

CALLS ISSUED FOR IRRIGATION CONVENTION TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 18 AND 19

Provision Made for About 400 Delegates—Ex-Officio Members.

The following call has been issued and will be sent to all the public officers in Oregon and to all persons interested in the irrigation of the arid lands in this state:

ONE SCRAP OF WESTERN LIFE

Anniversary of a Benefactor of Southern Pacific Employees.

Yesterday was an anniversary of a little clear story, down town, by name much to one man and his heroic little wife.

Three years ago F. G. Lentz, a Southern Pacific fireman, while stopping over to put a fire into the furnace, was struck on the back of the head by a stick of wood, which rolled down from the back of the tank.

MARKET DAY TO BETTER SALES

Albany Citizens Discuss a Plan That May Help Town.

ALBANY, Oct. 29.—A number of prominent citizens of Albany met yesterday for the purpose of perfecting a market day scheme, which has been under discussion here for a long time.

Let the word go out that Portland bustles; and better yet, let everybody bustle. You know what hustle means, don't you? If you don't, take The Journal only 10 cents a week by carrier; $4 per year by mail.

STRIKES RICH BODY OF ORE RECENT TROUBLE IS SETTLED

Sale of a Lot of Hops Indicates a Sharp Advance.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 29.—F. E. Sharkey, one of the owners of the Lucky Boy mine in the Blue River district brings to Eugene the news of a very rich strike made in the mine a few days ago.

PRESIDENT'S TALK

Establishment of a State Trout Hatchery Is Strongly Urged.

A meeting of the Oregon Fish and Game Association was held last night in the Mining Stock Exchange Building, with a very satisfactory attendance.

TO SAVE THE FISH

Fish and Game Association Meets.

SALEM, Oct. 29.—P. L. Martineau, representing H. B. Montney, a fruit dealer of Bordeaux, France, and L. Chagaray, of the firm of Henri Chagaray, of Le Havre, France, who have spent the past three months on the Pacific Coast, purchasing prunes for the French market, have here last night for San Francisco.

THE BISHOP WAS BEFORE THE BOARD TODAY. HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—A new chapter in the Bishop Talbot case was being today when, in response to the summons of the presiding bishop, Rev. Thomas M. Clark, D. D., of Rhode Island, a board of inquiry met in Harrisburg to consider the appeal of the presenters of the matter of charges against Bishop Talbot growing out of the unfracking of the Rev. I. N. W. Irvine, D. D.

CONCERT AT WOODMAN HALL

Oregon City Musical Event Was a Great Success.

OREGON CITY, Oct. 29.—The musical event of the season was the concert given last evening at the Woodman Hall by Miss Mary Conyers.

REVOLUTION IS OVER.

PANAMA, Oct. 29.—It is believed here that the last hard blow of the revolution in Colombia has been struck. Gen. Uribe and his entire army, including 40,000 men and several thousand stands of arms, has been taken to Uribe.

OREGON PRUNES SHIPPED TO FRANCE

Bordeaux and Le Havre Merchants Leaving Salem—Local News.

SALEM, Oct. 29.—P. L. Martineau, representing H. B. Montney, a fruit dealer of Bordeaux, France, and L. Chagaray, of the firm of Henri Chagaray, of Le Havre, France, who have spent the past three months on the Pacific Coast, purchasing prunes for the French market, have here last night for San Francisco.

WHICH WILL IT BE?

St. Johns Residents Amuck Over Incorporation-Annexation Project.

St. Johns people are at outs over the annexation-incorporation project. The residents are about equally divided on the questions, some of them wanting to be annexed to the City of Portland; others to form a separate city of their own.

SMELTER FOR THE FAR NORTH

Oregon Man Will Handle Ore From Alaska Mines at Skagway.

W. F. Matlock, a well known Oregonian, who has for some years been a prominent business man of Skagway, Alaska, now proposes to erect a smelter at that point.

COVERING HYDRANTS

Fired Several Shots.

The police are investigating the firing of a number of revolver shots at the corner of East Third and East Ankeny streets last evening. The work is supposed to be done by a gang of toughs who congregate in that neighborhood.

SUED ON BILL

The Commercial Court has filed a suit in the East Side Justice court against J. B. Lummerson for the sum of $52.50 alleged to be due on an unpaid bill. Costs of the suit are also asked for.

WILL STATE PAY?

