LARD IS ADVANCED

Quotations Go Up 1 Cent in Two Days.

PACKED MEATS TOO

Go Skyward --- Wheat Receives Rise of Two Cents --- Hop Quotations.

The merchants on Front street were in a uproar this morning. The continued advances on lard are being kept up. Yesterday the quotations were advanced 1/2 cent and today the dealers were notified of an additional rise of 1/2 cent.

Eastern packed meats have again gone up. Dealers were again notified this morning of an advance in that line. The markets in the East are likewise very excited and quotations there are on the rampage. Receipts of meats in the local markets are somewhat more liberal today, but the demand has grown so heavy on account of the top prices on packed meats that the markets are kept constantly cleaned up. No changes have been made in the quotations of local fresh meats.

Quotations on wheat were advanced quite a bit this morning, some of the rises being 2 1/2 a hundred. Walla Walla is now quoted at 65, bluestem at 68 1/2 and Valley at 64 1/2. The market is very stiff at these quotations and another rise is not unexpected.

Receipts of eggs are better, but not yet equal to the growing demand. A car and a half of Eastern have been received by local dealers. Several more cars are expected next week. No changes are noted in quotations.

Butter is stiff at current quotations. The best creamery is easily bringing 300 a pound, while dairy is still selling at 27 1/2. Country butter is dull at 15 1/2 a cwt.

Hops are picking up and more sales are reported. According to a prominent dealer at Aurora the reported sale of a lot of hops at Butteville for 21 cents is untrue. Hops are selling in that locality at 24 cents a pound. Most of the growers are still holding for 26 cents.

ARMOUR IS KING

Of Chicago Corn Situation. STOCKS ARE RISING Since Strike Settlement—Money Market Is Easy—Live Stock Market.

Furnished from Special Wires to Bolton, De Ruyter & Co., 402 Third Street. CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The Record-Herald says: The corn market has developed into a most interesting affair. The December motive is now almost entirely in the Armour attitude. Patten is out of the future entirely. His shorts are all cleared up. The Armour long interest is supposed to be so large that scalping operations which are under way all the time, the selling on rallies and buying back on breaks, make no great difference in the market. The big December holders continue to buy the cash corn and to ship it out. But there is an unusual strong cash situation with the easy paying 8 to 10 cent premium over the December for the No. 3 and No. 3 yellow at Kansas City. The new No. 3 corn yesterday was 5 to 6 cents over the Chicago December price. So that in December corn now as in September wheat last month the Armour people seem merely to have seized upon a legitimate situation in advance of other people. But pretty nearly everybody else who is long on December corn is now talling after the big holder. But the corn interest is not entirely in the December. The E. F. party have a great line bought for May and are predicting that Elwood has had a lift of corn. The pit does not know whether the recent bid trade by Wrenn is for Armour or for Elwood. That house gets the orders of both, and perhaps is getting them both now. Some think that Reid has a line of December, and there has been the story for a month that Armour and Reid had some joint account interest. There is a better business doing in cash oats. Sales from here yesterday were 200,000 bushels. The Cecil people have been bidding better than Chicago prices through Ohio for Akron of late and getting very few. They are also buying at Minneapolis and Duluth and paying high prices without getting many. It is believed the territory east of Chicago has sold its surplus pretty well.

IRRIGATIONISTS MEET AGAIN

Decide on Having a State Convention on November 18—Arrangements Made.

The Oregon Irrigation Association held another meeting last night, at which the organizers, A. H. Devera, James M. Moore, J. C. Moreland, C. H. McIsaac, Henry E. Reid, C. C. Hutcheon, and J. N. Williamson, were present, as were also A. M. Drake and A. King Wilson. As decided at the organization meeting yesterday morning President A. H. Devera appointed the following committee to investigate the status of all irrigation enterprises undertaken in the state of Oregon under the terms of the Carey land act. The committee appointed are as follows: Henry Hahn, of Portland; J. N. Williamson, of Prineville; James M. Moore, Portland; L. W. Hope, Vale, and F. D. McCully, Joseph.

CONVENTION NOVEMBER 18. Arrangements were made for a convention to be held here which 40 delegates from all over the state will attend. The following apportionment for delegates was made: To be appointed:

By the Governor, 20 delegates; by Mayors of cities, two delegates, and one additional for every 2500 people or major fraction of that number; by each Board of County Commissioners, two delegates; by each "commercial" organization, two delegates and one for each 50 members; by each irrigation company, two delegates; by the State University, State Agricultural College, Experiment Station and each State Normal School, each two delegates.

EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS. The following were declared ex-officio members: The Governor, the Secretary and the Treasurer of the state of Oregon; the members of the State Board of Agriculture; the members of the State Board of Horticulture; the State Biologist; the State Game and Fish Warden; the State Fish Commissioner; the State Dairy and Food Commissioner; members of the Legislative Assembly of the state of Oregon; the State Veterinarian; the State Land Agent; United States Senators and Representatives in Congress of the state of Oregon; County Judges, Commissioners and Surveyors of incorporated cities; all members in good standing of the National Irrigation Association; the Governor-elect of the state of Oregon.

A MONEY SAVER

Saturday's Big Sale of Suits and Overcoats for $8.65, at the Lion Store. Union-made suits and overcoats that are right up to the hour in style, made slight, cut-right and one $12 to $15 value, will be placed on sale, commencing Saturday morning at the special sale price of $8.65.

Just a snap in suits and overcoats—that's all. What have we lost our heads? Not for a minute! We don't like to lose money any more than you do; but we can be generous with other people's losses.

A big maker sacrificed his profits in selling us these garments—no matter who—no matter where—it's all right.

We've done all the looking; all you've got to do is to come, buy what you like, jingle the money in your pocket that you save, and come right back to us the minute you're sorry you did it and we'll refund your money to you.

What we advertise we do, and when you read it in our advertisements it's true. Yes, sir; this is a big suit and overcoat snap, and don't you miss it.

Many Buy Stocks. NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Chronicle says: The settlement of the coal strike and improving conditions in the money market are the incentives behind the present buying of stocks and there is a confident feeling among conservative operators that purchases are in order on moderate recessions. It is argued that the shake out of the past month has resulted in a very stable speculative situation. Banking interests have the stocks and have been buying them during two weeks of tight money when prices had no great decline. It is the old story of lightning change in speculative temper, following a readjustment of holdings occasioned by purely local causes, the latter being manipulated on the fact that favorable crop and industrial conditions are not altered by Wall street spasms. Now that the coal strike is out of the way the indications are for a volume of general business even larger than has been done at any time this autumn, which would mean in excess of all records.

RECEPTION FOR DELEGATES.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 17.—The local Irish societies have perfected elaborate plans for the reception and entertainment of Messrs. Redmond, Dillon, Davitt and Blake, Ireland's delegates to the convention of the United Irish League of America, who are expected to reach Boston this evening. Accompanying the delegation Mrs. John Martin, a sister of John Mitchell, who has come to this country as the special representative of the women of Ireland. The convention will begin its sessions in Faneuil hall next Monday and will continue through the week. Besides the delegates from abroad representative Irish-Americans from all parts of the country are expected to be present.

L. O. O. F. HOME.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 17.—The Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Home of Virginia is in special session here today, Governor Montague presiding, for the purpose of discussing a site for the Odd Fellows' Home. Lynchburg, Fredericksburg and Salem are applicants for the site. Each city has made inviting offers and the ultimate selection is problematical.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 17.—Opening—Wheat—December, 6-10 1/2¢ higher; March, 5-11 1/2¢ higher.
Corn—January, 4-4 1/4¢ higher; March, 4-2 1/2¢ higher.
Cotton—Futures opened unchanged to 1 advance and now steady at 2 points advance. Compared with yesterday's closing this is better than the traders anticipated and should lead to reaction on this decline. Few will care to remain short over Sunday unless the weather shows up well.

THE HOP MARKET
Heavy Sales Reported at Salem at 25 Cents.

SALEM, Oct. 17.—The general hop market is strong, with an upward tendency, according to the statement of one of the leading hop dealers of this city, who has prominent business connections in New York, Boston, London and on the Continent. He states that the latest reports from his Eastern connections indicate a strong market and a gradual advance, and he predicts that the market here will respond soon in sympathy with the advance in the East.

Kirkpatrick & Williams, of Dallas, yesterday purchased 50 bales of choice hops in Polk County at 25 cents. This is reported to have been a bona fide sale, and the lot was purchased on an order from the East.

H. J. Miller, of Aurora, also purchased a lot at Hubbard at 24 cents. The report was received here by a local dealer yesterday that Herman Klobner, of Tacoma, had purchased the J. C. Bush lot of 110 bales, at Chehalis at 25 cents. This was reported to be a bona fide sale, and local dealers stated that this would open the market at that price.
