

OREGON CITY WAS AFRAID OF BEING KILLED

Chris Compita, of Aurora, Adjudged Insane.

OREGON CITY, Oct. 21.—Chris Compita, of Aurora, was taken before County Judge Ryan yesterday by his brother who brought him to town to have him examined as to his sanity.

Popular Couple Married.

Fred J. Meindl and Lorena Lazelle were married at the home of the bride's father, between Mt. Pleasant and New Era, Sunday afternoon.

Woodmen Will Entertain.

The local lodge of the Woodmen of the World will entertain a large number of members of the same order from Portland at their big entertainment this evening.

Mil's Again Running.

Four of the Willamette Mills started up again yesterday after standing idle for several days because of low water.

Personal Notes.

Mrs. N. R. Lang left for San Francisco last evening on receipt of the news of the death of a dear relative.

WALLA WALLA LOCAL FIGHT

Brings Some Republicans Into Antagonism With Ankeny Forces.

WALLA WALLA, Oct. 21.—It would appear at the present stage of the political battle in this county that all the Democratic and anti-Ankeny Republican strength was being exerted to prevent a solid delegation going to the Legislature from this county in the interests of Levi Ankeny, candidate for the United States Senate.

WALLA WALLA LOCAL FIGHT

Brings Some Republicans Into Antagonism With Ankeny Forces.

It is generally conceded that Frank Kees, now Sheriff and candidate for the Legislature, and E. M. Denton, from the remaining district of Walla Walla county, both Republicans, are certain of election.

advisability of a railroad commission, he is still the champion of the farmer, and that he can secure more through friendly relations with the railroads than Governor McBride can hope or the Democrats force through antagonizing the corporations.

McMINNVILLE NEWSPAPER MEN HOLD MEETING

Editors Organize a County Association at McMinnville.

McMINNVILLE, Oct. 21.—A number of newspaper men of Yamhill County met in this city last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a county association of newspaper men.

Saloons Will Be an Issue.

As the time for the city election draws near, it is evident that there will be an effort made on the part of the temperance people, to elect candidates who are opposed to saloons.

McMinnville Notes.

Rev. G. R. Cairns, assisted by the blind singing evangelists, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Baker, is holding revival meetings at the Baptist Church this week.

INDEPENDENCE A SCRAMBLE FOR NICKELS

A Dallas Hop Grower's Method of Celebrating High Prices.

Escaped Prisoner Recaptured.

R. G. Marshland, the young man who escaped from the county jail, was recaptured near Silver last week.

Formerly of Polk County.

Albert Dray, who was killed by a train near Ostrander, Wash., was a former well-known resident of this county.

HILLSBORO WAGON BRIDGE IS COMPLETED

New Structure at Hillsboro Erected at a Cost of $4000.

HILLSBORO, Oct. 21.—The long bridge west of town which has been closed to travel for over two months, was completed last night and travel resumed.

Hillsboro Notes.

The contract for keeping the county poor has been awarded by the County Court to A. J. Roy. Roy will receive $9 per month for each inmate and pay $29 per year rental for the Poor Farm.

SALEM FROM DALLAS TO FALLS CITY

New Railroad That Will Develop a Fine Section of Country.

SALEM, Oct. 21.—J. G. Van Orsdel, of Dallas, former Sheriff of Polk County, and right-of-way agent for the Dallas, Falls City & Pacific Railroad, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

Petition for Guardianship.

A petition was yesterday filed in the Probate Court by A. O. Damon, a merchant of this city, for guardianship of the estate of A. H. Damon, who was recently committed to the insane asylum.

Two More Unfortunates.

Everett L. Brown was yesterday brought to the insane asylum for treatment. He is a clerk by occupation, and his mental derangement is the result of epilepsy.

Salern Briefs.

J. H. Campbell, Jr., engineer of the Salem Fire Department, has resigned his position, and left yesterday for Gem, Idaho, where he has accepted a position as engineer in a mine.

ALBANY HOPS BRING GOOD PRICES

Great Activity in the Market in Linn County—Several Lots Sold.

ALBANY, Oct. 21.—Joseph Hume, a prominent hop buyer and raiser of Brownsville, who buys for Faber & Neils, of this city, is in town arranging for the handling of the 1902 hops.

HILLSBORO WAGON BRIDGE IS COMPLETED

New Structure at Hillsboro Erected at a Cost of $4000.

HILLSBORO, Oct. 21.—The long bridge west of town which has been closed to travel for over two months, was completed last night and travel resumed.

Hillsboro Notes.

The contract for keeping the county poor has been awarded by the County Court to A. J. Roy. Roy will receive $9 per month for each inmate and pay $29 per year rental for the Poor Farm.