A Suit to Collect for the Keeley Cure.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 29.—Whether the State of Wisconsin will pay for the cure of a large number of drunkards after the act which made the curing of these men payable by the state, has been declared unconstitutional, is a matter that will be settled by the Supreme Court of this state.

TALBOT CASE.

The Bishop Was Before the Board Today.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—A new chapter in the Bishop Talbot case was being today when, in response to the summons of the presiding bishop, Rev. Thomas M. Clark, D. D., of Rhode Island, a board of inquiry met in Harrisburg to consider the appeal of the presenters of the matter of charges against Bishop Talbot growing out of the unfracking of the Rev. I. N. W. Irvine, D. D.

OREGON PRUNES SHIPPED TO FRANCE

Bordeaux and Le Havre Merchants Leaving Salem—Local News.

SALEM, Oct. 29.—P. L. Martineau, representing H. B. Montney, a fruit dealer of Bordeaux, France, and L. Chagaray, of the firm of Henri Chagaray, of Le Havre, France, who have spent the past three months on the Pacific Coast, purchasing prunes for the French market, have here last night for San Francisco.

NOT SO CRAZY.

A good story came out on a new attendant at the insane asylum last night. A new man was employed and sent to the upper ward in the infirmary, a few days ago, where he was expected to serve under an experienced attendant.

MR. TEAL'S ADDRESS.

MR. TEAL spoke in part as follows: "At the last session of the Legislature all of the game laws of the state were codified, new legislation enacted, and the protection of the fish and game placed on a very satisfactory basis.

TRIBUTARY HATCHERY.

"This is a most important subject. The work should be done as such a committee, and I have been assured by our delegation in Congress that they will use every effort to have one established in Oregon. The cost of a hatchery complete would probably be in the neighborhood of $25,000, and once established will be regularly provided for.

M'INNIVILLE NOTES.

McMINNVILLE, Oct. 29.—The Yamhill County Teachers' Institute is in session and in its charge of County Superintendent Littlefield, and the following corps of instructors: J. H. Ackerman, P. L. Campbell, Frank Rigler, S. Y. Gillan, H. L. Boardman, E. D. Ressler, and R. C. French.

GOES BY CRUISER.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The new cruiser Godolphin will round the Cape of Good Hope during the month of November.

ITALY IS ANGRY.

ROME, Oct. 29.—It is believed possible here that Italy may send troops against the Mad Mullah, who, it is claimed, is sending expeditions into Italian territory.

REFUSE BIG BRIBE.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—In urging the re-election of Senator Harris of Kansas getting the better of the insurgents in his career in which it says Harris will accept a $75,000 bribe to drop his fight on the debt readjustment plan proposed by the Union and Central Pacific Railway.

ACROSS THE RIVER HE RAISES PEANUTS

Louis Henricks Says Oregon Soil Is as Good as Any.

Louis Henricks, a well known resident of St. Johns, is a man who thinks that the soil of the State of Oregon is capable of raising any kind of product that is grown in any other portion of the country.

FOR LIBRARY FUND.

Fixing Williams Avenue.

The City Engineer has a large force of men at work strengthening the supports of the roadway on Williams Avenue several blocks north from the corner of Cherry street.

SMELTER FOR THE FAR NORTH

Oregon Man Will Handle Ore From Alaska Mines at Skagway.

W. F. Matlock, a well known Oregonian, who has for some years been a prominent business man of Skagway, Alaska, now proposes to erect a smelter at that point.

COVERING HYDRANTS.

Fired Several Shots.

The police are investigating the firing of a number of revolver shots at the corner of East Third and East Ankeny streets last evening. The work is supposed to be done by a gang of toughs who congregate in that neighborhood.

SUED ON BILL.

The Commercial Court has filed a suit in the East Side Justice court against J. B. Lummerson for the sum of $52.50 alleged to be due on an unpaid bill. Costs of the suit are also asked for.

WILL STATE PAY?

A Suit to Collect for the Keeley Cure.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 29.—Whether the State of Wisconsin will pay for the cure of a large number of drunkards after the act which made the curing of these men payable by the state, has been declared unconstitutional, is a matter that will be settled by the Supreme Court of this state.

TALBOT CASE.

The Bishop Was Before the Board Today.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—A new chapter in the Bishop Talbot case was being today when, in response to the summons of the presiding bishop, Rev. Thomas M. Clark, D. D., of Rhode Island, a board of inquiry met in Harrisburg to consider the appeal of the presenters of the matter of charges against Bishop Talbot growing out of the unfracking of the Rev. I. N. W. Irvine, D. D.

POWER FROM DISTANT STARS

New Force Is Discovered by Citizens of Toledo, Ohio.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 29.—The Rev. A. B. Oppy and N. S. Harms of Euclid Avenue, this city, assert that they have discovered a new force of power, having its origin in planetary electro-magnetism.

WHICH WILL IT BE?

St. Johns Residents Amuck Over Incorporation-Annexation Project.

St. Johns people are at outs over the annexation-incorporation project. The residents are about equally divided on the questions, some of them wanting to be annexed to the City of Portland; others to form a separate city of their own.

SMELTER FOR THE FAR NORTH

Oregon Man Will Handle Ore From Alaska Mines at Skagway.

W. F. Matlock, a well known Oregonian, who has for some years been a prominent business man of Skagway, Alaska, now proposes to erect a smelter at that point.

COVERING HYDRANTS.

Fired Several Shots.

The police are investigating the firing of a number of revolver shots at the corner of East Third and East Ankeny streets last evening. The work is supposed to be done by a gang of toughs who congregate in that neighborhood.

SUED ON BILL.

The Commercial Court has filed a suit in the East Side Justice court against J. B. Lummerson for the sum of $52.50 alleged to be due on an unpaid bill. Costs of the suit are also asked for.

WILL STATE PAY?

A Suit to Collect for the Keeley Cure.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 29.—Whether the State of Wisconsin will pay for the cure of a large number of drunkards after the act which made the curing of these men payable by the state, has been declared unconstitutional, is a matter that will be settled by the Supreme Court of this state.

TALBOT CASE.

The Bishop Was Before the Board Today.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—A new chapter in the Bishop Talbot case was being today when, in response to the summons of the presiding bishop, Rev. Thomas M. Clark, D. D., of Rhode Island, a board of inquiry met in Harrisburg to consider the appeal of the presenters of the matter of charges against Bishop Talbot growing out of the unfracking of the Rev. I. N. W. Irvine, D. D.

BRITISH VIEWS RUSSIA'S PLAN

Official Circles Grow Uneasy at the Outlook in the Orient.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The uneasiness in official circles in connection with the Russian designs in the Near East is increasing. The story is repeated that Russia is pressing Turkey to revive the Treaty of 1882, under which the Straits, if the treaty has not been abrogated, would have passed under Russian protection and virtual control.

THE ENGLISH PRESS COMMENTS

The Spectator Sounds a Note of Warning to the Country.

The Spectator today makes those extraordinary, complimentary comments on the possible opening of the Dardanelles to Russian warships.

ROOSEVELT TO VOTE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—On Monday President Roosevelt will go to his home at Oyster Bay in order that he may cast his vote. Upon his return to Washington Mrs. Roosevelt will accompany him.

FIREMAN KILLED.

NORFOLK, Oct. 29.—Late last night the Norfolk westbound passenger train jumped the track in Mountain Cut, near Seven Mile Ford, and a score of passengers were injured. Fireman Spicer was the only one killed.

PIANO LESSONS!

W. Gifford Nash 103 Tenth Street, near Washington Phone Front 464.

WANT A HOME?

Let Us Build for You Woodstock Portland Trust Company of Oregon, 100 THIRD STREET.

F.W. BALTES & CO. Printers

Second and Oak Streets BOTH PHONES

HAVE YOUR HANDS READ PROFESSOR STERLING

229 South Third Street The Celebrated Palmist and Psychologist has returned. PHONE, NORTH 4261.

AMERICAN Arc Pressure Lamp

For outdoor and indoor use. 750 candle-power light; made of heavy gauge brass, oxidize to capture heat from sun rays. Thousands of our lamps in use, giving perfect illumination.

COAL COAL COAL

WESTERN FEED & FUEL CO. Dealers in all kinds of Coal, Coke, Charcoal

Try the Famous ROCK SPRINGS COAL

Both Phones. Office: 124 North 5th St.

H. W. Manning's Lighting & Supply Co.

Latest Improved Gasoline Lamps. 105 Sixth Street, Portland, Oregon. Bot. Washington and Stark St.