

OREGON SETTLERS

Coming in From the Middle West.

SAYS A MINNESOTAN

Of Oregon Opportunities—State Official Returns to St. Paul Loaded.

Deputy State Auditor Geo. A. Flynn, of Minnesota, who has been in Portland for the past week or more, left for the return to St. Paul this morning by the Northern Pacific. While here Mr. Flynn has extensively investigated Oregon's industrial, land, timber and other interests, and as he said goes back "loaded to the guards" on Oregon business opportunities. He satisfied himself that there are openings in this state, as he said, "More promising than any other of which I am aware." Before Mr. Flynn became a Minnesota official, he was a newspaper man, for years connected with the Pioneer Press, and his observations here have been on the newspaper plan of careful attention to details.

LANDS AND TIMBER.

In Minnesota he is the virtual head of the state land department, and he has therefore examined the Oregon system, up one side and down the other. In a business way he has collected information of timber and other lands on the market, and he takes back to St. Paul some very promising deals that he thinks will interest Minnesota lumbermen.

OREGON'S SYSTEM.

Mr. Flynn thinks that the Minnesota system might be applied to profit by the Coast states in conservation of their resources, especially in preservation of forests, protection of the remaining school lands, and realization on the latter for the school fund. Minnesota has been through all that these states know of abuses and losses, and has now become fully protected from predatory raids, and fire wardenship is maintained. Mr. Flynn estimates that Oregon's school lands have been largely "frittered away," but he says that there is enough remaining to engage the earnest attention of the state. "Only those who have been through what we have in Minnesota," he said, "are prepared to appreciate the situation out here."

Among other business matters Mr. Flynn will consider, will be Coast colonization, for settlers desiring to come West. He thinks the conditions are most inviting in all parts of Oregon, and will be glad to give people of the middle West desiring to come here the benefit of what he has learned while in Oregon.

MT. BAKER ALL RIGHT

District Will Pan Out Well Says Leo Friede.

Leo Friede has just returned from a 10-day's tour in the Mt. Baker mining district in the State of Washington. Mr. Friede says that he was unable to penetrate the entire district on account of the monster equinoctial storm which sprung up at that time. From the foreman of his mining property he received this information that Hammond & Co., who have the contract for the installing of a 10-stamp mill, will complete their contract by the latter part of this month. According to Mr. Friede, a typical frontier town has sprung up at Maple Falls. Maple Falls is a town of about 150 population. It contains seven saloons which are always crowded to the doors. Loggers, miners and railroad laborers seem to be content with the situation. The places are open all night and everybody appears to be making money. "The E. B. & C. railway is making progress in the building of a road into the district. In about two years the company will certainly construct a line through the entire mining country. "Every one who wants to see a typical mining camp in full blast should pay a visit to Maple Falls. The town is one of the brightest that I have ever seen. Its future is assured."

FOR CLARK TESTIMONIAL FUND

Secretary Mitchell, of the Clark testimonial committee, today received a letter from E. H. Frindly, of Eugene, enclosing a draft for $100 to be applied on the Clark testimonial fund. The amount apportioned to Eugene was $50, but Mr. Frindly explains that the amount was raised in a few minutes and shortly after it was doubled to $100. This is a good example for the cities and towns not yet heard from.

GALLATIN-POST WEDDING.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—A wedding in high society today was that of Miss Edith Post, daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Post, to Mr. Golet Gallatin. The ceremony was performed this afternoon at Strandholme, the country place of the bride's mother at Bayport, Long Island. A special train conveyed a large number of guests from this city.

DISTRIBUTE MILLIONS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Morgan is today distributing ten millions of dollars among the members of the syndicate which financed the steel corporation, being the fourth dividend of five per cent. The syndicate paid a total of twenty-five million dollars cash to accomplish the deal up which, with today's payment, has had returns of forty millions.

FOOTBALLERS ARE TRAINING

For Struggles on the Bared Field During the Coming Fall.

From present indications, this will be a great year in football. Washington and Oregon will each have several strong teams in the field.

The University of Oregon have secured a very efficient coach in Doigt, and are already at it, perfecting team work for their contest with Multnomah on Thanksgiving Day.

The Multnomah Club team commenced hard practice last Friday night. The indications are that the team will be one of the lightest ever turned out by the club, but quite fast.

The Corvallis team will be seen in Portland sometime this month in a contest with Multnomah. Coach Harbard has great hopes for the success of his team.

Percy A. Blanchard, Amherst '02, will do the coaching for the Portland Academy boys. Blanchard is an excellent player, having played end on the Amherst team in all the big games for the past four years. He understands the game thoroughly and the team already show the effects of his work.

Montague will try and round out a winning team for Hill Military Academy and Bishop Scott Academy has a good coach in view.

The race for championship honors between these three academies will be more exciting this year than ever before.

McFadden will again coach the Forest Grove team. Last year they played a reasonably close game with Multnomah and Eugene, and with the addition of several new heavy line men, feel they will be able to lower the club colors this fall. They will meet Multnomah in Portland early this month.

HANDBALL.

The handball season opened at the Multnomah Club Saturday night in a match game for an oyster dinner, between four married men and four single men. The youngsters took the first game but after that the contest was a one-sided affair, as the perfect condition of the married men tried out their younger opponents and they took the next three games with ease.

After the game Scott, Cleland, Siles and Jordan Zan paid for the dinner for Jones, Trenkan, Watkins and McMillan. McAlpin and Lumgar acted as referees and were also present at the dinner. The game of handball is becoming very popular at the club, and some exciting games will be seen this year.

The gymnasium classes will open at the Multnomah Club tonight.

ASK HOME PATRONAGE

Cigar Makers Are Out With a Circular on the Subject.

The Cigarmakers' Union has issued a circular letter which will be addressed to various business houses in the city asking them to patronize more liberally home dealers who are engaged in the manufacture of cigars. The circular says in part:

"There are at present about 50 cigarmakers employed here, and the average wage per man will amount to $10 a month, and when we include in this the wages of the other people employed about the shops, either in the capacity of salesmen, foremen, packers and strippers, it will bring it up to at least $250 a month. The number of cigars produced here monthly is approximately 250,000, while we have learned from carefully prepared statistics, and close observation that the average consumption for the same period will amount to at least 1,250,000, or just five times as many as are produced. It is not hard to figure that the loss to Portland and its business interests is $30,000 a month, or $350,000 a year in wages alone."

"The amount of money kept in circulation in our city instead of going outside as it now does, would be productive of great results in the material upbuilding of Portland. The object of this circular is to try to induce the local handlers of cigars to use as much of the home product as possible under any and all circumstances. The cigars produced here will compare favorably in point of quality, workmanship, or price with those manufactured anywhere in the United States."

A. W. Jones has been appointed by the union to make a personal visit to all the heaviest dealers in the city to get their views on the subject, and impart any additional information that they desire.

M. E. CONFERENCE.

COLUMBIA, Ky., Oct. 1.—Columbia has had her latching hanging on the outside today for the delegates to the annual meeting of the Louisville Conference of the M. E. Church, South, which will be in session here during the coming week. Besides the lay and clerical delegates there is a large attendance of visitors and the crowd is one of the largest ever entertained here. The formal opening takes place tonight and business sessions will be begun tomorrow. Bishop Morrison is the presiding officer, and during the week there will be addresses by a number of prominent speakers.

GEORGIA'S STATE ELECTION.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 1.—Owing to its purely perfunctory character, the state election in progress in Georgia today is attracting little or no attention. The Democratic primary last June amounted virtually to an election, as no other political party in the state has placed a ticket in the field. Consequently today's balloting is merely a matter of form in compliance with the law. The new Governor is J. M. Terrell. All of the old congressmen are to return to Washington with the exception of W. H. Fleming, of the Tenth district, who will be succeeded by T. W. Hardwick.

COUNCIL MEETING

There Is an Unusually Large Attendance.

EVERYONE IS EXPECTING FUN

A Large Amount of Routine Business Has Been Transacted.

The City Council met this afternoon at 2 o'clock and immediately got down to business. There is a large crowd present in anticipation of seeing some fun when Merrill's resolution regarding gambling is brought up for action. All seem to be at sea as to what action will be taken as well as the outcome of the two forces. Both sides seem confident and the Mayor is presiding in his usual calm manner.

The following business was transacted of the usual order:

ROBBERY AT AURORA.

AURORA, Or., Oct. 1.—W. S. Hurst's office was burglarized last night but with the exception of a few small Swiss coins, the robbers got nothing of value. The interior of the building was all in a chaos this morning and a number of locks had been broken. A huge chisel and punch was left on the desk by the intruders. Entrance was gained by forcing open a front window.

While returning home last night Frank Miller, the hardware dealer, met a stranger who was evidently preparing for holdup, but Mr. Miller, being armed, got the drop on him first and drove him away. It was probably the same one who entered Mr. Hurst's office.

