

BIG ADVANCES IN WHEAT MARKET Demand Has Forced Up Quotations.

Scarcity of Bluestem Wheat Booms Prices--The Hop Market Shows Strength.

An advance was made late yesterday afternoon in the quotations of wheat. The prices now stand: Walla Walla, 72 cents; bluestem, 79 cents; valley, 75 cents. The unusually high rates for bluestem and for the great demand. There is an upward tendency in the entire grain market.

FEED QUOTED HIGHER. The Portland Flouring Mills Company has notified dealers that hereafter the quotations on middlings will be $24 and shorts $20 a ton. No changes are made in the other varieties.

HOP MARKET STRENGTHENS. According to McKinley Mitchell, the hop market has recovered from its depression and now shows some strength. Although there are very few actual sales made, it looks as if there will be some slight advances soon in quotations. It is said that there are now about 25,000 bales in the hands of the growers. About 16,000 of these are yet in the hands of the growers. The New York market is showing additional strength and it is very likely that this market will pick up other country also cleaned up fairly well.

TURKEYS ARE SACRIFICED. Turkeys were sacrificed yesterday in the wholesale market and the entire street was cleaned up of all surplus stock. Quotations ranged from about 10 cents a pound for the poor stock to about 15 cents for choice. Other poultry also cleaned up fairly well.

MARKETS CLOSED TODAY. On account of Thanksgiving, the local wholesale markets were only open for about an hour this morning and no actual business was transacted.
