THE COMMERCIAL WORLD

All Grades of Flour Make Advance.

Lard Is Up a Quarter Cent on All Lines---Hops Are Inactive.

Today was a very sensational one in the local wholesale markets. The market was affected with many changes in quotations and more are in prospect.

VALLEY WHEAT UP. account of an unusual demand and the scarcity of cars in getting the pro-duct to market, the quotations on Valley wheat were advanced 3 cents a bushel this morning. No changes were made in either Walla Walla or bluestern varieties.

SOMETHING DOING IN FLOUR. In sympathy with the increasing de mand for wheat and other grains, and the advancing of quotations, the price of flour was boomed this morning. Valley flour is quoted 15 cents a barrel higher than yesterday, while the Eastern Oregon patents and straights went up 10 cents a barrel. The quotations are: Eastern Oregon patents. $3.60@$3.90; straights. $3.20@$3.30; graham, $3; valley. $3.45.

LARD UP A QUARTER. It is evident that the Eastern meat packers are trying to boom lard quotations back to the high prices of about two weeks ago. Today local dealers were no-tified that quotations had advanced a quarter of a cent a pound. The prices taking effect today are. Kettle leaf. 10s. 14%; 5s, 14%; 50s, 14%; steam rendered, 10s, 14; 5s, 14%c.

HOPS INACTIVE TODAY. The hop market was inactive today on account of the dealers being without or-Quotations are about the same as vesterday.

Though no changes appear in the potato market, the demand for that product is somewhat greater and the market is active at present quotations. No other changes appear in the local

CORNER ON CHINESE BIRDS

Two Local Dealers Form Pheasant Trust.

About 337 Birds Received in City Today---Sell at $1.25 a Pair.

A "corner" of the supply of Chinese pheasants was effected by two retailers in the city today, and no birds can be bought outside of their establishments and at their prices.

Altogether 327 birds were received in Portland this morning and they were quickly gobbled up by the combine at about $5.25 a dozen. Those who enjoy a mess of pheasants will have to pay $1.25 pair for that privilege.

Dealers say that the supply of birds is not nearly as great as expected, and advocate that measures ought to be taken at once to give the birds a better chance to breed. If this is not done the present supply will not last long.

FROM GERMAN FIRMS.

MONTREAL, Que:, Nov. 21.-Mackenzie, Mann & Co., owners of the Canadian Northern Railway and a railway in Nova Scotia, have just closed with German railmakers for 40,000 tons of rails and fastenings. This is the largest single order ever sent out of Canada, and competition for it was keen. The Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railroad have recently placed large contracts with German makers, the last named road ordering some around the Horn to Van-

ORPHANS' HOME

Walla Walla Man Would Aid Oregon and Washington.

(Journal Special Service.) WALLA WALLA, Nov. 21.-Through the filing for probate of the will of the late Joseph L. Stubblefield here late yesterday was brought to light the plans of the deceased for a home for orphans and wdows of Washington and Oregon. The sum of $100,000 is set aside from the estate of Mr. Stubblefield and the location is designated as Walla Walla, provided the people of this city will contribute an additional sum of $10,000 for grounds and buildings. The objects of the institution are the teaching of suitable and useful trades to children in order that they may be fitted to care for themselves in the world. It is thought the $10,000 can be easily raised here. Stubblefield, who was a pioneer of the Northwest, died last Sunday at the age of 84 years.

CONNECTICUT TOBACCO CROP

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 24-Damp weather has enabled tobacco growers to take down the 1902 crop. Stripping is general and many crops are in perfect condition. Late tobacco suffered from polesweat, and in several localities excessive moisture early in October resulted in mold. The tent-grown Sumatra crop has cured finely, and growers expect better prices than were procured in 1901. The sales are below the usual volume, growers expect remunerative prices be-

RACE COURSE VOCABULARY

Terse Phrases Coined and in Use by Turfmen.

The race track vernacular is forcible ful or elegant.

VERBAL DOPE.