THE RICKMERS PUTS TO SEA.

(Journal Special Service.)
ASTORIA, Oct. 1.—Captain Walzen, of the German ship Peter Rickmers slipped out to sea this morning and avoided arrest on a charge brought in Portland, the exact nature of which is not known.

Attorney Hume, who accompanied the Marshal, sent to make the arrest, agreed to represent Walzen and the latter was not arrested. One of the Rickmers' men was taken off the ship on a writ of habeas corpus and returned to Portland this morning. He is an American citizen and was imported from San Francisco. The Rickmers put to sea with only eleven men.

ACROSS THE RIVER

PROGRESS ON LINE

St. Johns Electric Line to Run in Six Weeks.

Progress is being made in the building of the St. Johns electric line of the City & Suburban Company. For some time the work of electrifying the road was at a standstill on account of the lack of various materials.

The poles for the stringing of the trolley wires have been set the entire distance to St. Johns, and the wires have been strung as far as University Park.

The company will hasten the completion of the remainder of the road and expects to be running the electric cars in about six weeks.

The transfer station now located at Piedmont will be moved about a mile north to Oakley Green. The Upper Albina cars will then run to the transfer point as at present, and the Lower Albina line will be extended from its present terminus in Multnomah up Mississippi avenue and out to Oakley Green. This will give two connecting lines for the St. Johns branch.

The St. Johns electric line will run over the same route as the steam motor line to Northern Hill. Here the company has a large force of men at work clearing the right-of-way for a cut-off to the end, and will save a distance of half a mile. A loop will be formed at Northern Hill, the cars running to St. Johns to go over the cut-off and those returning to come over the old track.

Wagon Wrecked by Car.

While driving home yesterday afternoon with a load of shingles, P. Johnson, a farmer residing in Powell's Valley, encountered a street car at East Seventh and East Morrison streets, and the usual smashed was the result. The vehicle was occupied by Johnson and his son and when the car struck the wagon the boy jumped out. No damage was done to the car.

Two East Side Deaths.

Mrs. Christina Thim, residing at 429 East Main street, died yesterday at the St. Vincent Sanitarium of consumption. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being in Lone Fir Cemetery. Mrs. Thim is survived by a husband and three children, two boys and a girl.

John A. Snodgrass died yesterday at the Home for the Aged, at the age of 87 years. He was formerly a well known merchant of California, having come to that State in early times. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the body being interred in Lone Fir Cemetery.

On the Peninsula.

Olle Bender has returned home after an extensive tour of the Northwest. The reception which was to be given to Rev. T. A. McPherson and his wife today has been postponed on account of the non-arrival of the guests. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson will arrive in the city the latter part of the week.

E. G. Tate has completed the erection of his residence on Dawson street, University Park.

Ben Caples is a visitor at the home of his aunt, Mrs. James Hptchins.

William Voet has completed the erection of his residence at Portsmouth and has moved his family there.

University Park Assembly, No. 2, United Artisans, will give a minstrel show at their new hall at Portsmouth Friday evening.

William Bagley of the Home Real Estate Company is still confined to his residence on Dawson street, University Park.

Oscar DeVaul has returned from a visit with his father in Coos County.

A new sidewalk has been constructed around the new Artisan Temple at Portsmouth.

Lloyd Reed, formerly a clerk in the grocery of Oliver & DeVaul at Portsmouth, has left for Seattle.

GRAIN DEALERS MEET

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 1.—Members of the Grain Dealers' National Association, some 2000 in number, gathered in Peoria today for their annual convention. The headquarters of the meeting are at the Hotel Fey, while the business sessions are to be held in the Coliseum. The meeting will continue through Friday.

John Hyde, statistician of the United States agricultural department, will address the convention on the subject of "Crop Statistics," and a number of other prominent speakers will be heard. Secretary George A. Stebbins reports an increased membership and a widening influence for the association.

BIDS OPENED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The bids for the building of the new battleship Louisiana were opened at noon today. The lowest was the Newport News Ship Building Company, whose bid was $3,900,000. The Union Iron Works of San Francisco, bid was $4,150,000.

SHIPBUILDING.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 1.—The annual meeting of the American Shipbuilding Company was held in Cleveland today. The statement of earnings submitted to the stockholders showed a very successful year.

EVERY OTHER DAY.

It was the Queen of Wonderland who, having invited Alice to tea, asked her if she would have some jam. Alice said she would, but the Queen replied: "We have jam every other day; yesterday and tomorrow; never jam today."

