

SALEM

SUPREME COURT

St. Raynor Disbarment Case Argued and Submitted.

SALEM, Oct. 22.—In the Supreme Court yesterday the case of the State of Oregon, et al., F. D. Chamberlain, against Harry St. Raynor, was argued and submitted. This is the disbarment proceeding brought against Mr. St. Raynor, an attorney of Portland, wherein he is charged with changing two pages of the record in the Frank McDaniels murder case in Portland, over a year ago. The case was hotly contested before the court, General George H. Williams, A. B. Clark and Colonel E. C. Spencer appearing for the defendant, and F. D. Chamberlain for the state.

The appeal case of M. B. Davison et al., respondents, vs. J. L. Akin, executor, appellant, an official from Benton County, was also argued and submitted by E. R. Bryson for respondent and J. K. Weatherford for appellant.

In the appeal case of C. O. Bergman, respondent, vs. Inman, Poulsen & Co., et al., appellants, it was ordered on stipulation that appellants' time to serve and file their brief be extended 30 days from this date.

The Hop Market.

Hops are moving rapidly in some sections of the hop district surrounding Salem, the price paid being generally 25 cents. Yesterday several lots were sold. Faber & Neis of this city purchased the David Dove crop of 155 bales, the W. Pagenoop lot of 35 bales, both of Independence, and the Lile & Owen lot of 120 bales, and the J. C. Anderson crop of 110 bales, both at Eugene, the price paid being 25 cents and better. Kirkpatrick & Williams of Dallas purchased the James Meyers crop at Smithfield, 250 bales, at 25 cents. Other lots are reported sold, but definite information was not obtainable.

Salem Briefs.

The remains of Frank E. Nelson, who was killed at the Gold Creek mines, east of Mehama, in this county, were brought to Salem yesterday afternoon. Coroner A. M. Clough decided that an inquest was not necessary, and the remains will this afternoon be given burial in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery. The young man belonged to that lodge.

Governor T. T. Geer leaves today for Eastern Oregon for a few days' visit. He will spend a short time at Cove, Union County, to visit his father, who resides there, and will stop in other points before returning home.

County Judge John H. Scott, Commissioner I. G. Needham and Road Master W. J. Culver, were on a tour of inspection yesterday, inspecting roads and bridges east of Salem. Two new bridges near this city were examined and approved and some new roads recently constructed were inspected.

ALBANY

NEWBERG OUT OF IT

Pacific College Will Have No Football Team.

ALBANY, Oct. 22.—W. L. Marks, president of the College Athletic League of Oregon, received a letter from Pacific College at Newberg, announcing that Newberg will have no football team this year. This puts another competitor out of the league. Dallas, which was to be a contestant for the pennant this year, is also out of it.

The Albany boys of confident winning in the game at Salem, October 20. Coach Edwards is in favor of not too large a score, however, and is giving the boys special training in speed work, proposing to make it a swift, strenuous game from start to finish.

Albany Briefs.

A new city directory shows a marked increase in the business capacity of Albany in the last three years.

Work on the new public school building here was completed today, and the furniture was put in two of the rooms. The entire building will be in use in a few days.

THE DALLES

VALUES INCREASING

Population Growing and Big Demand for Houses.

(Journal Special Service.) THE DALLES, Oct. 22.—An unmistakable proof that the population of this city is daily increasing is the scarcity of houses. Real estate men tell us that it is impossible to supply the demand for good houses. This demand is not confined entirely to houses alone, as persons who have furnished rooms to let have as much difficulty whatever in finding occupants for them. The outcome of this cannot be other than increase the value of city property. Farm lands in this vicinity have already advanced several dollars per acre, and if the immigration this fall is very strong they will continue to grow in value.

Personal Notes.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Erwin showed the high favor in which the family is held by giving them a farewell party Tuesday evening. The time was spent in games on various kinds and the evening closed with refreshments. Mr. Erwin, who has been cashier for the O. R. & N. Company in this city for some time, has been appointed agent for the company at Astoria, for which place he left yesterday morning. Mrs. Erwin and family will follow in a short time.

Dr. Reuter returned yesterday from Portland. He was accompanied by his sisters, the Misses Elizabeth and Dora, who have been visiting friends for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Dietzel returned yesterday from a short visit with friends in that city.

The friends of Mr. Smith French were pleased to see him once more on the streets, although he will not be able to take an active part in business for some little time yet. Still everyone is pleased to see him improving so rapidly.

PENDLETON

COMBINE FACTORY

Pendleton People Are About to Subscribe $25,000.