Football Notes.

Multnomah has challenged Albany for a match game to be played at Portland Saturday, either Oct. 25 or Nov. 1.

the McMinnville team, and now one of the force on the Albany Herald, will act as an official in the game between Whitman College and the U. of O., at Eugene next Wednesday.

Personal Notes.

Ed Parker, who is in the stock business out in Crook County, is in Albany visiting his mother, Mrs. E. A. Parker.

OSWEGO OWEGO WANTS NO SALOONS

A Petition to Issue License Aroused Indignation.

OSWEGO, Oct. 21.—That property has its drawbacks the law-abiding citizens of the place have been made to realize, for the most intense feeling has been created by a petition for saloon license being circulated the past week.

Improvement Association.

To be in the march of progress, an organization was formed last Friday evening to be known as "The Oswego Improvement Association."

Survey Completed.

The preliminary survey for the electric road for which a franchise was granted some months ago has been completed.

Oswego Notes.

Property the past week has exchanged hands at a rate unprecedented in the history of the place. The Oregon Iron & Steel Company has made several important sales.

ROSEBURG NEW ADDITION ON THE MARKET

Nice Property for Residence Purposes at Reasonable Prices.

ROSEBURG, Oct. 21.—Louis Barzle, C. A. Schellene, A. D. Clink, A. H. Gray and A. E. Clayton of Roseburg have bought all the available property in the Riverside addition to this city.

Roseburg Notes.

Mrs. M. A. Wagner of Glendale, aged 71 years, was examined before the County Board today and adjudged insane and committed to the asylum.

CELEBRATE NELSON'S VICTORY

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Trafalgar Day was celebrated today in the usual fashion throughout England, Nelson's flagship, the Victory, was hung with wreaths and flags at Portsmouth, and Nelson's column, in Trafalgar square, London, was likewise adorned with wreaths.

Regulator Line.

Regulator line cameras from Oak street dock at 7 a. m. Best and fastest line of steamers for the Dalles, Lytle, Hood River, White Salmon, St. Martins Hot Springs, Cascade Locks, Moffet's Hot Springs, and all middle Columbia River and Kllickitat Valley points.

EUGENE HIGHEST PRICE OF THE SEASONS

John Anderson, Eugene, Disposes of His Hops at 25 1-4 Cents.

(Journal Special Service.)

EUGENE, Oct. 21.—John Anderson, who owns a hop yard between Eugene and Springfield, today sold his entire crop of 146 bales to F. E. Dunn, a local dealer, at 25 1/4 cents per pound, which is the highest price paid in Oregon this year.

Manila Itch at Eugene.

The Board of Directors of Eugene School District met today to discuss the advisability of discontinuing the sessions of the schools for the present on account of the prevalence of a contagion called Manila Itch, and thought by many to be a light form of smallpox.

Booth-Kelly Operations.

The Booth-Kelly Lumber Company has commenced moving its Saginaw mill No. 2 to its new location of Gettings Creek, about three miles south of where it is now situated.

STATE BRIEFS.

The Eastern movement of sheep on Oregon ranges this fall is heavier than ever before. Already 200,000 have been exported.

The enrollment of pupils in the city schools of Astoria for September was 125, an increase of 44 over the corresponding month of 1901.

Governor Geer has appointed E. A. Bailey, of Gold Beach, County Judge of Curry County, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge M. Riley.

E. L. Palmer has been granted a franchise for an electric railroad in Baker City. Construction will begin next spring, and Eagle Creek will furnish the power.

Silas Rucker, an old man 67 years of age, dropped dead in a pasture on Lower Powder River, in Baker County, last Thursday, the victim of organic heart trouble.

Pianos to the value of $5000 were consumed by flames at Umatilla, a few days ago. They were burned in a box car set on fire by tramps, any trace of whom has not yet been discovered.

The printers of Oregon City have organized a Typographical Union with eight charter members. This is the first time an attempt has been made to unionize the printing offices of Oregon City.

The registration of students in the University of Oregon, exclusive of the musical, medical and law departments, number 25 up to noon Monday. The registration of the year will probably be over 300.

The Columbia River Development Co. has been organized at Condon, with a capital stock of $50,000. The company intends to bore for oil along the Columbia River and have purchased the necessary machinery.

The Pomeroy dredger, which represents an investment of $25,000, is working steadily on the gold bars of the John Day River, about one mile from John Daytown. The great dredger is taking out a goodly amount of gold.

A deed was filed with the County Recorder of Grant County last week in which the Cougar, Wildcat, Tomboy and Modoc claims are transferred to the Cougar Gold Mining Company. The consideration named in the deed is $2,500,000.

