Sunday's tied baseball game Was played off yesterday in the presence of very small crowd. Many were under the impression that the same would start just where it ended in the 11th inning and the first team scoring would be declared the winner. This was the reason why many stayed away. The full nine innings were played and all who take an interest in a one-sided game got their money's worth yesterday.

Up to the sixth inning yesterday's game was good enough for anyone. Tacoma scored in the third and Portland in the fourth, while nothing was done in the fifth. The fireworks came in the sixth. Weed, who was first up, flew out to Fisher. Anderson sent a pretty twosixth. Weed, who was first up, flew out bagger out to left. Stovall brought him home on a two-bagger out in deep right. Vigneux took first on a single and Stovall came home. Sammy stole second and was brought home on a hot grounder by Murdock. This ended the run-getting. as neither Deisel or Kostal were equal to bringing Murdock home.

In the seventh Musier made his only hit and reached second while Van Buren was dying at first. Weed and Anderson both made hits bringing Muller home. Stovall flew out to Fisher and Weed beat the ball to the plate, making the score 6 to 1. This ended the run getting. The score:

CORBETT-M'GOVERN AFFAIR. CINCINNATI, Sept. 23 -A conference has been held between Young Corbett and Sam Harris his manager. The outcome is that they will receive bids from any reputable club until November 1, and will fight where the best inducements are made. Corbett is broke and sore. He

"It's tough luck, but we've got to make the best of it. I will get in the ring with Terry some time sooner or later. I have nothing, but I guess I will be able to make a living even if they don't let me fight any more.

Sam Harris offered to give Corbett a benefit, at which Terry and Brother Hughey were willing to appear. It is the plan to have Hughey box with Corbett. Arrangements for this benefit have not yet been completed, but it may take place in this city.

McGovern goes with a variety show to Louisville next week. Corbett has made no plans as yet, but may leave here any