PENDLETON, Oct. 22.—If the citizens of Pendleton will subscribe $25,000 worth of preferred stock in the Rigby-Clove Combine Company, the institution will be located at this place and work on the construction of the factory will begin at once in order that a number of machines may be turned out in time for the next season's work. The executive committee of the Commercial Association held a meeting Monday afternoon at which time the proposition was discussed and it was decided to call a mass meeting of the citizens at some near future date to see what the sentiment of the people is regarding the same. The members of the committee were highly in favor of locating the factory in Pendleton and were greatly impressed with the above proposition as made by the promoters of the affair.

Short Term of Court.

The October term of the District Court for Umatilla County adjourned Tuesday morning after being in session for one week and a day. This is said to have been the shortest and most economical term of court held in the Umatilla County court house for many years. The criminal docket consisted only of eight cases and these have all been dealt with except two.

Wants a Divorce.

John Caplinger asks that he be given a divorce from Sarah E. Caplinger. Mr. Caplinger claims that defendant has developed a violent temper and calls him names and threatens to do him bodily harm and he is afraid she will carry out her threats, therefore, he wants to be freed once more. The Caplingers are quite well known in Umatilla County, where they have lived for years and have accumulated a vast amount of property.

Pendleton Notes.

Real estate seems to be moving pretty lively. The office of the County Recorder is continually flooded with deeds. Mortgages are also quite numerous and some of them for large amounts.

E. N. LeRoy was exonerated from the charge of shooting at Clarence Penland by a jury in the District Court. The evidence was not strong enough and the past character of the accused had much weight with the 12 men in whose hands his fate hung.

Viola Lodge, A. O. U. W., and Magnolia Lodge, D. of H., celebrated the 33rd anniversary of the order Tuesday night. Grand Master William Smith and Grand Chief of Honor Laura A. Smith, were present.

GRANTS PASS

WAGE SCALE POSTED

Grants Pass Labor Unions Demand More Pay.

GRANTS PASS, Oct. 22.—The Grants Pass Federated Labor Union has adopted a wage scale and posted notices to the effect that the wages as set down in the scale will be demanded after November 1. It is likely that some trouble will arise unless an adjustment is made in the meantime, as there are several institutions here that are not paying as high wages as are marked in the scale.

A Boom Is On.

Real estate is rapidly increasing in value. People are rushing in here to take up all the land in the vicinity, and the hotels are filled with timber buyers and

EUGENE

WHITMAN DEFEATED

Pretty Game of Football in the University Town.

(Journal Special Service.) EUGENE, Oct. 22.—The football game played here yesterday afternoon between the University of Oregon and Whitman College eleven, resulting in a score of 6 to 0 in favor of U. O., was a far different game than was played last Saturday when U. O. and Albany College played a tie, neither team scoring. The game today was a pretty exhibition of football, both sides playing a fine game. Unlike the game Saturday very few blunders were made.

The day was an ideal one for football and the grounds were in splendid condition. The large crowd in attendance was very noisy with enthusiasm and almost went wild when U. O. scored.

In the first part of the game, Whitman was too confident of winning and did not put up the game that they did after U. O. secured the touchdown, which was made by Captain Watts in 15 minutes after the play commenced. After that Whitman rallied and came near scoring in the first half, and in the second half had the ball in U. O.'s territory a greater part of the time.

A reception was given the visiting team by the cadets of the University in the dormitory last evening.

Death of Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. Mary A. Thompson, aged 70 years, died this morning from heart trouble at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. West, on the McKenzie, five miles northeast of Eugene.

Large Hop Sale. Frank Page, agent for Taber & Neis, of Salem, today purchased from F. E. Dunn 104 bales of hops, paying 25 cents per pound for them.

Newspaper Changes Hands. Our local newspaper, the Drain Nonpareil, recently changed hands, the management passing from John W. Kelly, who is an old veteran in the newspaper business, to Frank B. Rogers, of Gardiner, who comes highly recommended, not only as a newspaper man of experience but as an honorable and upright citizen in every respect.

Personal Mention. Along social lines we note: Mrs. Josephine E. Dulley, of Brazil, South America, is at present visiting her cousin, Mrs. Joseph Lyons, in this town. Her husband is part owner of one of the largest coffee plantations in the world.

Mr. J. Grant Hefty, who has become thoroughly identified with the government topographical engineers on this coast, his period of service extending back over the past five or six years, and his various duties of labor extending from Southern California to Alaska, has just returned from northeastern Washington, where his party covered a territory of 100 square miles in extent during the past summer.

Miss Louisa Shields, of Kansas, who is at present on the coast as organizer for the Young Woman's Christian Association, was in Drain on Sunday last and spoke in the evening at the Methodist church along the line of her work, the evening service at that place being in charge of the Epworth League. A special feature of her work is the organization of societies in the leading educational institutions of the country.

