MARLAN WILL BE HONORED TODAY

Banquet by Washington Promulgation of a Plan Bar Association.

Court to Celebrate the 25th Year of His Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9 .- Eminent members of the bench and bar, distinguished representatives of the federal and ing taken up afresh by the National state judiciary, are to gather about the banquet board at the New Willard Hotel tenight to do honor to Justice John Harlan of the Supreme Court of the United States. The banquet is to be given by the Washington Bar Association in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the elevation of the justice to the reme Court beach. It is designed to make the affair a national one. The President and his cabinet, the justices of the United States Supreme Court, the Speaker of the House the President of the Senate and some other men or sets will be guests of the bar, and about a thousand invitations have been sent to prominent lawyers in all parts of the country.

HIS RECORD. Justice John Marshall Harlan will soon celebrate his 70th birthday. He is a graduate of the celebrated Center Coiege. Kentucky, in which so many noted Americans imbibed their early draughts of learning. After his graduation he en-tered on the study of law at Transylvania University, now the University of Ken-tucky, and on receiving his degree took up the practice of his profession in Frank-fort and afterward in Louisville. He served as colonel of the Tenth Kentucky Regiment in the Union Army under General Thomas for two years, but resigned his commission on the death of his father in 1882. About this time he entered on his political career, filling the office of Attorney-General of Kentucky until 1867, when he returned to the practice of his profession in Louisville. He served as a member of the Louisiana Commission and also was a member of the Bering Sea tribunal in 1993.

Justice Harian was appointed to the Supreme Court bench by President Hayes on November 29, 1877, and he took the oath of office on December 10 following. His length of service on the Supreme Bench has seldom been surpassed, only seven or eight justices having excluded it. The most noted of these are stice Field, who died a few years ago after serving 34 years, and Chief Justice Marshall, who had a like term to his credit.

IN IOWA FIGHT

Shaw Is Not Mixing in Factional War.

The Rumor Causes Wide Discussion of the Situation at National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Dec, 9 .- Widespread interest attaches in administration and political circles to a story that comes from Iowa relative to Speaker Henderson. The statement is made that Speaker Henderson and Secretary Shaw, former Governor of lowa, had a long conference a few days ago in Des Moines and that the result was an understanding that Speaker Henderson should next year enter the race for the gubernatorial nomination of the Republican party against Governor A. B. Cummins. The mention of Secretary Shaw's name as a party to such a conference and to any alleged plan to wrest from Governor Cummins his control of Republican affairs in Iowa causes comment here, especially in view of the fact that should the report prove true and Secretary Shaw's connection with a factional fight be established, there would beyond doubt be a complaint by Governor Cummins and his adherents against his further connection with the national administration.

THE IOWA FIGHT.

The rather bitter factional struggle in Town is a matter of history. One of the results of this fight, and of Speaker Henderson's resentment of Governor Cummins' control and his policy on the tariff, was the declination by Speaker Hen derson of the Republican nomination for Congress in his own district. While all kinds of statements were given out about that declination, it is pretty well known that General Henderson bitterly resented the making of a platform for his race by the Cummins faction in Iowa. That facion, led in person by Governor Cummins, advecates everywhere and in all its ut-terances a revision of any tariff duties that shelter trusts. The old dominant lement in lowa, composed of Secretary Shaw, Speaker Henderson and nearly all he other lows Congressmen, do not and will not go that far in tariff revision, and their dislike for Governor Cummins has not been concealed. Plausibility to the lowa story is given by the close personal elations between Secretary Shaw and Speaker Henderson and it is believed that if there were found to be a good opening to overturn the influence of Governar Cummins it would be seized instantly. Speaker Henderson is regarded as the trongest man to make the fight.

It has been customary to give an Iowa governor two terms, and Governor Cum-mins will aspire to succeed himself. He has built up a powerful machine in that direction and is able and popular. Yet he would meet a brilliant man in General Henderson, who could defeat his renomination if any man in Iowa could. That would re-establish the old influences in

NO COMPLAINT.

There is said to be no love lost between Secretary Shaw and Governor Cummins, but so far Secretary Shaw has done noth-ing that would give Governor Cummins opportunity to complain to the President. allow a portion of his administration, one of his cabinet officers, to become identifled with a factional struggle in a Republican state, and so there would be a dangerous outcome should charges be made at any time by the Cummins fac-

It was almost such a fight as this that threatened the position of Secretary Hitchcock in the cabinet. The opposition of "Dick" Kerens, Republican national committeeman, to Secretary Hitchcock's participation in the distribution of federal participation in Missouri led to trouble. This was averted by the diplomacy of President Roosevelt himself. He tactfully prevented the continuation of the factional differences and made appointments that for a time shut off further complaint. Secretary Hitchcock, outwardly at least, has not taken an active part in Missouri politics, and remains in the cabinet. Secretary Shaw is believed to be too much of a good politician to permit anything to occur that would embroil the na-He knows what it would lead to, and his shrewdness will probably prevent anything happening to lend color to the sup-position that he is part of a combine to elect Speaker Henderson governor and overturn Governor Cummins and his cohorts. Future movements in Iowa, however, will be watched carefully for developments. Iowa men in Washington identified prominently enough with their party to know what is intended say they do not believe that Speaker Henderson will be a candidate for governor next year, and declare that it is his intention to retire from politics. On the other hand, Iowa newspapers friendly to Governor Cummins publish announcements that Speaker Henderson will be a candidate, and the announcement is not denied. It is declared that Speaker Henderson seeks vindication of his position on the tariff.

But a Rise Is Feared at Oregon City.

O. W. P. & R. Cars Have Been Laid Off---Brief Local News Matters.

OREGON CITY, Dec. 9 .- During the last 24 hours the Williamette has failen slightly and will continue to do so during the day, but it is expected by the river men that the water will commence rising again tonight. The rains of yesterday and test night have brought the Claskamas ing two tenues as week. Machinery and up again, but that stream soon empties. The Chinese gardens and the fields under the electric car trestle are partly cov-ered with water. Since the river has reached its present stage the O. W. P. & Ry. Co. are not operating cars between Canemah and Oregon City. While there is no apparent weakness known to exist along the roadway, there is a strong cur-rent running in the basin against the bridgework, so as a matter of precau-tion the passage of the cars was stopped. The swiftness of the water makes it ecessary for steamboat captains to exer cise great caution in entering the locks or in making landings.