In starting should one horse get off well in front of his field and take the lead by several lengths the cry goes up; "Whethere's nothing to it!" "He'll win "He'll come home on the bit! "Ain't it a shame to take the money?"
"He'll tin can home!" etc. Then there are corresponding phrases for all the incidents of the race, from the time the horses leave the paddock until the field

Should a horse be interfered with he is said to be "in a pocket." If the jockey is thought not to be trying to win he is called a "strong-armed guy," and "why don't he use rubber reins?" and there are various other cries of "he's pulling his head off!" "Nothing doing!" "He's a obster!" "He's stiff!" "He's a dead

"Won by a whisker." "won by an eye ash," just mizzled in," "won in a walk," won running away." are water of describing the victory of a horse over his

The old term used in speaking of third osition in a race was "to show. has been variously added to by such terms as "To peep." "to look in." "on the limb," "in the pictures." Michael Clancey, owner of St. Finnan, is given redit for the last named expression. Thomas Tandy, the colored groom of he great race mare Imp, used the slogan when the black mare was running in a race. Tandy would take a position in the nfield, and in a voice which could be heard all over the race course, he would yell, "don't wake her up!" "Let her sleep!" varied when she swung into the stretch looking a winner by, "they never did wake her up!" In the betting ring there is no end to the phrases that have been coined, such as "good things," "know something," "cinch," "hunch," "moral," "pipe," "piker," "edu "cinch," "hunch," "tout," "wise money," cated money," "plunger,"

"sucker," "railbird," "mark "mark." "sucker," "railbird." "marker," "ge down," "going down the line," "welcher, "wise guy," "father's horse," "lobster," "pay a little attention to me." "cinch player," "he blew a bet." "just bet a couple of centuries," "think he'll cop." etc. The book-makers are referred to by cynical betters as "undertakers" and "embalmers" when it is thought they are aware of "dead ones," or horses that are supposed not to be trying in a race, and their agents, who get the prices for them around the ring, as "outside men." The expression, "28." for getaway or "screw." came from the New Orleans track, and in fact nearly all of the peculiar phrases originated on the Southern and Western

THE WRESTLING BOUTS TONIGHT

Piening-Bothner to Struggle for the Championship Tonight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.-Since boxing was put under the ban in New York the sport of wrestling has probably attracted more attention in the metropolis than anywhere else in the country. A series of notable contests on the mat has been arranged for the Winter season, the first eing a match between John Piening, the Graeco-Roman wrestling champion of America, and George Bothner, the American catch-as-catch-can champion. This contest is to be decided tonight at the Grand Central Palace. Under the terms of agreement Piening, in order to win the match, will have to throw Bothner four times within an hour, catch-ascatch-can style. Since the articles were signed both men have been training faithfully, with the result that they appear to be in condition for a hard contest.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW. The Portland Academy and the Hill Military College will line up for the third time at Multnomah field tomorrow. Both teams have been in hard training and will put up a strong game.

MONMOUTH AND MCMINNVILLE. McMINNVILLE. Nov. 21 .- The Monnouth Football and Basketbarl team will play here tomorrow. The different teams will enter the contests with a determination to win and the games are expected

RAISES A ROW AT HORSE SHOW

Carrie Nation Creates a Scene in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Carrie Nation, the booze fighter from Kansas, was on the war path here yesterday. She attended the horse show where there was present the cream of New York society Carrie had her reforming clothes on, and when she observed some of the Vander bilt women in a box, with their "glad rags" on, the crusader from the Populist State, turned a tirade of abuse upon the aristicratic visitors. She said: "You people are not decent. It is a sin to wear clothes like that. You should at-tire yourselves modestly." This attack greatly embarrassed the gully-bedecked society people in that locality. Carrie was finally urged to move on. She fin-ally halted before a table where some young men were drinking champagne. She jumped on these people with both feet, and grabbed a bottle of wine and threatened to smash it by way of example. She was ejected from the building by the police. INGLESIDE RESULTS SAN FRANCISCO. Nov. 21.-Favorites again were on top yesterday. Four of them came in as per form. The track

RUSHING TACOMA CUT-OFF.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 21.-The Northern Pacific has given orders to rush work on the 22-mile branch line to be built from Coulee City, the western terminus of the Washington Central, to Adrian, on the main line of the Great Northern. This cut-off was promised last Summer by President Mellen to provide a shorter outlet from the grain fields of Central Washington to the market at Tacoma, The contractors have shipped their out-fits from St. Paul and active work will begin soon. The line will run through a rough country, but it is intended to have it finished in time to haul out a portion of this year's crop over it.