It is just so with the upholders of the tariff—revision every other day; revision yesterday and revision tomorrow, but no revision today. Never!—Philadelphia Ledger.

HOCH GEBOREN

Kaiser Declares American Born Girl of Noble Blood.

MISS COUNY VANDERBILT IS IT

Her Children May Now Marry With Royalty.

Consuelo, Duchess of Marlborough, is to receive the appellation of Hohegeboren (high born), together with the title of Princess of Mindelheim, says the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger.

The distinction will be conferred or reconferred upon the Marlboroughs by the Kaiser, with the consent of the Vienna court, which latter created the first Duke a Prince of the empire by letter patent, dated August 24, 1708.

The act of 1705 by the Roman-German Emperor made old Jack Churchill not only a great noble, but actually installed him among the sovereigns, as the then Kaiser some time later invested him with the fief of Mindelheim, naming him Prince and Lord thereof.

In 1714 the Duke placed his principality under the suzerainty of the crown of Prussia, Bavaria, and Bavaria has now arranged with the present Duke to return the principality, Kaiser Wilhelm as successor of the old Roman-German Emperor confirming the act.

While the royal act and imperial confirmation appears to be rather gratuitous as far as Marlborough himself is concerned—for the princely dignity not only upon the princely dignity not only upon the descendants in the male line—it is of the greatest significance in the case of the Duchess, for it confers upon her children the right and privilege to intermarry with royalty—it fills a long-felt want, to use a familiar phrase.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

NEWS OF AND FOR MARINERS

The Goings and Comings of Those Who Plow the Mighty Deep.

A sailor giving the name of Johnson was arrested at Astoria Monday on a complaint of desertion sworn to by Captain Watson of the German ship Peter Rickmers. He was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Thompson and was ordered placed on the vessel.

The steamer Moana arriving at Victoria, B. C., from Australia reported having sighted the Norwegian bark Andromeda passing into Island port in a disabled condition caused by a gale. Her main mast was gone, and her mizzen and foremast masts were down.

The Fairport has begun discharging ballast at the Mersey dock.

The schooner Amazon is taking on a cargo of piles at the North Pacific mills.

The British ship Khyber cleared yesterday for Queenstown for further orders. Her cargo consisted of 50,530 casks of wheat, containing 114,422 bushels, and valued at $74,374.30.

POLICE BRIEFS.

Violet Campbell, an employe of an East Side laundry, was yesterday arrested on complaint of Mary Thompson, charged with the larceny of a sum of money. The two girls roomed together, and when they went to bed the money was in a grip. When they woke up in the morning the money was gone.

The bunch of North End women tried for vagrancy by a jury yesterday were found guilty. The amount of the fine has been taken under advisement by Judge Hogue.

Sam Schapp, a man engaged in enlarging pictures, went to a house on Park and Morrison where he had left a sample of his work. He found the door locked and proceeded to kick in the panel to gain an entrance. He was arrested for defacing a building.

Assistant City Attorney Fitzgerald has gone to his ranch near Junction City for a two-weeks' vacation. Attorney Gatens is looking after his duties during his absence.

FUNERAL OF D. M. BUCHNER.

The funeral of Daniel M. Buchner, the well known barber, took place this morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence, 408 Seventh street. Members of the Barbers' Union acted as pall-bearers. Large representations of the several lodges of which he was a member were present. Those represented were the A. O. U. W., W. O. W., I. O. B. B., K. of P. and the Arion Society. He was buried at the B'nai Brith Cemetery.

The deceased leaves a widow and two sons, Louis and Carl, to mourn his loss.

OHIO LIBRARIANS MEET.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 1.—The mission, needs and management of public libraries will be discussed from every viewpoint at the annual meeting of the Ohio Library Association, which began its sessions in Columbus today. The three days' program provides for special conferences concerning large and small libraries, and men and women who have devoted years to practical study of the question will give to the assembled librarians expert knowledge on the different phases of library work. The attendance at the convention is large and the meeting promises to be unusually successful.

THE POWER OF MORGAN.

The question is asked, "who is J. Pierpont Morgan?" He is not only the world's king of finance today, but the greatest financier in all history. He has a voice in the control of properties capitalized at $5,488,000,000—more wealth than was ever before in the hands of one man. This amount is greater by over $1,000,000,000 than the entire annual revenue of the 43 principal nations of the world. It is greater by almost $2,000,000,000 than all the world's gold, coined and uncoined. It
