth the Aims and Attainments of a Portland Enterprise.

A MISSION OF MERCY. The Visiting Nurses Association of Portland. GIVE AID TO THE DESTITUTE. The Officers and the Work of One of the City's Best Societies.

looks bright and hopeful to the family, which a few weeks ago saw nothing but suffering and despair. It is for such work as this that the association is organized, and for which it needs the support of Portland's citizens.

At present it is able to employ but one nurse at a time, but with added subscriptions its field of usefulness will be evident.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett's German. Forty young people were guests at a German, Wednesday evening, given by Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, in honor of her son, Mr. Harry Corbett, who leaves Saturday for Harvard college.

Dr. and Mrs. Pantoff Entertain. Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Pantoff entertained a few friends at their

PERSONALS. Mr. Bryan, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Wirt Minor. Mr. C. P. Strong and uncle, Mr. John Rice, have returned to Dayton, Wash., after spending a few days in the city.

PERSONALS. Mr. Bryan, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Wirt Minor. Mr. C. P. Strong and uncle, Mr. John Rice, have returned to Dayton, Wash., after spending a few days in the city.

PERSONALS. Mr. Bryan, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Wirt Minor. Mr. C. P. Strong and uncle, Mr. John Rice, have returned to Dayton, Wash., after spending a few days in the city.

PERSONALS. Mr. Bryan, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Wirt Minor. Mr. C. P. Strong and uncle, Mr. John Rice, have returned to Dayton, Wash., after spending a few days in the city.

PERSONALS. Mr. Bryan, of Charlottesville, Va., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. Wirt Minor. Mr. C. P. Strong and uncle, Mr. John Rice, have returned to Dayton, Wash., after spending a few days in the city.

INGENUOUS OF THE JAMES NEILL COMPANY.

Miss Gertrude Keller.

Miss Gertrude, of the James Neill Company, has won considerable praise for the good work she has done during the past week. She perhaps was the best as Sylvia in "A Bachelor's Romance," really attaining a very high standard of acting on Wednesday night in that role.

Miss Gertrude, of the James Neill Company, has won considerable praise for the good work she has done during the past week. She perhaps was the best as Sylvia in "A Bachelor's Romance," really attaining a very high standard of acting on Wednesday night in that role.

AMONG THE CLUB WOMEN.

As the school season opens the educational committees of the various state federations are beginning to take up the principle of the matter of teaching in the schools. This work was begun in Massachusetts and still has its center of activity in that state.

entirely of full-blooded Onondago Indians, and flourishes on the reservation of that name in New York. It is a branch of the W. C. T. U., or rather an outgrowth of that organization.

JOHN DREW, THE JUNIOR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Judging by early indications John Drew's new play "The Gummy and the Humming Bird" will be an unqualified success.

cannot afford trained service can form any idea of the great relief which is brought to the suffering ones by the nurse.

and a comparatively small number of members, but the board of directors desires to bring a few of the details of the nursing before the people, hoping that those who can will feel impelled to respond to the call for further subscriptions and donations.

Ping Pong Club Opening Meeting. Miss Von Destin will be hostess of the Ping Pong club, Tuesday evening, September 22.

Pre-Nuptial Dinner for Mr. Frank Warren. Mr. J. Wesley Ladd will entertain at dinner, Wednesday, September twenty-four, Mr. Frank Warren and his ushers.

Young People Leaving for Eastern Colleges. Among the young ladies and gentlemen who left this week for Eastern colleges were: Miss Ruth Maxwell, Miss Maud Morey, who enter Dowler college at Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Miss Etta Honeyman, to National Park Seminary, at Washington, D. C.; Miss Ruth Smith, entering the Preparatory for Smith College; Misses Ernestine and Kate Felling will attend St. Margaret's School in Connecticut; Miss Rhoda Felling, will spend the winter in New York City studying art; Miss Emma Fallins, leaves for Europe to spend the year with her sister Miss Henrietta Felling; Mr. Raymond Wilcox, St. Paul's, New Hampshire; Messrs Henry, Messrs, Bare Eastman, Bruce Honeyman, Boston School of Technology; Mr. Marlon Fisk enters the Preparatory for Cornell College at Ithaca, New York; Mr. Lawrence Salling enters Yale University.

home at 675 Everett, at a dinner party, at which the table was laid for ten, the decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons.

home at 675 Everett, at a dinner party, at which the table was laid for ten, the decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons.

home at 675 Everett, at a dinner party, at which the table was laid for ten, the decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons.

home at 675 Everett, at a dinner party, at which the table was laid for ten, the decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons.

home at 675 Everett, at a dinner party, at which the table was laid for ten, the decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons and decorations being pink satin ribbons.

TWO KILLED.

Freight Crashes Into a Circus Train in Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 20.—A freight train on the Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf Railroad, collided with a circus train near Choctaw City this morning, killing two and injuring at least 25 persons.

The Blickensderfer Typewriter. Is the machine that does the work equally as well (if not better) than the more complicated and higher priced machines. Write 8 pounds Price, $40.00. Interchangeable type. No ribbons. Visible writing. Powerful manifold. Call and examine, or send for catalogue to W. A. RIDEOUT, Agent, 224 Stark St., Portland, Oregon.

Farrell-Richards. Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, September 17th, at the Taylor street M. E. Church the marriage of Mr. Robert Sylvester Farrell and Miss Susan May Richards, was solemnized.

McPherson-Follett. A pretty home wedding took place Thursday evening, September 11, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. Follett, 306 East Second street.

Simon-Montgomery. Charles W. Simon and Flora L. Montgomery were united in marriage Thursday, September 18, at 6 o'clock p. m., Rev. William E. Randall, of the Second Baptist church, officiating.

Indian Club. It was a man we believe—a famous general—who said, "The only good Indian is a dead one." He did not live long enough to know about his mind, for he might have changed his mind, for there are no better warriors any place than the Hiawatha Club, which is composed SCENE FROM "LOST IN NEW YORK," AT CORDRAY'S, NEXT WEEK. Cordray's Theatre will offer a play in which realism and dramatic interest and good acting combine to produce an evening of pleasure for the theatre-goer. The play runs for the entire week, commencing on Sunday night.

Mr. George W. Caldwell, and Miss Elizabeth Mather Jordan were married Monday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Smith, 408 Jefferson street.

Satterlee-Watkins. A quiet wedding occurred on Thursday evening at 7:30 N. East Seventh street, being the residence of Mrs. Minnie Ralph. The contracting parties were Mr. Chas. G. Satterlee and Miss Alize Watkins, both of this city.

Prize Contests in Kentucky Are Doomed. FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 20.—The injunction restraining the Southern Athletic Club, of Louisville, from allowing the Corbett-McGovern fight to take place, has been sustained by Associate Judge J. D. White, in the Court of Appeals.

Chamberlain and the Boers. Secretary Chamberlain, having induced the Boers to lay down their arms, now expresses surprise that they should expect him to keep his fair promises.

Chamberlain and the Boers. Secretary Chamberlain, having induced the Boers to lay down their arms, now expresses surprise that they should expect him to keep his fair promises.