"The first Sunday in December of each year is designated and dedicated as a day on which shall be recalled in a memorial service by every lodge of Elks, the memory of departed brothers." The list of dead in whose memory the services will be held consists of 45 deceased members of the local lodge. The following members died during the past year: J. H. Nash, A. J. Sperry, George E. Withington, A. J. Abrams, George C. Sears, S. W. Aldrich, William Lewis and R. Marsch.

SCOWS WASHED AWAY.

Three scows, or bathhouses, broke loose from their moorings above the Madison street bridge this morning and swiftly glided down the river on the current. They were not occupied at the time, but one of them contained household goods. The steam launch Hoo Hoo gave chase and overtook them near the Irving dock, and towed them ashore.

Diamond Study

An intimate knowledge of Diamond values comes only of long study.

We have had the necessary experience.

Our knowledge—as well as the large stock —is at the disposal of customers.

There is no possibility of a mistaken purchase—we guarantee the quality.

We will lay aside until wanted anything purchased.

Have Your Laundry Right.

Do your collars have saw edges? Do they come home to you too stiff or with little dark spots on them? If they do, it's an objection; try our work. It's the little things we are careful of. No saw edges on our work. Prompt delivery.

CITY BRIEFS.

If city subscribers fail to secure their paper they will confer a favor if they will call up Main 800 and enter their complaints.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Light rain fell yesterday and last night in Northern California, Western Oregon, and Western Washington.
The cold wave reported yesterday in the Canadian Northwest is moving slowly southeastward, and zero temperatures are reported this morning in North Dakota and Northern Montana.

THE RIVER.

The following river readings were reported at 8 a. m. today: Portland, 24 feet; Salem, 12 feet; Albany, 34.4 feet; and Eugene, 9.8 feet. The flood crest passed Albany early this morning and the river is now falling at that station.
The state at Portland will be about 15 feet Sunday. It is not expected that it will go any higher than that.

MINNEAPOLIS WORK.

Minneapolis work, correspondence, Elgin and McCarthy, room 19, Russell Building.

but will return December 8 and will be ready for business at 28 1/2 Morrison street, room 28.

REACHED 'FRISCO.

Mr. S. O. McCalla, having apartments in Goodenough Building, this city, is nearly distracted with anxiety, and all on account of her husband, who is a commercial traveler with headquarters here.

REACHED THE CITY.

That he arrived in San Francisco all right is known, for in answer to a wire to the police there, a dispatch was received saying his baggage was at a hotel, but that nothing could be learned concerning him. He neither drinks nor gambles; then, reasons Mrs. McCalla, why should he not write, if alive? Why leave his baggage at a hotel unclaimed? Why leave the hotel in such a manner that its managers know nothing of him and the police can find nothing? She men, business men, do not neglect keeping in touch with their employers, and men happily married, accustomed for years to writing almost daily to their families, do not suddenly cease doing so. Every-man realizes the sublimity of cruelty such an act would be. These are days of mysterious tragedies, of novel crimes, and there is even no guessing as to whom the victim will be. The disappearance of McCalla may prove to be another of those unaccountable things, left forever to conjecture.

REASONS FOR CAR SHORTAGE.

Speculators Use Them as Warehouses to Loss of Companies.

It is said on good authority, that the present car shortage, and loading car congestion on Western roads is owing in large measure to the practice of con-signees of freight detaining for long periods cars before unloading them, paying all demurrage under the per diem system.

TRIXY STILL HERE.

Trixy Jordan, the girl from Spokane, who is accused of larceny, is making a hard fight against extradition. At a hearing before Justice Reid yesterday her case was continued until today. It is reported that Governor Clark has refused to sign the papers. This afternoon the case will again come up for hearing. Attorney Hume is making a hard fight to clear his client, and prevent her being taken out of the state.

FREE ENTERTAINMENT.

Tonight at 8 o'clock, at the Men's Resort, 69 North Sixth street, a stereophon lecture will be given by Rev. W. S.
Holt, D. D., on the subject, "The Celestial Land." Dr. Holt has spent ten years as an observer in China, and his lecture is a most instructive entertainment. No admission fee is charged, and all are welcome.

ANOTHER RESIGNATION.

Constructing and Designing Architect Robbins of the Great Central Railroad, has tendered his resignation to the company. It was rumored that the resignation was handed in some time ago, and that the company had accepted it. The resignation was, however, voluntary and involuntary resignations are coming in.

SUES FOR $400.

H. N. Scott filed suit in the State Circuit Court this morning against R. H.
Beversdorf and his former wife, Annie E. Williams. The plaintiff sues for payment on a $400 note executed September 14, 1898. Beversdorf was divorced in March, 1894. Scott sues defendants as husband and wife.

BARRETT SUCCEEDS BUCK.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Roosevelt has decided upon John Barrett, formerly minister to Siam, to succeed the late Minister Buck as American representative at the Japanese capital. Mr.
Barrett is now in the Orient in the interests of the St. Louis Exposition.
