The victim is accosted by the two individuals, called by name, and told that if he does not care to have his actions spread broadcast, he had better put up. Occasionally they catch a victim who is willing to grant their demands.

WILL REMOVE TO COLFAX. Henry Schultz, who lost his brewing plant in this city a few months ago by fire, has bought a plant in Colfax and will remove to that place at once. The Colfax brewery is one of the largest in Eastern Washington and the price paid by Mr. Schultz was $9,000.

TROUBLE AT WOOLEN MILLS. Pendleton has a small sized strike on her hands, caused by a difference between two sets of employes in the woolen mills. Two months ago the mill owners sent San Francisco and employed 12 union men to come to Pendleton. Work became slack and the Pendleton men were laid off, the Californians continuing work. The local men demanded an equal work with those from abroad, claiming that all should work when there is work, and all lay off at the same time. Failing to come to an agreement, the Pendleton men walked out. Both sets of employes are union men and belong to the Federation of Labor. Many of those who walked out are old hands, valuable to the institution, and are badly needed.

DOINGS IN OREGON CITY

Clackamas County Items and Matters at the Big Falls.

(Journal Special Service.)

OREGON CITY, Sept. 24.—The benefit entertainment given last evening for the relief of the fire sufferers of this county was a success. About $50 will be turned in to the fund after a few light expenses have been deducted. The Maccabee quartette rendered several selections in its customary pleasing manner, and the Ladies' quartette, composed of Misses Mark, Kate Mark, Grace Marshall and Echo Simpson, sang in such a manner as to show much hard study. Geo. C. Brown, in a short address, spoke of the bonds of human sympathy which are so much stronger now than formerly. Walter and Frank Confer sang songs which demanded encores. Miss Mary Conyers, sang in her usual pretty manner. Two pupils from the Gillispie school of Elouation of Portland did excellent work, but the favorite was Miss Anna Ditchborn, of Portland, who recited in a manner most pleasing to all. Dr. Keefe, of Portland, sang a solo, Messrs. Hatch and Long, at once became favorites with the audience. Chas. Robinson after a recitation was called back and recited a funny piece, which started a laugh on the women. Great credit is due the manager, Ed Taylor, for his work in securing such an array of talent. Members of the Maccabee lodge are well satisfied with the results of their efforts to succor the needy, and will now lend their efforts, as every other lodge will, toward making the next big charity affair a success.

This is the dance which will be given next Friday night at the Armory by company A, Third regiment O. N. G. An excellent orchestra has been secured, and the hall will be decorated, and every dancer in town will try to be there. Ladies will be admitted free, while the men will be asked to contribute 75 cents each. If the former dances given by this organization may be accepted as a standard, this will be one of the best dances ever given in this city.

WILLAMETTE RELIEF SOCIETY. The first regular meeting of the newly organized society to be known as the Willamette Relief Society, is being held this afternoon. The sole aim and object of this society is to help the needy and poor of Clackamas County, not only at the present time, but hereafter, whenever a case might be heard of. In order to become a member a person must first join the Rebekah Lodge. The meetings will be held in sewing or making articles useful in a home. Mrs. S. Walker is president, Mrs. Henry Salisbury is vice-president, Mrs. Lincoln Waldron secretary, and Mrs. Hiram Straight is the treasurer.

FOR THE FIRE SUFFERERS. The amount of money, thus far subscribed by the citizens reached almost $50 this morning and still there are many people who have not been reached, but will be today.

A QUIET WEDDING. Miss Carrie Heitkemper, a sister of Mrs. Frank Bush, and Edward Kirkendall, formerly a conductor on the O. W. & E. Co.'s electric line, were married on Monday at the Catholic Church by Father Hilderbrand. Both are well known in this city.
