VALLEY FLOUR SHOWS ADVANCE

Price Goes Up 10c Barrel Today.

Wheat Market Shows Steadiness With Many Foreign Sales Reported.

The Portland Flouring Mills Company this morning advanced the quotations on their several brands of Valley flour. The rise will amount to 10 cents a barrel and was caused by the continued shortage in the water supply; most of their upper river mills being run by water. The new quotations will also have the effect of easing the demand for this grade of flour, and will make a sharper call for Eastern Oregon or hard wheat varieties.

WHEAT STEADIER.
At its present quotations which is considered quite strong today. The demand for goods from South America, South Africa and Australia continues heavy. The quotations today read: Walla Walla, 9 and 70 cents; best wheat, 70 cents; valley, 8 and 70 cents.

STILL ANOTHER ON LARD.
According to the Hammond Packing Company, still another decline was made in the quotations of lard. Present quotations are about a quarter cent below those of yesterday.

The packed meat outlook is about the same as yesterday, the market keeping up its steadiness. No changes are likely to occur in the packed meat line during the present week.

There was quite an increase in the receipts of hogs and veal in the local markets today, but jobbers say that they can sell all they are getting at quotations.

TURKEY OUTLOOK STRONG.
In the turkey market there is an outlook for strong quotations during the coming holidays. Receipts up to date have not been as liberal as in former years, and advances in quotations may be expected.

Eggs are in slightly better receipt, but are not nearly up to the demand. The market is, however, still crowded with Eastern and cold-storage stock. Quotations are the same.

COFFEE DOWN AGAIN.
The Arbuckle Coffee Company has followed the lead of the Lion people and have made a decline of one-half cent a pound on their package brand. The new quotations take effect at once.

Apples are in fair supply and prices are firm at present quotations. Bananas are plentiful, but have a good demand, prices are dragging slightly on the market, but no changes have been made in prices.

DEALERS AFTER HOPS.
Hop dealers are centering around Aurora, as that is the only place where there is a large supply still in the hands of the growers. No changes were made today in quotations, but it is said that Eastern dealers are quietly making buys at advanced prices.

As revised, today's quotations are as follows:
