

COLLAPSE AND NOTCH

Advance of One-Half Cent a Gallon.

PACKED MEATS FIRM

Turkeys Cheap With No Offers—Eggs Still Up—General Quotations.

An advance of 1/2c in the price of coal is the principal feature in the markets today.

Meats and Provisions.—The local market is just recovering from an over-supply of fresh meats received during the past week. The supply was so great that jobbers had to cut quotations in order to clean up. Pork is somewhat weaker today, the quotations dropping 1c a pound. There is practically a famine in bacon since the lighter averages. Other packed products are still at present quotations. Hog receipts in the East have been rather light the past week. The entire packed meat market is firm in sympathy with grain.

Fruits and Vegetables.—Two cars of sweet potatoes arrived Saturday for distribution on the street. This morning three large cars of bananas arrived. The fruit is in very fine condition and is ready for market. Quotations are not altered. Tomatoes are plentiful at published quotations.

Butter, Eggs and Poultry.—Butter is still scarce and is bringing top quotations. Turkeys are arriving in large quantities, but are at a standstill as far as movement is concerned. In order to keep turkeys cleaned up dealers have to dig into quotations. Chickens are slightly cheaper today on account of the large receipts last week. Very few jobbers were enabled to clean up their last week's stock at any price.

Wheat and Flour.—Wheat is firm at standing quotations. A drop will be noticed today in the prices of some grades of flour. Feed is unchanged.

The following are the revised quotations for today:
