

THE BRIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

OREGON DAILY JOURNAL

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY.

OCT. 25, 1922.

THE UPPER TEN AND THE LOWER FIVE.

INSTANCES OF CHARACTERISTIC DEFINITIONS IN AND OUT OF THE "400."

Miss Penelope Gotrox's beau is called "her fiance," you know.

WHILE

Mrs. Gayton Billyuns after a night with the Smart Set is "Indisposed," don'tcher know.

BUT

In Old Upton Moneybags mansion the word passes around that "Paw-paw is very much fatigued."

WHEN

Miss Grace Brown calls her betrothed her "sweetheart."

Mrs. Jones after her household work is done merely says that she is "just a wee bit tired."

Oldboy Billy Smith starts out along the line of course it's a case of "Smith's on a bat again!"

HOW THE TACKLES TACKLED PERGY

or his first experience on the gridiron.