Personal Notes. Mrs. A. J. Cooper left this week in response to a telegram to be at the bedside of a son, Curtis L. Cooper, at Cle Elum, Wash. Mr. Cooper was injured by falling from a roof on which he was working.

Mrs. F. H. Cankey, of Dallas, has moved to Independence to make her future home. She will reside in Hon. Geo. L. Hawkin's residence on Railroad street.

MYRTLE CREEK

A NEW SAWMILL

MYRTLE CREEK, Oct. 22.—W. P. Johnson began work Monday clearing off a mill site on the L. E. Weaver place, six miles from town, and as soon as the work can be done will put up a saw mill of 35,000 feet daily capacity. This mill will only remain temporarily at the present location, for the purpose of cutting 1,000,000 feet of lumber necessary to construct a log boom from there to town. When the boom is completed the mill will be removed to this place and other machinery added to bring it up to a 100,000 feet daily capacity. This work is to be completed and the mill running within two years.

miners. Old men who have lived in the mountains of Josephine County for years are now in Grants Pass selling their mining property to Eastern people who are witnessing the boom.

Grants Pass Briefs.

All is in readiness for work to begin on the Crescent City and Grants Pass Railroad, and the Board of Trade is patiently awaiting the arrival of Colonel Draper, the general manager, who is ill in San Francisco.

The Greenback, one of the richest quartz mines in Oregon, is putting in a 20-stamp mill. The machinery has been shipped from Portland.

C. B. Wilson, J. C. Whipp and C. C. Caldwell are here from Jackson County for the purpose of closing some deals for Josephine County mines.

DRAIN

A THRIVING TOWN

Many Substantial Improvements Are Being Made.

(Journal Special Service.) DRAIN, Oct. 22.—The town is enjoying the most rapid and substantial growth in its history, there being no less than six new dwellings now in course of construction, some just beginning, others nearly completed, also one two-story brick business house 2500 feet, nearly finished. This is not a boom in any sense but a natural and legitimate growth. Many newcomers have located in and about the town within the past six months and there is not a vacant house, and people are being turned elsewhere for want of an abiding place here.

Personal Mention. John B. Davida is in town looking after business interests.

Miss Hazel Pillsbury, of Portland, is visiting with Oregon City friends yesterday.

T. A. Campan and Ernestia Peter were granted a marriage license yesterday.

OREGON CITY

NEARLY A WRECK

Narrow Escape of a Heavily Loaded Freight Train.

OREGON CITY, Oct. 22.—A narrow escape from a serious wreck occurred last night at 11:30 o'clock as a heavily loaded freight train was passing through Canemah, north-bound. The accident happened on an S-shaped curve in front of Quinn's house. The train was running faster than usual which put too much strain on the posts along the side of a car loaded with heavy timbers and plankings. When this car tried to make the sharp curve the braces gave away and the load was dumped into the river, which is so close that it is possible for a man to jump from a train into the water. The car kept the rails and the train passed on without stopping until it reached this city. A narrow sidewalk was torn away, but aside from this no other damage was done. As this is one of the most dangerous places on the railroad system it is considered a matter of great luck that one of the timbers did not fall across the rails in such a manner as to put the whole train into the river. A gang of men are this morning clearing away the scattered lumber.

Threatened Their Lives. George Pfister, a farmer living near New Era, was brought to town last evening by Constable Moody to be examined on the charge of insanity. He has lived apart from his wife and family for several years and did not molest them until lately, when he has repeatedly threatened their lives. Several nights ago he tried to force an entrance into the house, intent on doing damage, but this resulted in his arrest. His examination was held this morning before Judge Ryan.

Another Divorce Wanted. Mary Robinson, through her attorney, Howard Brownell, has started a divorce suit in the Circuit Court. She complains and alleges that her husband, Frank Robinson, is cruel and inhuman to her, that in July of this year he threatened to kill her, and that on October 17 of this year he tried to carry out his threats by attempting to use a razor on her. She claims it was a close shave and now wants a divorce before he can do further harm. They were married in Eugene, August 21, 1890, and they have three children, which she asks to be allowed to keep.

Only Chickenpox. The smallpox scare which has made the people of Clackamas quite uneasy during the last several days, proves to be nothing more serious than a few chicken pox cases. The public schools were closed yesterday and will not be opened for a day or so to prevent a spread of the disease.

To Bury a Comrade. A delegation of Meade Post, No. 2, G. A. R., left this afternoon for Clackamas to attend the funeral services of Comrade J. W. Roots. He will be buried in the Clackamas cemetery. Besides leaving many war comrades Mr. Roots leaves many friends all over the state, who remember him as one of its oldest citizens.
