AUCTION AT CUSTOM HOUSE

Quite an interesting scene was presented at the warerooms of the local custom house yesterday afternoon, when number of Chinese and others were en gaged in bidding on confiscated goods which were being auditoped off by Depmy United States Collector of Customs

Confiscated Goods Sold by Government Yesterday.

The following goods were sold under the hammer. One china tea set, which sold for $3,50; one case of miscellaneous wearing apparet, which brought only $1; one gun. $4.50; a lot of bamboo sticks, fish, toilet preparations, teus, matting, rigars and optum.
The matting and ten was bought by s white bloder, who paid $10 for the 20 cases of ten and $2 or roll for the five rolls of marting. Quong Lung Tal chased the 400 cans of optum at $4.10 per can, and another Chinaman bought boxes of cigars, numbering 1,500 in all, One reason why The Journal has rapidly gained circulation is that it is the only paper in Portland that dares to print the news. LEGAL NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on the 20th day of October, 1902, J. H. Griffiths of Portland, Or., was duly adjudicated bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at room 600.