A new town, to be called Boring, has sprung up in the very center of a belt of heavy timber on the line of the new railway running through Gresham. Two months ago the spot was a dense wilderness. The town now boasts of fifteen houses, and the mill has orders for lumber for three more.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

The total city registration of Vancouver, Wash., is 775, which is a gain of about 100 over two years ago.

The Barker Hotel at Chesaw, Wash., was burned Monday. The loss is $3000; insurance, $4000. It was the finest hotel in Chelan county.

Sam Peterson, an Indian, committed suicide Monday in Silvana by shooting himself through the body. He was recovering from a spree.

Fred Williams, of Forest Grove, Ore., was killed near Tenino, Wash., Monday, by being struck by a locomotive. The dead man was employed at Perry's mill, near Bucoda.

Clarence Bowker, a popular young man of Wilson Creek, Wash., fell dead just at the close of a dance in the Fairfield schoolhouse Friday night. Heart failure is given as the cause.

John Lathrum, Republican nominee for Senator in the Ninth District of Washington, died at Colfax Sunday. His death was a shock to Whitman county, as few had heard of his illness.

Frank Brown, a logger formerly of Cadillac, Mich., was found dead in Arlington, Wash., Monday morning, from the effects of arsenic. The body was found lying in a pig pen.

Cal Hifferman, who formerly was identified with the Penobscot Hotel at Snohomish, was killed while felling a tree Saturday. The tree kicked back and struck Hifferman, crushing him.

More persons have been caught at Spokane and convicted of counterfeiting during the past five years than have been

Advertisement for A.B. Steinbach & Co. RAINCOATS GALORE "Cravenette" Is the PERFECT Raincoat. Tailored like our smallest overcoats and from similar patterns—they give mackintosh service with top-coat comfort, they are porous to air, non-odorous and storm-proof. MEN'S CRAVENETTES $15 to $30 YOUTHS' CRAVENETTES $14 and $15. GENTLEMEN'S UMBRELLAS—steel rods, Paragon frames, plain natural wood and bone handles, $1 and up.

Advertisement for Convenience ELECTRIC LIGHT Provides it at an extremely low price; eliminates the necessity of matches; insures an absence of smoke and odors; guarantees a pure atmosphere. The safest method of lighting—no flame to ignite draperies or other inflammable materials. EDISON LAMPS Delivered to your home by us at $1.75 PER DOZEN. Portland General Electric Company SEVENTH AND ALDER STREETS

Advertisement for OLD KENTUCKY HOME CLUB O.P.S. WHISKEY Favorite American Whiskey. BLUMAUER & HOCH, Sole Distributors Wholesale Liquor and Cigar Dealers, 108-110 Fourth St.

Advertisement for Banfield-Veysey Fuel Co. SLAB WOOD Get your orders in early and give your wood a chance to dry. Office: No. 80 THIRD STREET Ore. Phone, Main 353; Columbia 373. PORTLAND, OREGON

Advertisement for Drink the Old and Renowned Gambrinus Lager Beer Send orders for Bottled Beer to OFFICE, 293 WASHINGTON STREET Telephone No. Main 49—Both Phones brought to justice at all other points in Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Alaska. It is left to the voters of the county as to whether Walla Walla is to have an annual County Fair. The people will be given an opportunity to vote for a half-mill tax for the purchasing and maintaining of land for Fair grounds.

At Everett, Wash., Monday, Rene Arnabach killed herself and her husband with three shots from a revolver. The dead woman was a writer for foreign magazines. She left a letter in which she signified for her home in Paris. The couple had been married only eight months.

Three deliberate attempts were made to burn the town of Aberdeen, Wash., Monday night. One fire was put out and the others did not get a start. Six months ago similar attempts were made to burn the town, the incendiary being caught. He is now serving a term at Walla Walla.

The per capita debt of Spokane, including special assessments against the property of individuals, is $71.02, with an average of $35.40 in property belonging to each individual. Portland shows $58.97 debt with $461.25 assets, Seattle $38.40 debt with $477.57 assets, Tacoma $110.99 with $329.45 assets.

LADIES' KENNEL CLUB SHOW. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The Ladies' Kennel Association of America has a great day for the opening of its second annual bench show in Madison Square Garden. A regular holiday crowd was present and society was much in evidence. The entry list is also a record-breaker, there being more than 1000 purebred canines entered. The breeds most strongly represented are: Field and cocker spaniels, Boston terriers, fox terriers, Great Danes, St. Bernards, collies, beagles, French bulldogs, poodles and toy spaniels.