Holman's sentiments, referring to Mr. Chamberlain and his incoming administration, and expressing the hope that some day Oregon would send "some Holnan, or some Bennett, or some Chamberlain to the United States Senate. For the latter expression, he received thunderous applause.

Charles Galloway followed. He is member of the House from Yamhili County, and gave a "rattling good" speech, disquasing Andrew Jackson and the Democracy in rather brilliant manner. He was applauded to the echo. Dr. Welch responded to a call and excused himself from speaking, briefly expressing his sympathy with the other Democrats present, and hoping there would be other such meetings. Senator Sweek was demanded by general calls from the audience, and replied in a few pertinent sentences, after which the meeting was brought to a close. General appreciation, of the entertainment was expressed, and to the announcement that upon Jefferson Day. April 2. a banquet would be given, there was enthusiastic endorsement.

ESTATES PROBATED.

The estate of Dolph L. Mason and Sarah J. Mason, his mother, both deceased, was filed for probate this morning. The former left an estate valued at $500, and the mother left property of the value of $3,000. On the petition of some of the heirs, County Judge Webster appointed William Bertrand Mason as administrator of the estates.

CHANCE FOR PORTLAND MAN

Wife and Fortune Being Laid at Feet of a Webfoot.

An Ann Arbor woman is giving some enterprising rortland business man a chance to make a fortune and at the same time get a wife. Cora B. Randall of Ann Arbor, Mich, has written to the Portland Board of Trade regarding this matter. In part she says for the benefit of her Portland friends; I am a single lady and am engaged in the manufacture of ladies' skirts, cor-sets and tailor-made suits. I am dis-pleased with Ann Arbor, both as a business place and as a place of residence, so desire to locate in a larger city where people do not freeze winters and take all summer to thaw. Should I settle in the West I would be pleased to have a business man to take an interest in the business, where he would assume a part of the responsibility." Secretary Shillock is as yet undecided how to answer the fair damsel. Person-ally he does not know whether the ladies of Portland would patronize a home manufacturer of articles such as corsets, and the like. But he states that he will what they think of the states that he will what they think of the proposition. After this part of the work is accomp-lished he will make a list of his gentlemen friends, select those who have as Conrad Miller, 268 Salmon st yet not assumed the responsibilities of vular disease of the heart. Age matrimony, and put Ann Arbor's letter 11 months and 22 days; Cremat before them. After this is done he will answer the Michigan maiden in an epistle couched in the sweetest terms.
